STUDENT HANDBOOK

2015-2016

Note: This handbook is subject to change without prior notification and updates will be available in the Educational Leadership Department. This handbook does not constitute a catalog and does not carry catalog privileges. **********

Revised October 2015
Future and Current Students:

Thank you for your interest in the online Educational Administration Principal Certification Program. Whether you are pursuing the 30-hour Master’s Degree in Educational Administration with Principal Certification or the 21-hour Principal Certification Only track, we strive to provide you with the necessary skills that will prepare you to become an effective school administrator within today’s educational climate. Our 7-week sub terms emphasize quality interaction between the instructor and student and are tailored to the demands of today’s busy professional educator and graduate student.

This handbook includes the following information:

1. Admission procedures and requirements,
2. Degree plans and course listings,
3. Student orientation and advising,
4. Principal certification internship requirements,
5. TExES Examination process, and,
6. Principal Readiness to test requirements

Should you have any programmatic questions regarding the Master’s Degree or Principal Certification Program, please contact Dr. Julia Ballenger at Julia.Ballenger@tamuc.edu.

Once again, we appreciate your interest in the Educational Administration Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program at Texas A&M University at Commerce.
Department of Educational Leadership

The online Educational Administration Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program is empowered by experienced faculty dedicated to the mission and vision of the department. Each of our faculty is passionate about your education, learning, and success.

Our Mission

The Department of Educational Leadership at Texas A&M University-Commerce prepares graduates for teaching, service, and leadership roles in a variety of educational, business, government, and industry contexts.

Our Vision

The Department of Educational Leadership at Texas A&M University-Commerce envisions exemplary online programs that challenge highly qualified students to excel in their respective disciplines and career. We will achieve this vision by engaging students in a rigorous and transformative learning environment. The curriculum includes theory-based, real-world activities that expand the knowledge base of the learner, the profession, and the respective academic disciplines.
Department of Educational Leadership
Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program Faculty

The faculty of the Educational Administration Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program are professional educators who bring their Texas public school leadership experiences to the program. Our faculty has served as assistant principals, principals, coordinators, assistant superintendents, and superintendents in various school districts. These practical experiences coupled with active research agendas make for the best possible learning experiences as students seek to become educational leaders who will make a difference in schools, school districts, and local communities.

The Educational Administration Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program at Texas A&M University-Commerce has a rich history, and the University is dedicated to the creation of educational leaders.

Though the name of our university has changed along the way, its role in creating educators of excellence has not changed. Professor Mayo’s founding creed of “ceaseless industry, fearless investigation, unfettered thought, and unselfish service to others” continues to this day.

Since 1996, the university has been a part of the Texas A&M University System. TAMUC, with its unique online delivery of instruction, continues to grow throughout Texas and strives to provide students with a quality education that serves as a springboard to careers and lives that make a difference through public and private education systems.

The Educational Administration Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program is a fully online program with our offices located in the Department of Educational Leadership in the College of Education and Human Services at Texas A&M University-Commerce.

The Department of Educational Leadership is located on the Commerce campus in the Young Education North Building, Room 113. The mailing address and other contact information are listed below.

ADMISSION PROCESS

Admission to the Master’s Degree with Principal Certification is a two-part process. First, applicants must apply to and meet the general admission requirements of the Graduate School at TAMUC. Please apply through the ApplyTexas application (www.ApplyTexas.org).

TAMUC GRADUATE SCHOOL ADMISSION

Students must be admitted by both the TAMUC Graduate School and the Educational Administration Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Program to be fully admitted to the program regardless of whether a candidate is pursuing the 30-hour Master’s Degree in Educational Administration with Principal Certification or the 21-hour Principal Certification Only option.

Next, applicants must complete the Principal Certification Program Application. Contact Kathy Black in the Educator Certification Office at 903-886-5904 or e-mail at Kathy.Blacy@tamuc.edu. You may access the Educator Certification Office at the following link for additional requirements.

http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/educationHumanServices/educatorCertificationAcademicServices/default.aspx

Applicants who pursue the 21-hour Principal Certification Only program must apply for Non-Degree Principal Certification through the graduate school application link. The 21-hour Principal Certification Only program is for those students who have earned a Master’s Degree from an accredited institution or maybe completing another master’s program at TAMUC.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS & CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION TO GRADUATE SCHOOL

- Application
- $50 application fee
- Undergraduate degree from a regionally accredited institution
- Minimum overall undergraduate GPA of a 2.75, or 3.00 overall on the last 60 hours of the undergraduate degree, or an overall 3.00 on a completed master’s degree from a regionally accredited institution
- Proof of a current valid teacher certification
- Teaching Service Record with a minimum of (1) year of teaching experience
- One of the following:
  - Official GRE Scores or
  - Completed master’s degree from an accredited institution with at least a 3.00 GPA or
  - Undergraduate GPA of 3.00 or higher overall or
  - Proof of a current valid teacher or principal certificate.
Students who apply for admission to enter the 30-hour Master’s Degree in Educational Administration with Principal Certification will have one of the following admission status categories assigned:

1. Full admission
2. Provisional admission

Full Admission Status is granted for those students who have completed the application process and have no further requirements for our program’s admission criteria rubric.

