3. Food should remain downstairs only.
4. Students should be quiet and orderly in contest areas.
5. Students must make sure that they clean up after themselves.
6. Students should cooperate with adults instantly. Failure to do so could result in the teacher asking for their name badge, thus removing them from being able to compete, and reporting their behavior to their teacher.
7. Student attire and demeanor should reflect high school policies, but may not reflect the school or town name. This will result in disqualification.

Scholarship Exam (available to Juniors and Seniors only)

a. The scholarship exam is for students at the intermediate level and above, but a single test will be given regardless of the level of the student taking it.

b. A student may take the exam only one time in his/her high school career.

c. Scholarships will be awarded to the winners upon enrollment in a university or junior college. Proof of paid enrollment, as well as a copy of the letter of scholarship notification, must be provided to the NET-OLÉ treasurer (see address in section E) no later than September of the year after the competition.

d. At the time of the exam, students must provide an official letter signed by the high school counselor and language teacher verifying the level of study and enrollment.

e. Students will have one hour to complete the test.

f. One 1st place scholarship of $500 and a 2nd place scholarship of $250 will be awarded in French and German. In Spanish, a 1st place scholarship of $500 will be awarded to the bilingual/heritage exam winner, and another to the non-heritage speaker exam winner. A second $500 scholarship may be awarded if there are more than 20 competitors in a particular category.

g. The Texas A&M University-Commerce scholarship office will double our Net Olé scholarships if and only if the winner attends A&M-Commerce. First place winners will receive $1,000 ($500 in Fall, $500 in Spring); second place winners will receive $500 ($250 in Fall, $250 in Spring). All winners will receive notification of their award directly from the university.

h. This event is excluded from calculation of sweepstakes.

i. The Scholarship Exam is proctored and reviewed by Texas A&M University-Commerce faculty for identification of student placement in Spanish and French classes at Texas A&M University-Commerce. Students may, with an appropriate score, place out of up to 3 courses at Texas A&M University-Commerce (a 4th semester of placement credit may be awarded based upon performance on an optional composition.) These credits are meant to provide additional incentive for students to continue their language study at Texas A&M University-Commerce, and the placement credit does not apply at any other institution.
