McNair Scholars Faculty Mentor-Scholars Contact Log

At minimum, our Faculty Mentors are expected to report on their meetings with Scholars on a monthly basis. However, summaries of individual meetings and biweekly meeting summaries are also welcome to the Assistant Director (e-mailed, faxed/scanned, or hand mail). Please note: Faculty Mentors and Scholars are expected to meet at least twice per month or as needed during active research activities. Please take your time to evaluate the Scholar by thoughtfully and accurately filling in the information below. *Indicates a required field.

*Faculty Mentor’s Name ________________________________

*Please indicate the time frame on which you are reporting (please check all that apply):

- Single meeting (0-1 hour)
- Bi-weekly meeting (0-1 hour)
- Monthly Meeting (0-2 hours)
- Other ________________________________

*Scholar’s Last Name ________________________________

What was the purpose of your meeting each month(s)? Please check all that apply

- Research
- Preparation for conferences, workshops, and seminars
- Graduate School Admissions Requirements (letters or recommendation, GRE Prep, Statement of Purpose revision)
- Graduate Assistantships, Teaching Assistantships, Financial Literacy, Scholarships
Internships

Academic Counseling and Support

Tutoring

Other ________________________________

*How would you rank this Scholar in the Following areas of progression towards completing their degree and their undergraduate research (please check one)?

○ Excellent ○ Above Average

○ Average ○ Below average

○ Poor

Please feel free to make comments regarding the Scholar. The TRiO Director and the Assistant Director will use this information to monitor the Scholars’ academic and research progress.

________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

___________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Thank you for your time and support of McNair Scholars. Please return this form to our offices in 302 Halladay Student Services or you can fax, or e-mail the form to Deirdre.Hill@tamuc.edu Fax Number is 903.468.3220.

Thank you!