Provisional Admission Status is granted for those students who have an incomplete application. Under this status, the student is NOT eligible for financial aid and may take no more than 6-hours of program coursework prior to completing the entire admissions process. This process must be completed before being allowed to take more than the first two courses. Failure to complete the admission process fully will result in being ineligible to take courses the next sub-term/semester.

Screening Process for Master’s Degree with Principal Certification and Principal Certification Only Applicants

In addition to submitting the graduate and principal applications, applicants must complete a screening process below:

- Respond to online admission program questions that are in the ApplyTexas application.
- Pass (i.e., Meets Expectation or Higher) a follow-up telephone interview with program faculty.
- Submit signed Invitation Program Letter.

DEGREE PLANS AND COURSE LISTINGS

Official degree plans will be completed by each student during their first course (EDAD 615) and should be scanned and emailed to Judy Allen at Judy.Allen@tamuc.edu. She will obtain the appropriate signatures and forward a copy of the degree plan to the Educator Certification office.

Whether a student pursues the 30-hour online Master’s Degree in Educational Administration with Principal Certification or the 21-hour online Principal Certification Only Plan, EDAD 615 must be taken during the first semester of course work. The recommended sequence of EDAD courses is shown in Tables 1 and 2.

The courses EDAD 554 and EDAD 614 shall be completed at the conclusion of the program. EDAD 607 may be taken in the first 7-week sub term, with 614 and 554 (second sub term) to expedite completion of program if you begin in Summer or Fall semesters. This will enable students to finish their Principal Certification program in TWO semesters. The EDAD 614 Principal Internship lasts for the entire semester.

The Principal Certification Only plan is for students who have already earned a Master’s Degree from an accredited institution or are currently completing another master’s program at TAMU-Commerce. The Master’s degree need not be in Educational Administration. Students may also consider earning a second Master’s degree along with their principal certification. If so, please review the requirements for Master’s degrees and certification within the previous section.

Applicants seeking a Master’s degree occasionally request consideration of prior graduate coursework for the requirements of their Master’s degree. Students wishing to request transfer of credit should complete the Transfer/Substitution Request Form and submit to Dr. Julia Ballenger (Julia.Ballenger@tamuc.edu) and specify the courses they are interested in transferring or substituting. Official transcripts (showing the courses requested to be transferred) and course description must be supplied for evaluation.

Each course will be considered in light of course content and conformity to existing course requirement on a case-by-case basis. A maximum of 9 semester credit hours will be allowed to be transferred to the Master’s degree. All transfers of credit must be ultimately approved by the Graduate School. Please be assured that the courses in our program are focused on the roles and responsibilities of principals and are necessary to prepare our students to become a principal as well as to pass the Principal (068) TExES exam. No transfer/substitutions can be made for EDAD 554 or EDAD 614. Potential transfer work cannot be over 6 years old at program completion without the approval of the graduate school.

Six-Year Timeline for Course Completion A student has six years to complete all course work to earn a Principal Certification and have the approval to take the Principal (068) TExES exam. Please note that no course may be older than six years at the time a student attempts the Principal (068) TExES exam. Students who do not complete the program within this time period will not be approved to take the Principal (068) TExES exam and may be required to complete additional coursework or satisfy other requirements to receive such approval.

The Graduate Catalog states: All work for the master’s/specialist degree must be completed during the six years immediately preceding the date on which the degree is to be awarded. Credit earned over six years prior to graduation requires specific written departmental justification and approval by the Dean of Graduate Studies to be counted toward a master's/specialist degree. The discipline in which the course(s) was taken shall be involved in the validation of an old course.
STUDENT PROGRAM ORIENTATION AND ADVISING

An orientation program is scheduled during the first sub-term of the semester. This orientation includes:

1. Information about the history of the university,
2. TExES preparation resources,
3. Educational Administration Program Personnel,
4. Requirements for completion of the Master’s degree with Principal Certification and Principal Certification Only Programs,
5. The value, benefits, and expectations of the program; scholarly writing, and
6. Library access.

Dr. Jane Clark is the Coordinator of Enrollment & Admissions. She may be contacted at EducationalLeadership@tamuc.edu or Jane.Clark@tamuc.edu. Questions about enrollment and registration questions beyond the scope of this Handbook should be directed to to Dr. Clark. Judy Allen, Department Administrative Assistant, may be contacted for general questions about the program at Judy.Allen@tamuc.edu or 903-886-5577. For program specific questions contact the course leads or Dr. Julia Ballenger at Julia.Ballenger@tamuc.edu.

THE PRINCIPAL INTERNSHIP

The Principal Internship, required by state law, is an integral part of the educational experience of the Principal Preparation Program. Students must complete at least one full 16 week semester enrolled in EDAD 614 incurring a minimum of 160 clock hours of internship experiences. The internship is designed to bridge the gap between theory and practice by building on the student’s academic foundation with in-school experiential learning. The internship is aligned with the state standards, domains, and competencies.

Students planning to take the internship should complete an application found in the Principal Internship Handbook by July 1st (for the Fall semester) or by November 1st (for the Spring semester). Application packets should be sent to EducationalLeadership@tamuc.edu in PDF format by the due date for the semester in which the student intends to begin the internship.

