Musician Health and Safety

Valuable information and resources are provided on the Music Education website to assist the musician in the prevention of injury and to provide a resource for discovering information about injury assessment and injury recovery.

For more information, go here: http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/humanitiesSocialSciencesArts/departments/music/musicianHealthSafety.aspx

Quality Enhancement Plan

This course has been accepted as a Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Global Course. The overarching objective of the QEP is Preparing Students for an Interconnected World by increasing students' knowledge of global dynamics, their ability to apply that knowledge, as well as their understanding of their role as engaged citizens within an interconnected and diverse world.

Students will be required to upload a graded artifact to their ePortfolios. This artifact will be a lesson plan for an authentic folk song from another country.

For more information, go here: http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/institutionalEffectiveness/qualityEnhancementPlan/default.aspx

Attendance Policy

It is expected that, as future teachers, education students model professional behavior by arriving to every class on time, with all materials in hand and assignments completed.
Each class period, an attendance count will be taken. Absent students will, by default, earn a grade of zero for that day’s work. Due to its performance nature, CLASS WORK CANNOT BE MADE UP. The instructor reserves the right to drop any student who misses more than four classes. If absences are accumulated after the drop date, the student will receive a failing grade. Tardiness or leaving early will affect the daily classwork grade.

Students who miss a class when an assignment is due are expected to email the homework assignment in Word format as an attachment to an email to the instructor by 11:59 p.m. on the due date, with this subject line: MUSIC 465 Assignment #, Student Name, Due Date. No late assignments will be accepted. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to retrieve the information you missed, and to prepare your assignments, if any, for the following class. Handouts will be placed in a container outside my office.

In-class assessments and assignments missed because of absence cannot be made up. This policy will be strictly enforced. Please do not ask me to make an exception.

Classroom Expectations

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

All students are expected to follow the Tenets of Common Decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. These tenets are outlined in the Student’s Guide Handbook under “Policies and Procedures: Conduct.” The tenets also apply to all communication to me outside the classroom.

Please demonstrate commitment to your course of study by contributing thoughtfully to class discussions, turning in assignments in a timely manner, being prompt and dependable, supporting your peers and the instructor, and accepting critiques graciously.

Cell phones should be turned off before class begins, and should be concealed from view throughout the duration of the class period. Please take care of any necessities (food, drink, restroom) before coming to class so that we may proceed without interruption. If you need to bring a bottle of water, please take care keep the cap secured. Dispose of all food and chewing gum before class begins.

In this course, you will be very active...singing, moving, playing instruments, dancing, improvising, and more. All students are to be actively participating in each lesson, just as your students will be when you are teaching in a public or private school. Please wear comfortable but modest clothing in which you can move around easily.

Failure to arrive to class with all necessary materials will result in a lowered classwork grade.

Please be careful with our classroom materials, and use them only when instructed.

Be open-minded about other’s opinions and thoughts, encouraging them to stretch their boundaries and take risks, and listen attentively to their performances.

Failure to conform to these expectations of behavior will result in a lowered classwork grade.

Developing Musicianship

You will need to have excellent musicianship skills as a music educator. During this course, you will work daily on singing, instrument, and movement technique.

One of the highest priorities of the semester will be developing an excellent singing voice, with good vocal tone, clarity, articulation, and intonation. If singing is not a strength for you, check out a vocal warm up CD so that you can practice daily.

Throughout the semester, you will be evaluated on sight-singing with solfege and hand signs. Develop the habit of practicing each day for a short period of time. In order to receive full credit, hand signs must be placed in the correct position in front of the body:

- do: arms above head
- ti: hands at forehead
- la: hands at eye level
- sol: hands at chest
- fa: hands at diaphragm
- mi: hands waist level
- re: just below waist
- do,: arms at abdomen

Gathering Resources

For this course you will continue to gather a collection of songs and other activities for children. You will, as in Music and Movement I, categorize them in several ways, melodically, rhythmically, and according to other skills taught. This will be a valuable resource for you as you begin teaching, one that you will continue to expand throughout your career.

You are expected to keep your notebook organized at all times, and to bring it to each class meeting. A “Notebook Check” will be provided. Get into the habit of placing your agendas and handouts in their proper places as soon as they are given to you.

Please purchase a three-ring binder and 30 dividers. Label the dividers in this order:
1. Syllabus and Class Agendas
2. Graded Assignments and Tests

Borrowing Materials

You have free access to all my personal books, DVDs, CDs, and teaching materials. Several of these items will be placed under reserve in the library. These items are for use in the library only. Simply present your student ID card at the front desk.

