Elements for Development and Presentation of the Final Theory Position Paper

1. Introduction: Present a brief description of your family background and development and discuss how they relate to your present beliefs, values and counseling theory.

2. Discuss the system of philosophy that supports your personal beliefs and your theory of counseling and explain their implications for your counseling.

3. What elements of your theory are found in other theories? Explain?

4. Explain how development, personality, learning (or, the theories of choice) are integrated into (or support) your theory. Include a discussion of the nature of the person, innate capacities/capabilities, and the motivation for behavior.

5. Discuss how your theory accounts for the wide variety of individual behavior found in humanity.

6. Discuss how your theory provides for the culturally/socioeconomically different client.

7. Define maladjustment according to your theory.

8. Explain the conditions necessary for constructive personality and/or behavior change to take place according to your theory.

9. Discuss goal setting in counseling according to your theory.

10. Define client improvement according to your theory and goals for counseling.

11. Describe your role as a counselor. Include in discussion: (1) major counseling techniques you use and why you use them; (2) techniques you use with various types of clients (i.e. substance abusers, spouse/child abusers, delinquents, depressives, perfectionists, eating disorders, etc.), and why you use them; and (3) your position on the use of history taking, diagnosis, and appraisal and explain why you take your position.

12. Would you accept for treatment clients whose value systems are opposed to your own? Why? (involuntary clients).
13. Summarize (1) research that supports your theoretical position (include references).

Note: You must have read at least four primary sources and four journal articles related to your theory before completing the paper and those sources must be included on your reference list.

For this paper student must demonstrate:

1. An understanding of the writings and ideas of selected counseling theory, theorist philosophical orientations and basic beliefs about the nature of the person and clients in counseling.

2. An understanding of your values, personal convictions about human beings, and mode of interactions with others.

3. An understanding of the relationship between the philosophical base of selected counseling approach and your own personality, values and basic beliefs about human nature and behavior change.
