UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Students with Disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Student Conduct

- "All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment." (See Student's Guide Handbook, Polices and Procedures, Conduct)

- Plagiarism and/or cheating will not be tolerated. The first offense of either activity will result in a “0” on the assignment, and the second offense will result in a “0” for the entire course.

Plagiarism

- “1. The action or practice of plagiarizing; the wrongful publication or purloining, and publication as one’s own of the ideas, or expression of the ideas (literary, artistic, musical, mechanical, etc.) of another.” Oxford English Dictionary.

- Students should know that plagiarism occurs any time another’s ideas or words are used without attribution. Direct quotations must be cited and set off from other text by quotation marks (“”); paraphrasing of another’s ideas must also be cited. Copying from other students is also plagiarism. Any offense wholly or partially touching the above definition constitutes plagiarism for the purposes of this class.

- Faculty members take plagiarism very seriously for two main reasons. First, it represents a subversion of the learning process and cheapens the learning experience for other students as well as the offender. Secondly, college faculty themselves must strictly abide by rules governing their scholarly work, including prohibitions against plagiarism. It is a core value of scholarly professionalism to acknowledge the intellectual contributions of others. It is also an element of our civil and criminal law, as well as the ethical standards of the learned professions—i.e. accounting, architecture, engineering, law, medicine, etc.

Cheating On Examinations, Quizzes and Other Course Assignments

- The Oxford English Dictionary defines the verb “to cheat” as: “2. to defraud; to deprive of by deceit; 3. a. to deceive, impose upon, trick; b. to lead into (an action) by deception; 4. a. to deal fraudulently, practice deceit.”

- Any attempt to circumvent the integrity of the testing process or otherwise evade the fullest demands of class assignments in an unethical manner constitutes cheating. That can mean looking on another student’s exam, consulting notes or books during an exam unless specifically permitted by the instructor, stealing an exam and circulating it among other students, text messaging in class during an exam, or lying to an instructor about such activities all constitute forms of academic dishonesty that amount to cheating. Any offense wholly or partially touching the above definition constitutes cheating for the purposes of this class.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

Below are the basic weights of the various kinds of work required for the course. Assignments should be submitted to eCollege dropbox. Assignments are due at 7:20 p.m. on the dates indicate in the course schedule section of this syllabus. All written assignments should be typed and adhere to the American Psychological Association, 6th Edition manual, whenever appropriate. In addition, all written assignments must contain a header with the name of the person submitting the assignment in the actual document itself (not just the file name when it is uploaded). In fairness to students who make the effort to submit work on time, 5% of the total assignment points will be deducted each day from your grade for late assignments. All assignments should reflect university level spelling, syntax, and grammar.

In order to maximize your learning and success in this course, the instructor is available to review drafts of any assignments prior to the due date for submission. The goal in doing this is to provide guidance in terms of the content of the assignment, not to edit writing mechanics. Drafts must be sent via email at least 3 days prior to the assignment due date to allow sufficient time to provide constructive feedback in a timely manner.

It is recommended that students retain electronic and hard copies of ALL course products. Products from this class can become part of one’s individual professional portfolio.

Overview of Assignments

Adaptive Behavior Assessment Instruments Review (10 points)
Students will research two adaptive behavior assessment instruments and will develop a handout for each instrument including the age range, format of the instrument, training required for the examiner, and useful information obtained from the scores. The student will interview an individual who administers one of these instruments and report how they feel about the experience and the information the evaluation provides. Information obtained from this assignment will be presented in class. A rubric will be provided.

Adaptive Behavior Assessment Administration Practice (10 points)
Students will administer two adaptive behavior instruments, one elementary and one secondary student and write an evaluation summary. A rubric will be provided.

Research Synthesis and InfoSheet Project (30 points)
Students will work in small groups to explore one of the following disorders: (a) auditory processing disorder, (b) visual perceptual deficits, or (c) sensory integration disorder. The group is to research the disorder and write a 5 page paper which is to include the: (a) definition, characteristics, (b) the impact the disorder has on children in the classroom, (c) how the disorder is diagnosed, (d) the school personnel involved, and (e) the treatments most often recommended. Groups will develop a 10 minute presentation and an InfoSheet. Examples, resources, and a rubric will be provided.

Social Skills Lesson (20 points)
Students will develop a social skills lesson for elementary or secondary students. Students will present and share lessons. Additional information and a rubric will be provided.

Exams (30 points, 15 points for each examination)
Two exams will be given during the semester.

Grading Scale

A = 90-100%      D = 60-69%
B = 80-89%        F = below 59%
C = 70-79%
