

texasA&Muniversity-commerce

adjunct vita

Name: Greg Milano

Course Title: Photography 341

Description: Emphasis on technical quality and techniques of commercial and advertising photography. The student will learn creative control of studio lighting and will develop a capacity to generate and refine ideas.

Undergraduate Degree: B.S. Photography. East Texas State University. 1987.

Graduate Degree: M.S. Journalism with emphasis on photography. East Texas State University. 1990.

Professional Training: Graduate Assistant 1988-89 East Texas State. Semester internship with Dallas fashion photographer Kent Barker. 2 years assisting commercial photographers in Dallas.

Industry Certifications:

Employment: 2 years assisting commercial photographers in Dallas. 22 years working in Dallas as a commercial photographer. Owner of Milano Studios.

Client List: La Madeleine French Bakery, Mike's Hard Lemonade, Gatorade, 7 Eleven, Mission Foods, Baskin Robbins, Hunts Tomato Sauce, Borden Milk, and Planters Peanuts, Ortega.

Professional Organizations: Dallas Society of Visual Communications.

Regional Awards and Recognition:

National Awards and Recognition: International Photography Contest. East Texas State University.

Third Place, fine art black and white. 1988.

Honorable Mention, fine art black and white. 1989.

Other Outstanding Achievements:

Professional/Community College/University Instruction History: Assisted teaching Photo 111 for 2 years (1988-89) while working as a Graduate Assistant at East Texas State University. Responsibilities included weekly lectures, critiques, and lab instruction.

Taught a 1 week workshop in platinum and palladium printing to junior and senior level students at Texas A&M Commerce in January 2003.

Taught Photo 341 during the fall semesters of 2004 to present at Texas A&M Commerce.

Taught Photo 403 during the spring semesters of 2009 and 2010 at Texas A&M Commerce.

Taught a Studio Lighting class and Environmental Portraiture for North Lake Community College during the fall from 2012 through 2014.

Contributions/Services to the Teaching Field: Taught palladium printing workshops for the Texas Association of High School Photography Instructors fall conferences at St. Edwards University in 1988 and 1989.

Taught basic photography for the School of Continuing Education at S.M.U. from 1999 to 2004.