

HOLLY ANGELINE STEVENS

phone 903 886 5208 | email holly.stevens@tamuc.ed

EDUCATION

Associate Applied Science 2016

Mountain View College | Welding Technology

Masters of Library & Information Science 2008

Wayne State University | Archive Concentration

Masters of Art History 1998

Northern Illinois University

EXPERIENCE

Texas A & M Commerce Adjunct Instructor 2010 to present
University of Michigan, Flint Assistant Professor, 2002 to present
Teach Art History I and II, Art Appreciation, Greek and Roman Art, Medieval Art, Renaissance Art and Women in Art online and live; advise students; participate in committees and judging of art

Texas Scottish Rite Hospital

Archivist, 2010 to present

Create Pediatric Orthopedic Society of North America archives; create and implement archival practices; organize, store and preserve archival materials; design annual display; create and continually update finding aid; help design digital presence; advise on best practices; create policies and procedures manual; facilitate scholarly research

Mountain View College

Adjunct Instructor, 2016 to present

Teach introductory welding classes; assist in marketing of the welding department; create and instruct outreach classes for high school students; advise students on classes/degree program

AWARDS

- Golden Apple Teaching Award, multiple years
- Instructional Technology Council Distinguished E-Learning Educator, January 2008
- Presentation: Digitizing in Small Repositories, Society of American Archivists Annual Conference, Washington DC, August 2010
- Presentation: Second Life marketing, New Mexico Library Association, April 2010
- Presentation: Archiving the Arts, AMIA Annual Conference, New York, October 2012