COURSE DESCRIPTION: The purpose of this course is to identify the social/emotional and academic needs of students with special needs in inclusive settings. Management strategies, social skill development, and academic accommodations will be targeted. A key purpose of this course is to identify collaborative strategies, tools, and approaches that will assist in making the general education classroom one where all students can be successful.

COURSE COMPETENCIES: Students will demonstrate understanding and will apply knowledge of:
- Procedures for designing effective instruction and assessment based on appropriate learning goals and objectives.
- Learning processes and factors that impact student learning by planning effective, engaging instruction and developing appropriate assessments.
- Establishing a classroom climate that fosters learning, equity, and excellence by creating a physical and emotional classroom that is safe and productive.
- Principles and strategies for communicating effectively in varied teaching and learning contexts.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Chapter Readings: The following chapters include information that will be the focus of some of the discussions during seminar.
   Chapter 1 – Special Education and Inclusive Schooling
   Chapter 2 – Response to Intervention: Developing Success for All Learners
   Chapter 3 – Communicating and Collaborating with Other Professionals and Families
   Chapter 5 – Promoting Social Acceptance and Managing Student Behavior
   Chapters 12 – Facilitating Reading
   Chapter 13– Facilitating Writing
   Chapter 14 –Helping Students Succeed in Mathematics

Campus/District Survey (10 pts.): Complete the attached campus/district survey. Identify by name the person in each applicable position. If there are other resource programs or personnel available to your campus that are not included on the survey, add that information. Learn the roles and functions for each resource person or program.
Planning for “at-risk” students/RTI (20 pts.): Select a student who may be “at-risk” for school failure due to ability, socioeconomic reasons, health, behavior, etc. and develop a plan (1-2 pages) to help him/her be successful. Become familiar with your campus’ RTI process (it will be great if you can attend a RTI meeting) and design interventions for each tier. Include resources that are available to help you with ideas, strategies, techniques, etc. These can be internet sites, curriculum or textbooks, or district personnel. Report on how the student is responding to your efforts in implementing your plan. Remember to respect confidentiality.

Seminar Lesson Share (10 pts.): You will be required to bring in a copy of a lesson plan that you have used in your classroom that includes accommodations or modifications for students with disabilities. You will turn the lesson plan and feedback form in at the end of seminar. In seminar you will share the objectives of the lesson, how you delivered the lesson, and how you modified the lesson or what alternative strategies or accommodations you used (or would have used if needed) to meet the needs of students in your classroom. Classmates will provide you with feedback on your lesson.

ARD/IEP Meeting (20 pts.): Observe an ARD meeting this semester. Your campus administrator or educational diagnostician can help you arrange this. A reflection piece is to be completed after the ARD and should address the following areas:

1. Who attended the ARD? (identify individual by position, not by name)
2. Who led the ARD?
3. What was the purpose of the ARD (Admission, Review, or Dismissal)?
4. What kind of information (assessment, instructional, behavioral, etc.) was shared by each committee member?
5. Specifically, what appeared to be the general educator’s role and responsibility as a committee member?
6. How were educational goals and objectives determined?
7. How did the committee arrive at decisions concerning the student’s least restrictive environment (LRE)?
8. Were there conflicts or disagreements in the ARD? If so, how were they handled?
9. Was there anything about the process that surprised you or about which you still have questions?

Evidence of Accommodations/Modifications and Collaboration (40 pts.): Review the IEPs of the students served in your general education setting. Note the format of the documents and how mandated components are addressed. Particularly, what accommodations or modifications are specified for use in the general education? Develop a table (or other tool) that will allow you to have all of the accommodations or modifications for each student you are serving in one, accessible document. If any of your students have a behavior intervention plan (BIP) in place, note the reinforcers and consequences outlined and how they are to be administered.

As you work with the students in your classes, consider these points:

- Is there currently a system in place to track the effectiveness of identified accommodations and/or modifications?
- How do the general and special educators communicate regarding the IEPs?
• What interactions have you had with others concerning improving service delivery to your students with disabilities? How would you describe your personal attempts to work collaboratively?
• What have your efforts been to include these students in the general education classroom setting?

Your assignment is to submit the following:
• A two-page typed reflection discussing your efforts to include students with disabilities in your general education setting, and your collaborative efforts with colleagues, parents, and resource personnel on your campus.
• A copy of the accommodations/modifications table you develop (remember to maintain student confidentiality).
• Sample copies of lesson plans (2-3) that show evidence of your efforts.

Note: If there is not a student with an identified disability in your classroom, check with the special educator or educational diagnostician on your campus to review forms that are used to create the student IEPs. Document what you are doing to ensure the success of all students (so that a referral is not needed).

GRADING: Grades for the course will be determined using the following scale:
