

University Executive Council
April 3, 2017 | BA 290 | 1:45 p.m.

- Dr. Lee Young named Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management
  - Graduation is the emphasis and the goal
  - Continual assessment: continue what works and stop/change what does not
  - Empower students to go on and be successful
  - Welcome Reception at 4:30 p.m. at the Heritage House
- Jaret von Rosenberg named Men's Basketball Coach
  - Hungry, humble, hustle
  - Highly recommended
- Campus Calendar needed
  - John Weatherford and Glen McCull will start having regular meetings to discuss events on campus with other departments as identified
  - EMS will be updated to a new version
  - Will work on allowing download to your Outlook calendar
- More event space needed
  - Can use foyers of the Music and Science buildings
  - Policies that prohibit space use for non-students need to be changed
  - BA 343 and the Heritage House could be utilized more
  - Each building and outdoor area is being cataloged by John Weatherford
    - Several new spaces have been identified
    - Draft should be ready in two weeks
    - Will go to committee then Compliance Office
- Hall of Languages Renaming
  - April 18th
  - Speaking event at 11:00 a.m. with Andrew Young
    - Need to fill Ferguson Auditorium
    - Presidential medallion to be presented by the Chancellor to Dr. Keck
    - 200 of Andrew Young's book "An Easy Burden" were purchased to be handed out
  - Dedication and renaming ceremony at 2:30 p.m.
    - Refurbishment of the Hall of Languages has taken place for the event
    - Chorale and Brass Choir will perform
    - Will be moved inside the Hall of Languages in the case of inclement weather
    - Speakers from the University, including students
    - Spread the word—would like a good turnout
- Early release on Good Friday
  - No word yet from the Chancellor
  - Will reach out to Billy Hamilton
- Meeting with Senior Faculty set up by Dr. LaVelle Hendricks
  - Discussion of the future of the University
  - Strengthening, protecting, and expanding campus life
  - Focus on the 4-year experience—this should be "holy ground" for graduating students
  - It costs twice as much to live on campus
- Ian Lockwood and Plans for 24/50
  - Put a roundabout at Live Oak and a roundabout at Culver—no stop lights
  - Shrink the width of the streets
  - Restaurants and shops
  - Revitalize the area southeast of campus to a place where people will want to live