

THE HOLOCAUST: Days of Remembrance

APRIL 21-22

Rayburn Student Center

Presented by The Department of Political Science, Texas A&M University-Commerce, and the Dallas Holocaust Center for Education and Tolerance

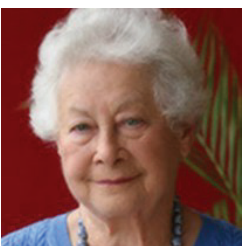

3/8

"181"

carmy chopi

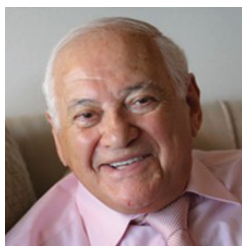

APRIL 21, 10 am

Margaret (Magie) Furst

Magie is from Germany, and she was on a Kindertransport that rescued approximately 10,000 Jewish children by bringing them to the United Kingdom. Jewish parents, in an attempt to save the lives of their children, handed them over to total strangers at the train station, not knowing if they would ever see them again.

APRIL 21, 2 pm

Jack Repp

Jack is from Poland, where he was part of the resistance, stealing from a munitions factory. He was in various ghettos and concentration camps including Kielce, Auschwitz, and Dachau, and a death march. He was liberated by American soldiers and came to the US in 1949.

APRIL 22, 10 am

Rosa Blum

Rosa was deported to Auschwitz from Romania. Because she was separated from the rest of her family upon arrival, she survived "selection" that sent the others directly to the gas chamber. Rosa was later shipped to Dachau and other camps until liberated by the U.S. 4th Army near Munich.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
COMMERCE

DALLAS HOLOCAUST
MUSEUM CENTER
for EDUCATION and TOLERANCE