If you would like to borrow a resource overnight that I keep in my office, simply sign the Resource Checkout book in my office. Since other students may need the same item, please return any item you borrow the following class session. You must not lend any items checked out to any other individual. You yourself must check them back in by writing the date and your initials in the resource checkout notebook.

If a resource checked out to you is lost or damaged, you are expected to replace it as soon as possible. If you fail to return the item before the end of the semester, a hold will be placed on your account and you will receive an Incomplete for this course.

Please take care that you observe the copyright laws, and the limits of fair use.

Assignments

You will usually have at least one assignment due every week, and one reading passage. Be prepared to present your knowledge of the readings in class. Assignments should be thoroughly and neatly prepared.

All written work must be typewritten. Assignments that require music notation may be neatly printed, though notation software is preferred. Please use university-level spelling, punctuation, and grammar, and head your papers with your name, the assignment number, and the due date. Students are expected to print out their own homework and turn it in during class. Asking the instructor to print out your assignment for you will result in a reduction of 20 points.

In most cases, homework assignments will consist of creating short lessons, and teaching these lessons to your peers in class. You will teach these lessons as if you were teaching elementary-aged children. You will write a lesson plan in the correct format for every lesson you teach in class. The typed lesson plan is your homework grade, and the actual teaching of the lesson is your class work grade.

You may share your lesson plan with me BEFORE the due date to get feedback. I will look it over and make suggestions for improvement. Once the assignment is turned in, however, the grade will be final.

KEEP ALL ASSIGNMENTS ON YOUR COMPUTER. You will turn in a copy of your assignment on the day it is due, and I will add any corrections or ideas. You will then correct your assignment, so that it is ready to be copied for your classmates and placed in their resource notebooks. Failure to make and distribute copies of your work will result in a deduction of 50 points from your homework grade.

Over the course of the semester, you will be required to observe three area elementary music instructors working in their classrooms with children for one hour each. You will be given an observation form to complete and turn in. It will be your responsibility to contact teachers and set up a time that is convenient for both of you. If possible, try to arrange to have a small group of your classmates carpool together. You are expected to get instructor approval before arranging to visit a teacher. You must fill out a Criminal History Background Check form for each district you visit, well in advance.

For those who are unable to leave campus during elementary school hours, I have a collection of DVDs in my office available for checkout. Fill out the Lesson Observation and Reflection Form provided, one form for each teacher you observe. You must log in your minutes on the forms. Remember, all assignments must be typed.
Each semester, the TAMU-C Department of Music hosts a workshop for area elementary music teachers. Your attendance is REQUIRED. If you are unable to attend, you will observe the DVD and complete a Workshop Observation and Reflection assignment.

Final Project ~ On-Site Teaching

You and a partner will present 45-60 minutes of music instruction to children in a public school setting. You will develop this lesson, using the template provided, and using mini-lessons from class as models. Please discuss the lesson with me before teaching it to students. Your lesson will be videotaped, so that your colleagues can watch your lesson and learn from your experience.

Grading System

In-Class Performance and Discussion: 30% of total grade

Homework Assignments: 20% (including on-site teacher observation reports)

Sight-Reading Tests: 20%

Resource Notebook: 10%

Lesson Preparation and On-Site Teaching in Public Schools = 20%

90 - 100 = A
80 - 89 = B
70 - 79 = C
60 - 69 = D
59 ↓ = F

Academic Honesty

It is expected that you will exhibit ethical behavior concerning your work in this class. Students are expected to do their own work, use their own words in papers, and to reference outside sources appropriately. Failure to uphold the standards of academic honesty will result in the appropriate disciplinary action.

NOTICE!

- Each class period, I will distribute the outline for that day’s class and the assignments that will be due the following class.
- If you are absent, pick up your class handouts from the envelope outside the Music Education Office door (222).
- Students are encouraged to seek out the instructor for assignment clarification and/or personal assistance.
• You can receive extra points for attending and actively participating in workshops with elementary emphasis, such as those provided by the North Texas Chapter of AOSA, the Kodaly Educators of Texas, and TMEA.
• You are REQUIRED to attend the Music Education Convocations. These will be held on Wednesday afternoons at 4:00. The specific dates are TBA.
• You are REQUIRED to attend the spring Elementary Music Education Workshop. This will be held on a Saturday morning. The date is TBA.
• Keep in mind that your aptitude in this course may determine if you are approved for student teaching. Because student teachers are representatives of this university, I will only recommend those with excellent teaching skills, musicianship, high standards, and a strong work ethic. This could determine your graduation date.
• This syllabus is subject to be amended at any time.
