

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alyx Scott

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science
Major: Wildlife & Conservation Science
Minor: Biology
Date of graduation: May 2017
Honors: Cum laude

Master of Science
Major: Biology
Anticipated Date of Graduation: May 2019

CURRENT POSITION:

Graduate Assistant for Texas A&M Commerce-Department of Biology & Environmental Science.

RESEARCH BACKGROUND:

Research assistant in roadrunner survey at Texas A&M University – Commerce – April, 2016
Collegiate Conservation Program intern at the Houston Zoo – May-July 2016
Research assistant in spring monarch survey at Texas A&M University – Commerce – April-May, 2017
Thesis research at Texas A&M University – Commerce – August 2017-Current

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Complete and publish Master's thesis (Fall Reproduction in the Monarch (Danaus plexippus) and Queen (Danaus gilippus) Butterfly in North Texas)
- Pursue a Doctorate in Ecology or a related field
- Gain employment in the field of conservation

TECHNICAL SKILLS:

- Use of Microsoft Office
- Use of ArcGIS mapping software
- Use of SAS statistical analysis software
- Knowledge of laboratory procedures and best practices
- Familiarity with field tools and practices