The internship experiences are designed to be accrued during the semester of the internship. However, students may begin collecting no more than 20 hours prior to the start of the semester with approval of the TAMUC Principal Internship Coordinator. The Principal or Site Supervisor should be directing the campus activities and be interacting meaningfully with the intern concerning these experiences. Keep in mind, however, that the majority of internship hours should be accrued during the semester of the internship to take advantage of the beginning of school or end of school and the duties and responsibilities associated with each event.

Examples of the Master’s Degree and Principal Certification Plan and the Principal Only Certification Plan are on the next two pages.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAM REQUIREMENTS (MASTER’S DEGREE)

By University policy, all master’s degree candidates must complete a comprehensive examination. There are four ways students can demonstrate their learning through the comprehensive exam process: written exam, oral exam, professional portfolio, or a combination of the three. In the Department of Education Leadership, students will be required to develop a professional electronic portfolio in collaboration with program/department faculty. The portfolio will be comprised of 9 artifacts created by each student under the supervision of program faculty which will be developed in response to critical assignments. The completed professional electronic portfolio must demonstrate that students have a mastery of all work covered in the program including the Texas Principal Standards:

- Learner-centered values and ethics of leadership
- Learner-centered leadership and campus culture
- Learner-centered human resources leadership and management
- Learner-centered communication and community relations
- Learner-centered organizational leadership and management
- Learner-centered curriculum, planning and development
The development of the professional electronic portfolio will be a cumulative process that will occur as the student progresses through the Master’s Program. At the conclusion of each course, students will be required to complete a Critical Assignment designed to assess student mastery of one or more Principal Standards. Students must receive a score of 80% or higher on each critical assignment in order for the assignment to be accepted as part of the required professional electronic portfolio. A score of 79 or less on any critical assignment will result in a student being required to complete an alternate assignment or take an oral exam no later than one semester after failing the critical assignment. Students who fail a critical assignment in their last semester will be required to address this deficiency prior to the end of their last semester.

During the students’ last semester the entire portfolio will be reviewed for completeness to ensure that all required critical assignments have been recorded and submitted. The completed portfolio (9 artifacts) will receive a grade of Pass or Fail. Students will be notified of their results in a letter from the program coordinator. Results will also be forwarded to the Office of Graduate Studies and Research.

According to Final Comprehensive Exam policy as stated in the 2015-16 Graduate Catalog, "A candidate who fails this examination must complete whatever further courses or additional study are stipulated by the advisory committee or by the major department to correct the weaknesses or deficiencies revealed by the examination. The candidate who fails the examination may retake it when the department head deems it appropriate. Should the candidate fail the examination upon the second attempt, a third/final attempt may be taken only with the recommendation of the advisory committee or major department and approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies."

Question about the comprehensive exam can be addressed to Dr. Kriss Kemp-Graham at kriss.kemp-graham@tamuc.edu.

PRINCIPAL (068) TExES EXAM

Students wishing to be approved for taking the PRINCIPAL (068) TExES EXAM must meet eligibility requirements specified in the TExES registration bulletin. Also, principal certification students (whether earning certification with a Master’s degree or as certification only) seeking to be eligible to take the certification exam must:

1. Have an approved certification plan on file with appropriate signatures, Be admitted to the certification program, at http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/educationHumanServices/educatorCertificationAcademicServices/Available%20Programs/professionalCertification/principalCertification.aspx

2. Have successfully completed the Practice Test (068) with an 80% \textit{or} higher OR have attended a TExES 068 Review Seminar provided by a TAMUS educational administration program \textit{or} have completed the program.

\textbf{State Board for Educator Certification Website}

Please refer to the State Board for Educator Certification’s website - http://www.tea.state.tx.us/portals.aspx?id=2147484909 - to access general information that pertains to competencies for certificates, TExES tests, and current issues.

The TExES Principal (068) Study Manual provides assistance and is available at http://cms.texes-ets.org/files/1413/2949/6303/068_principal.pdf \textbf{This document is free. It should be downloaded and studied.} It contains all the domains and competencies which are the theoretical framework upon which the Principal (068) TExES exam is built. It also includes multiple practice questions with answers. Students should bring this document to every preparation seminar they attend.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR CLEARANCE TO TAKE PRINCIPAL (068) TExES EXAM

Beginning September 1, 2015, candidates will be limited to a total of five attempts to take a TExES certification test. The five attempts include the first attempt to pass the examination and four retakes. The Texas Education Agency (TEA) is implementing this change to Texas Education Code §21.048 in response to House Bill 2205, 84th Texas Legislature, 2015.

Students who want to be approved for taking the PRINCIPAL (068) TExES EXAM must meet eligibility requirements specified in the TExES registration bulletin. In addition, principal certification students (whether earning certification with a Master’s degree or as certification only) seeking to be eligible to take the certification exam must:

1. Be admitted to the certification program, at http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/educationHumanServices/educatorCertificationAcademicServices/Available%20Programs/professionalCertification/principalCertification.aspx

   AND

2. Have successfully completed the Practice Test (068) with an 80% or higher OR have attended a TExES 068 Review Seminar provided by a TAMUS educational administration program AND be currently enrolled in EDAD 614 Internship.

