Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form

1) Faculty or staff member must use this form to report all alleged charges of academic dishonesty. (Use this form to report an alleged undergraduate student charge of academic dishonesty to the Provost Office for determination and notification of charges.) Complete section I of this form and send the form to the Provost Office, provide a copy to the student, student’s major Department Head/Director, and Academic Dean/Director of School (as soon as is practicable) preferably within ten (10) university business days of the discovery of the alleged violation. For a nondegree student, the Department Head/Director in which the incident occurred will be copied. Complete a form for each student involved in the incident.

2) The Provost Office will verify if this allegation is the student’s first offense.

   First Offense
   If this is the first offense by the student, the Provost Office will inform the faculty or staff member that the incident is a first offense.

   Repeat Offense
   If the Provost Office determines the student has a previous violation on record, the alleged violation will be referred to the Academic Dean/Director of School for further adjudication. A second offense may result in separation (suspension or expulsion) from the University. The Academic Dean/Director of School adjudicates all such cases via the hearing process according to University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty.

   Serious First Offense warranting a more Severe Penalty than those listed below
   If the faculty or staff member believes the first infraction is serious enough to warrant a more severe penalty than those listed below, the faculty or staff member must indicate below. The student will be notified in writing of the charges by the Provost Office and the case will be referred to the Academic Dean/Director of School who will adjudicate all such cases via the hearing process according to University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty.

13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty
If this is the first offense by the student, the Provost Office will inform the faculty or staff member that the incident is a first offense. The faculty or staff member will confer with the student. If the student accepts responsibility for the allegation, and the student and faculty/staff member agree on the penalty, the student should complete Section II of this form. The faculty member should return this entire form with the student section completed and signed by the student to the Provost Office. Return of the completed and signed form and assessment of the penalty concludes the disciplinary action for the first offense.

☐ I believe this is a repeat offense by the student. I understand that if the Provost Office determines that the student has a previous violation on record, the Provost Office will notify the student in writing of the charges and refer the case to the Academic Dean for adjudication via the hearing process described in Section 3 of University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty.

☐ I believe the first infraction is serious enough to warrant a more severe penalty than a. F on the assignment, b. F in the course, c. required to participate in extra requirements or training, or d. some combination of a-d. I understand the Provost Office will notify the student in writing of the charges and refer the case to the Academic Dean for adjudication via the hearing process described in Section 3 of University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty.

Attach a description of the circumstances of the violation. Be sure to include any dates, location, facts leading to suspicion of violation, names of witnesses, etc. Please provide copies of exams, papers or other relevant evidence along with this form to the Provost Office as outlined in the 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty procedure. Retain all originals for your own records.

Faculty/Staff’s Name (printed) Faculty/Staff’s Signature Date

Faculty or staff member will submit this form and a copy of all documentation such as copies of exams, papers, or other relevant evidence to the Provost Office and send a copy to the student, the Department Head/Director and the Academic Dean (as soon as practical), preferably within five (5) university business days of the discovery of the alleged incident.

Section II: Completed by Provost Office (if first offense)

☐ This is the student’s first offense. This violation is eligible for faculty or staff member determination with student acceptance of responsibility for the violation and the student agrees on the penalty. If the student accepts responsibility for the allegation, and the student and faculty/staff member agree on the penalty, the student should complete Section II of this form. The faculty member should return this entire form with the student section completed and signed by the student to the Provost Office. Return of the completed and signed form and assessment of the penalty concludes the disciplinary action for the first offense.

Provost Office’s Signature Date

Section III: Undergraduate Student Decision – Completed by Student (if first offense)

☐ I accept responsibility for the above violation and agree with and accept the penalty assigned by the faculty or staff member.

☐ I disagree with the charge or the penalty for first offense.

If this option is selected, the student is entitled to appeal to the Department Head/Director and then to the Academic Dean/Director. The student must submit the appeal in writing within five (5) university business days of the submission of this form. The decision of the Academic Dean/Director of School regarding the student’s appeal of a first offense is final.
