Women’s Leadership LLC Learning Outcomes:

Through participation in the Women’s Leadership LLC at Pride Rock, community members will:

- Explore issues of women’s leadership through opportunities for involvement and learning
- Demonstrate an understanding, appreciation, and exploration of gender identity and expression
- Develop a commitment to civic engagement through participation in the community’s chosen service project
- Understand the social change model of leadership as it relates to the Women’s Leadership LLC at Pride Rock experience
- Develop positive interpersonal relationships with faculty, peers, LLC community members, and University staff through opportunities for active engagement and community building
- Develop essential leadership skills relevant to future careers and success as a college student
- Contribute to the intellectual and academic community environment through sharing, exploration, and questioning of self and others’ experiences

Women’s Leadership LLC Expectations and Requirements

If you are offered a spot and choose to accept placement in the Women’s Leadership LLC, you are forfeiting a chance of roommate preference; as we will assign you with other Women’s Leadership LLC residents. In submitting an application, you acknowledge that you are applying to join a Living Learning Community that will take commitment to service, student leadership, and dedication to self and others.

As a participant in the Women’s Leadership Living Learning Community, my responsibilities are:

- Meet all the expectations of the LLC Program Model (See below)
- Meet all requirements necessary to remain enrolled at Texas A&M University-Commerce. This includes remaining in good academic and judicial standing. Those that fall below academic standards will be asked to leave the community.
- To respect my fellow community members, resident assistants, A&M-Commerce staff, faculty members, and others I meet during this experience.
- To act with integrity in everything that is done for the community and will represent the Texas A&M University-Commerce Living Learning Program with courtesy & professionalism.
- To be willing to collaborate with others as well as be proactive in helping the community reach its goals.
- To be actively involved in my community’s activities, meetings, programs, events, etc.