   OR

3. Have completed the program.

To initiate the approval process for the TExES Principal Exam, please contact Dr. Kemp-Graham at kriss.kemp-graham@tamuc.edu.

Clearance will only be provided for ONE testing attempt per request. Students seeking clearance for retakes must engage in remediation prior to receiving approval. Information about remediation can be provided by contacting Dr. Julia Ballenger, Program Coordinator at Julia.ballenger@tamuc.edu.

State Board for Educator Certification Website

Please refer to the State Board for Educator Certification’s website - http://www.tea.state.tx.us/portals.aspx?id=2147484909 - to access general information that pertains to competencies for certificates, TExES tests, and current issues.

The TExES Principal (068) Study Manual provides assistance and is available at http://cms.texas-ets.org/files/1413/2949/6303/068_principal.pdf. This document is free. It should be downloaded and studied. It contains all the domains and competencies which are the theoretical framework upon which the Principal (068) TExES exam is built. It also includes multiple practice questions with answers. Students should bring this document to every preparation seminar they attend.
Probationary Certification

Principal Probationary Certifications are available to students in good standing, who have a degree or certification plan on file, and who have completed at least 12 semester hours. In addition, students must provide proof that they have been offered employment as an assistant principal or principal by a school district. Students requesting probationary certification must provide a letter of employment from the superintendent (or designee) verifying the employment position and the offer of the position.

IMPORTANT!!! In accordance with TEA guidelines every certification candidate on a probationary certificate must be supervised for the duration of their probationary status. The certification candidate must register for EDAD 597 (Supervision of Probationary Principals) and be visited by a University Supervisor each semester they are on a probationary certificate or register in EDAD 614 Internship if a current active student.

Probationary certificates are valid for only one year but are twice renewable when completing the annual progress required; that is, the student must be actively enrolled, and be working to complete the certification requirements in a timely manner in anticipation of taking the Principal (068) TExES exam as soon as possible. Click here for Probationary Certification application.

Renewal of Standard Principal Certificate

Individuals who are issued the Standard Principal Certificate on or after September 1, 1999, are subject to Certificate Renewal and Continuing Professional Education Requirements, which are elaborated in Title 19, Texas Administrative Code, Chapter 232. All individuals holding a valid Texas professional administrator certificate prior to September 1, 1999, and who are employed as principals or assistant principals must complete the assessment described in Title 19, Texas Administrative Code, § 241.35.

Provisional Principal Certificate: Initially successful certificate candidates completing all requirements are issued a Provisional Principals certificate by the TEA/SBEC. The Standard Principal certificate is issued after completing an induction period of one year in an assistant principal or principal position. Individuals seeking to enter this induction period more than 5 years after the issuance of the provisional certificate must be approved by the educator preparation program, which recommended the provisional certificate.

Master of Education in Educational Administration (EDAD) Courses

EDAD 508. Facilitating Learning for Diverse Students. 3 Hours.

This course prepares prospective educational leaders to administer various school programs for diverse student populations. Programs addressed include special education, gifted education, bilingual education/English Language Learners, early childhood, school safety, career and technology education, counseling, and alternative education. The course will also inform students about the diverse needs of all individuals within the community related to race, color, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, age, religion, disability or handicap, gender, sexual orientation, or any other characteristics protected under applicable federal, state or local law. Prerequisites: EDAD 615, 626 and 656.

EDAD 554. GLB/Leading the Learning Community. 3 Hours.

This capstone course is designed to prepare candidates for exemplary school leadership as evidenced by student knowledge, dispositions, and performance ability to promote the success of all students. The course will include real-world situations and problem-based learning projects to enable the candidates to develop visionary, collaborative, instructional, organizational, and political leadership for the twenty-first century. Prerequisites: EDAD 615, EDAD 619, EDAD 607, EDAD 626 and EDAD 656.

EDAD 574. Developing Quality Instructional Programs. 3 Hours.

Developing Quality Instructional Programs. Three semester hours. The course explores the principles of administering instructional programs through development of a continuous improvement process utilizing a learning community. These principles are inclusive of the Instructional Leadership Development Model required for administrative certification in Texas. Prerequisites: EDAD 615, EDAD 626 and EDAD 656.

EDAD 595. Using Research for Best Practice. 3 Hours.

This course provides an overview of quantitative and qualitative research designs used in the field of education in order to implement instructional best practices. Emphasis is placed on the process and consumption of research. The student is required to demonstrate competence in developing and refining research techniques for best practices through the creation of a research proposal.

EDAD 607. Using Eval and Data to Imp Lea. 3 Hours.

Using Evaluation and Data to Improve Learning. Three semester hours. This course provides school leaders with the skills and knowledge necessary to analyze state, district, and local data for use in planning systemic improvement of instructional delivery, program effectiveness, and administrative processes. Acquisition, analysis, and interpretation of data are applied in educational settings to facilitate research based decisions in planning for instructional and organizational improvement. Prerequisites: EDAD 615.

EDAD 614. Leading Learning Communities Internship. 3 Hours.

Leading Learning Communities Practicum. Three semester hours over two semesters. One of four culminating courses that develop candidates for school leadership by providing opportunities to synthesize, practice, and apply knowledge in actual school settings while collaboratively planning and being guided by a practicing school leader/mentor. Over two semesters of internship activities, students collect artifacts that are used to create a professional portfolio to demonstrate preparedness for leading learning communities. Prerequisites: EDAD 615, EDAD 626, EDAD 656, EDAD 619 and EDAD 574.

EDAD 615. Leading Effective Schools. 3 Hours.

This introductory course provides an overview of school administration in Texas, which includes roles, functions, and duties of those who are charged with supervising schools in Texas. Critical review and analysis of principles of effective school leadership and organizational theories aligned to SBEC Principal Standards are examined and applied to the current challenges of leading 21st century schools in Texas.

EDAD 619. GLB/Designing Curriculum. 3 Hours.

This Course focuses on the development of and designing of curriculum for facilitating continuous improvement in the instructional program. Sound research-based practices related to planning, supervision, curriculum development and delivery, program evaluation, and change management for diverse learners in multicultural settings are incorporated. Prerequisites: EDAD 574, EDAD 615, EDAD 626, and EDAD 656.

EDAD 626. Using the Law in Educational Practice. 3 Hours.

This leadership course serves as an in-depth examination of federal and state school law for educational leaders addressing legal issues that impact the operation of public schools. Prerequisites: EDAD 615.

EDAD 656. Building Capacity for Powerful Learning. 3 Hours.

This school leadership course is designed to develop the candidate's knowledge and skills of human resources, the budgetary process, and the financial accounting system. The human resources section will focus on personnel management and instructional supervision skills needed to create an effective learning environment for all students. The budgeting and finance sections will focus on performance-based projects related to budget planning and development, resource acquisition and allocation, the accounting code system, and the school finance system. Prerequisites: EDAD 615 and EDAD 595.
Principal
Program Standards
(a) Principal Certificate Standards. The knowledge and skills identified in this section must be used by an educator preparation program in the development of curricula and coursework and by the State Board for Educator Certification as the basis for developing the examinations required to obtain the standard Principal Certificate. The standards also serve as the foundation for the individual assessment, professional growth plan, and continuing professional education activities required by §241.30 of this title (relating to Requirements to Renew the Standard Principal Certificate).

(b) Learner-Centered Values and Ethics of Leadership. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by acting with integrity and fairness and in an ethical manner. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:
   a. Model and promote the highest standard of conduct, ethical principles, and integrity in decision making, actions, and behaviors;
   b. Implement policies and procedures that encourage all campus personnel to comply with Chapter 247 of this title (relating to Educators' Code of Ethics);
   c. Model and promote the continuous and appropriate development of all learners in the campus community;
   d. Promote awareness of learning differences, multicultural awareness, gender sensitivity, and ethnic appreciation in the campus community; and
   e. Articulate the importance of education in a free democratic society.

(c) Learner-Centered Leadership and Campus Culture. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students and shapes campus culture by facilitating the development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:
   a. Create a campus culture that sets high expectations, promotes learning, and provides intellectual stimulation for self, students, and staff;
   b. Ensure that parents and other members of the community are an integral part of the campus culture;
   c. Use strategies to ensure the development of collegial relationships and effective collaboration of campus staff;
   d. Respond appropriately to the diverse needs of individuals within the community in shaping the campus culture;
e. Use emerging issues, trends, demographic data, knowledge of systems, campus climate inventories, student learning data, and other information to develop a campus vision and plan to implement the vision;
f. Facilitate the collaborative development of a shared campus vision that focuses on teaching and learning;
g. Facilitate the collaborative development of a plan in which objectives and strategies to implement the campus vision are clearly articulated;
h. Align financial, human, and material resources to support the implementation of the campus vision;
i. Establish processes to assess and modify the plan of implementation to ensure achievement of the campus vision;
j. Support innovative thinking and risk-taking efforts of everyone within the school community and view unsuccessful experiences as learning opportunities; and
k. Acknowledge, recognize, and celebrate the contributions of students, staff, parents, and community members toward the realization of the campus vision.

(d) Learner-Centered Human Resources Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by implementing a staff evaluation and development system to improve the performance of all staff members, selects and implements appropriate models for supervision and staff development, and applies the legal requirements for personnel management. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

a. Collaboratively develop, implement, and revise a comprehensive and on-going plan for professional development of campus staff that addresses staff needs and aligns professional development with identified goals;
b. Facilitate the application of adult learning and motivation theory to all campus professional development, including the use of appropriate content, processes, and contexts;
c. Ensure the effective implementation of the professional development plan by allocation of appropriate time, funding, and other needed resources;
d. Implement effective, legal, and appropriate strategies for the recruitment, selection, assignment, and induction of campus staff;
e. Use formative and summative evaluation processes appropriate to the position held to further develop the knowledge and skills of campus staff;
f. Diagnose and improve campus organizational health and morale through the implementation of strategies designed to provide on-going support to campus staff members; and
g. Engage in on-going, meaningful, and professional growth activities to further develop necessary knowledge and skills and to model lifelong learning.

(e) Learner-Centered Communications and Community Relations. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by collaborating with families and community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs, and mobilizing community resources. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

a. Demonstrate effective communication through oral, written, auditory, and nonverbal expression;
b. Use effective conflict management and group consensus building skills;
c. Implement effective strategies to systematically gather input from all campus stakeholders;

d. Develop and implement strategies for effective internal and external communications;

e. Develop and implement a comprehensive program of community relations, which uses strategies that will effectively involve and inform multiple constituencies, including the media;

f. Provide varied and meaningful opportunities for parents to be engaged in the education of their children;

g. Establish partnerships with parents, businesses, and other groups in the community to strengthen programs and support campus goals; and

h. Respond to pertinent political, social, and economic issues that exist in the internal and external environment.

(f) Learner-Centered Organizational Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students through leadership and management of the organization, operations, and resources for a safe, efficient, and effective learning environment. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

a. Implement appropriate management techniques and group processes to define roles, assign functions, delegate authority, and determine accountability for campus goal attainment;

b. Gather and organize information from a variety of sources for use in creative and effective campus decision making;

c. Frame, analyze, and creatively resolve campus problems using effective problem-solving techniques to make timely, high-quality decisions;

d. Develop, implement, and evaluate change processes for organizational effectiveness;

e. Implement strategies that enable the physical plant, equipment, and support systems to operate safely, efficiently, and effectively to maintain a conducive learning environment;

f. Apply local, state, and federal laws and policies to support sound decisions while considering implications related to all school operations and programs;

g. Acquire, allocate, and manage human, material, and financial resources according to school district policies and campus priorities;

h. Collaboratively plan and effectively manage the campus budget;

i. Use technology to enhance school management; and

j. Use effective planning, time management, and organization of work to maximize attainment of school district and campus goals.

(g) Learner-Centered Curriculum Planning and Development. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by facilitating the design and implementation of curricula and strategic plans that enhance teaching and learning; alignment of curriculum, curriculum resources, and assessment; and the use of various forms of assessment to measure student performance. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:
a. Use emerging issues, occupational and economic trends, demographic data, student learning data, motivation theory, learning theory, legal requirements, and other information as a basis for campus curriculum planning;
b. Facilitate the use of sound research-based practice in the development and implementation of campus curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular programs;
c. Facilitate campus participation in collaborative school district planning, implementation, monitoring, and curriculum revision to ensure appropriate scope, sequence, content, and alignment;
d. Facilitate the use and integration of technology, telecommunications, and information systems to enrich the campus curriculum; and
e. Facilitate the effective coordination of campus curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular programs in relation to other school district programs.

(h) Learner-Centered Instructional Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by advocating, nurturing, and sustaining a campus culture and instructional program conducive to student learning and staff professional growth. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

a. Facilitate the development of a campus learning organization that supports instructional improvement and change through an on-going study of relevant research and best practice;
b. Facilitate the implementation of sound, research-based instructional strategies, decisions, and programs in which multiple opportunities to learn and be successful are available to all students;
c. Implement special campus programs to ensure that all students are provided quality, flexible instructional programs and services to meet individual student needs (i.e., guidance and counseling programs and services);
d. Use interpretation of formative and summative data from a comprehensive student assessment program to develop, support, and improve campus instructional strategies and goals;
e. Facilitate the use and integration of technology, telecommunications, and information systems to enhance learning;
f. Facilitate the implementation of sound, research-based theories and techniques of classroom management, student discipline, and school safety to ensure an environment conducive to teaching and learning;
g. Facilitate the development, implementation, evaluation, and refinement of student activity programs to fulfill academic, developmental, social, and cultural needs; and
h. Acquire and allocate sufficient instructional resources on the campus in the most equitable manner to support and enhance student learning.
Principal Standards

Chapter 149. Commissioner’s Rules Concerning Educator Standards
Subchapter BB. Administrator Standards

§149.2001. Principal Standards.

(a) Purpose. The standards, indicators, knowledge, and skills identified in this section shall be used to align with the training, appraisal, and professional development of principals.

(b) Standards.

(1) Standard 1--Instructional Leadership. The principal is responsible for ensuring every student receives high-quality instruction.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective instructional leaders:

(I) Prioritize instruction and student achievement by developing and sharing a clear definition of high-quality instruction based on best practices from research;

(II) Implement a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards;

(III) Analyze the curriculum to ensure that teachers align content across grades and that curricular scopes and sequences meet the particular needs of their diverse student populations;

(IV) Model instructional strategies and set expectations for the content, rigor, and structure of lessons and unit plans; and

(V) Routinely monitor and improve instruction by visiting classrooms, giving formative feedback to teachers, and attending grade or team meetings.

(ii) In schools led by effective instructional leaders, data are used to determine instructional decisions and monitor progress. Principals implement common interim assessment cycles to track classroom trends and determine appropriate interventions. Staff have the capacity to use data to drive effective instructional practices and interventions. The principal's focus on instruction results in a school filled with effective teachers who can describe, plan, and implement strong instruction and classrooms filled with students actively engaged in cognitively challenging and differentiated activities.

(B) Indicators.
(i) Rigorous and aligned curriculum and assessment. The principal implements rigorous curricula and assessments aligned with state standards, including college and career readiness standards.

(ii) Effective instructional practices. The principal develops high-quality instructional practices among teachers that improve student learning.

(iii) Data-driven instruction and interventions. The principal monitors multiple forms of student data to inform instructional and intervention decisions and to close the achievement gap.

(2) Standard 2--Human Capital. The principal is responsible for ensuring there are high-quality teachers and staff in every classroom and throughout the school.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective leaders of human capital:

(I) Treat faculty/staff members as their most valuable resource and invest in the development, support, and supervision of the staff;

(II) Ensure all staff have clear goals and expectations that guide them and by which they are assessed;

(III) Are strategic in selecting and hiring candidates whose vision aligns with the school's vision and whose skills match the school's needs;

(IV) Ensure that, once hired, teachers develop and grow by building layered supports that include regular observations, actionable feedback, and coaching and school-wide supports so that teachers know how they are performing;

(V) Facilitate professional learning communities to review data and support development;

(VI) Create opportunities for effective teachers and staff to take on a variety of leadership roles and delegate responsibilities to staff and administrators on the leadership team; and

(VII) Use data from multiple points of the year to complete accurate evaluations of all staff, using evidence from regular observations, student data, and other sources to evaluate the effectiveness of teachers and staff.

(ii) In schools with effective leaders of human capital, staff understand how they are being evaluated and what the expectations are for their performance. Staff can identify areas of strength and have opportunities to practice and receive feedback on growth areas from the leadership team and peers. Staff evaluation data show variation based on effectiveness but also show improvement across years as development and retention efforts take effect. Across the school, staff support each other's development through regular opportunities for collaboration, and effective staff have access to a variety of leadership roles in the school.
(B) Indicators.

(i) Targeted selection, placement, and retention. The principal selects, places, and retains effective teachers and staff.

(ii) Tailored development, feedback, and coaching. The principal coaches and develops teachers by giving individualized feedback and aligned professional development opportunities.

(iii) Staff collaboration and leadership. The principal implements collaborative structures and provides leadership opportunities for effective teachers and staff.

(iv) Systematic evaluation and supervision. The principal conducts rigorous evaluations of all staff using multiple data sources.

(3) Standard 3--Executive Leadership. The principal is responsible for modeling a consistent focus on and commitment to improving student learning.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective executive leaders:

(I) Are committed to ensuring the success of the school;

(II) Motivate the school community by modeling a relentless pursuit of excellence;

(III) Are reflective in their practice and strive to continually improve, learn, and grow;

(IV) View unsuccessful experiences as learning opportunities, remaining focused on solutions, and are not stymied by challenges or setbacks. When a strategy fails, these principals analyze data, assess implementation, and talk with stakeholders to understand what went wrong and how to adapt strategies moving forward;

(V) Keep staff inspired and focused on the end goal even as they support effective change management;

(VI) Have strong communication skills and understand how to communicate a message in different ways to meet the needs of various audiences;

(VII) Are willing to listen to others and create opportunities for staff and stakeholders to provide feedback; and (VIII) Treat all members of the community with respect and develop strong, positive relationships with them.

(ii) In schools with effective executive leaders, teachers and staff are motivated and committed to excellence. They are vested in the school’s improvement and participate in candid discussions of progress and challenges. They are comfortable providing feedback to the principal and other school leaders in pursuit of ongoing improvement, and they welcome feedback from students' families in support of improved student outcomes.

(B)  Indicators.

(i) Resiliency and change management. The principal remains solutions-oriented, treats challenges as opportunities, and supports staff through changes.

(ii) Commitment to ongoing learning. The principal proactively seeks and acts on feedback, reflects on personal growth areas and seeks development opportunities, and accepts responsibility for mistakes.

(iii) Communication and interpersonal skills. The principal tailors communication strategies to the audience and develops meaningful and positive relationships.

(iv) Ethical behavior. The principal adheres to the educators' code of ethics in §247.2 of this title (relating to Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators), including following policies and procedures at his or her respective district.

(4) Standard 4--School Culture. The principal is responsible for establishing and implementing a shared vision and culture of high expectations for all staff and students.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective culture leaders:

(I) leverage school culture to drive improved outcomes and create high expectations;

(II) Establish and implement a shared vision of high achievement for all students and use that vision as the foundation for key decisions and priorities for the school;

(III) Establish and communicate consistent expectations for staff and students, providing supportive feedback to ensure a positive campus environment;

(IV) Focus on students' social and emotional development and help students develop resiliency and self-advocacy skills; and

(V) Treat families as key partners to support student learning, creating structures for two-way communication and regular updates on student progress. Regular opportunities exist for both families and the community to engage with the school and participate in school functions.

(ii) In schools with effective culture leaders, staff believe in and are inspired by the school vision and have high expectations for all students. Staff take responsibility for communicating the vision in their classrooms and for implementing behavioral expectations throughout the building, not only in their own classrooms. Teachers regularly communicate with the families of their students to provide updates on progress and actively work with families to support learning at home. Members of the broader community regularly engage with the school community.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Shared vision of high achievement. The principal develops and implements a shared vision of high expectations for students and staff.

(ii) Culture of high expectations. The principal establishes and monitors clear expectations for adult and student conduct and implements social and emotional supports for students.

(iii) Intentional family and community engagement. The principal engages families and community members in student learning.

(iv) Safe school environment. The principal creates an atmosphere of safety that encourages the social, emotional, and physical well-being of staff and students.

(v) Discipline. The principal oversees an orderly environment, maintaining expectations for student behavior while implementing a variety of student discipline techniques to meet the needs of individual students.

5 Standard 5--Strategic Operations. The principal is responsible for implementing systems that align with the school's vision and improve the quality of instruction.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

(i) Effective leaders of strategic operations:

(I) Assess the current needs of their schools, reviewing a wide set of evidence to determine the schools' priorities and set ambitious and measurable school goals, targets, and strategies that form the schools' strategic plans;

(II) With their leadership teams, regularly monitor multiple data points to evaluate progress toward goals, adjusting strategies that are proving ineffective;

(III) Develop a year-long calendar and a daily schedule that strategically use time to both maximize instructional time and to create regular time for teacher collaboration and data review;

(IV) Are deliberate in the allocation of resources (e.g., staff time, dollars, and tools), aligning them to the school priorities and goals, and work to access additional resources as needed to support learning; and

(V) Treat central office staff as partners in achieving goals and collaborate with staff throughout the district to adapt policies as needed to meet the needs of students and staff.
(ii) In schools with effective leaders of strategic operations, staff have access to resources needed to meet the needs of all students. Staff understand the goals and expectations for students, have clear strategies for meeting those goals, and have the capacity to track progress. Members of the staff collaborate with the principal to develop the school calendar. Teacher teams and administrator teams meet regularly to review and improve instructional strategies and analyze student data. Throughout the year, all staff participate in formal development opportunities that build the capacity to identify and implement strategies aligned to the school’s improvement goals.

(B) Indicators.

(i) Strategic planning. The principal outlines and tracks clear goals, targets, and strategies aligned to a school vision that improves teacher effectiveness and student outcomes.

(ii) Maximized learning time. The principal implements daily schedules and a year-long calendar that plan for regular data-driven instruction cycles, give students access to diverse and rigorous course offerings, and build in time for staff professional development.

(iii) Tactical resource management. The principal aligns resources with the needs of the school and effectively monitors the impact on school goals.

(iv) Policy implementation and advocacy. The principal collaborates with district staff to implement and advocate for district policies that meet the needs of students and staff.

SBEC Principal Competencies

SBEC/TExES Framework for Principal Certification

The following SBEC Principal Domains, Competencies and supporting standards represent the knowledge, skills and dispositions principal candidates should master as practitioners. The information provides the framework to prepare for the TExES Principal exam.

Domain I—School Community Leadership (approximately 33% of the test)
Domain II—Instructional Leadership (approximately 44% of the test)
Domain III—Administrative Leadership (approximately 22% of the test)

The above percentages have evolved out of the Effective Schools, Generations 1 and 2, research, and effective principals/administrators should be able to divide their time to match the above goals.

DOMAIN I—SCHOOL COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP*

Competency 001
The principal knows how to shape campus culture by facilitating the development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community.

The principal knows how to:
- Create a campus culture that sets high expectations, promotes learning, and provides intellectual stimulation for self, students, and staff.
- Ensure that parents and other members of the community are an integral part of the campus culture.
- Implement strategies to ensure the development of collegial relationships and effective collaboration.
- Respond appropriately to diverse needs in shaping the campus culture.
- Use various types of information (e.g., demographic data, campus climate inventory results, student achievement data, emerging issues affecting education) to develop a campus vision and create a plan for implementing the vision.
- Use strategies for involving all stakeholders in planning processes to enable the collaborative development of a shared campus vision focused on teaching and learning.
- Facilitate the collaborative development of a plan that clearly articulates objectives and strategies for implementing a campus vision.
- Align financial, human, and material resources to support implementation of a campus vision.
- Establish procedures to assess and modify implementation plans to ensure achievement of the campus vision.
- Support innovative thinking and risk taking within the school community and view unsuccessful experiences as learning opportunities.
- Acknowledge and celebrate the contributions of students, staff, parents, and community members toward realization of the campus vision.

* "School Community" includes students, staff, parents/caregivers, and community members— all stakeholders!
Competency 002
The principal knows how to communicate and collaborate with all members of the school community, responds to diverse interests and needs, and mobilizes resources to promote student success.

The principal knows how to:
- communicate effectively with families and other community members in varied educational contexts.
- apply skills for building consensus and managing conflict.
- implement effective strategies for systematically communicating with and gathering input from all campus stakeholders.
- develop and implement strategies for effective internal and external communications.
- develop and implement a comprehensive program of community relations that effectively involves and informs multiple constituencies, including the media.
- provide varied and meaningful opportunities for parents/caregivers to be engaged in the education of their children.
- establish partnerships with parents/caregivers, businesses, and others in the community to strengthen programs and support campus goals.
- communicate and work effectively with diverse groups in the school community to ensure that all students have an equal opportunity for educational success.
- respond to pertinent political, social, and economic issues in the internal and external environment.

Competency 003
The principal knows how to act with integrity, fairness, and in an ethical and legal manner.

The principal knows how to:
- model and promote the highest standard of conduct, ethical principles, and integrity in decision making, actions, and behaviors.
