13. Compare award and recognition categories for FFA, FCCLA, and/or 4-H.
14. Present an informational program at an FFA, FCCLA, or 4-H meeting.
15. Develop a Program of Activities/Calendar of Events for an organization.
16. Analyze fund raising strategies for potential profit and negative implications.
17. Critique a constitution for an FFA Chapter or other student organization.
18. Recognize the application of leadership principles in local communities.
19. Apply leadership concepts to community and business settings.
20. Identify service learning opportunities and resources at the local level.

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus during the semester, if needed. The instructor also reserves the right to extend credit for alternative assignments, projects, or presentations.
Course Assignments and Grading:

The following activities and assignments will be used in grade determination. The instructor reserves the right to modify course content, assignments, or grading policy at any time during the semester.

To earn a "B" student must complete the activities in Category #1 and have an 80% or higher average.

Category #1
- Exam #1 (Basic Leadership Principles/Duties of Officers/SAE) 100
- Presentation on Opportunities for Recognition and Competition (FFA Proficiency Awards, 4-H Roundup Event, Scholarships, etc.) 100
- Judge or Coordinate an FFA LDE or 4-H Roundup Event 100*
- Exam #2 (parliamentary procedure and symbols and traditions) 100
- Team Activity (Constitution/Program of Activities/) 100
- Summary of Field Experiences* 100

Final Grade = \[
\text{Points Earned} = \frac{\text{B}=80 \text{ or higher}}{600} \quad \text{C}=70-79
\frac{\text{D}=60-69}{600} \quad \text{F}=59 \text{ or lower}

Category #2 (Very Important)
To earn an "A" students must also complete the following in addition to earning at least 80% or higher on the activities listed in Category #1.
- Local participation in Collegiate FFA or another instructor-approved organization.
- Weekly online activities related to FFA, 4-H, and other youth development topics.

*Effective Fall 2007, all AGED 371 students must complete a minimum of 30 clock hours in early field experiences in the public school/secondary student setting. Judging or coordinating an FFA Leadership Development Event will count for 8 hours of this requirement. The weekly online activities (under Category 2) will count for 12 hours. The remaining 10 hours must be spent observing instructional activities in grades 6-12 in the secondary agriscience (or approved discipline) classroom/laboratory. Additional observation/activity hours are encouraged.

1. A general overview of the activity or award guidelines
2. Scope and levels of competition or recognition
3. Location of event or opportunity
4. Graphic display of concepts through a
   a. Poster,
   b. Bulletin Board, (or)
   c. Multimedia presentation
5. Written description or explanation through a
   a. 1-2 page handout,
   b. Press Release, (or)
   c. Informational Brochure

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus during the semester, if needed. The instructor also reserves the right to extend credit for alternative assignments, projects, or presentations.
Team Activity

Each student will be assigned to a team consisting of 3-4 members. Each team will be assigned a task from those listed below upon which to complete and report on to the rest of the class.

- Write/revise a draft/constitution for a student organization meeting university guidelines.
- Develop a Program of Activities or Annual Calendar of Events for that organization.
- Develop proposed budget, including estimated revenue/source as well as expenses.
- Plan an event that engages all members of the organization.

Local Participation in Collegiate FFA or other Instructor-Approved Service Organization

Each student is expected to attend and participate in at least four local activities conducted by the Collegiate FFA (or another instructor-approved service organization, if the student is not seeking teacher certification) outside of class time. This must include at least two chapter meetings. Other organized Collegiate FFA activities, except officer meetings, may count for this. Students must document each activity by:

a. preparing a set of minutes, if the activity was a meeting, or
b. summarizing the event in one page or less, addressing the outcomes.

Weekly Online Activities

The student will have the opportunity to participate in a series of weekly online activities that extend the learning beyond classroom lecture/discussion. Topics will be selected by the instructor and/or teaching assistant and may address a variety of topic related to managing student related organizations. Supplemental materials may also be provided including short videos, relevant magazine or journal articles, etc. Topics may include but are not limited to:

- Community Service/Service Learning
- Volunteer Training for 4-H Leaders or school volunteer
- Grants, Fund-Raising, etc.
- Student travel
- SAE Record Book Training for FFA Advisors
- External/community stakeholders
- National FFA Convention
- Agricultural Career Opportunities

Graduate Credit

In addition to the requirements specified above, each student seeking graduate credit must complete one of the following:

- Participate in the TAMUS Pathways Student Research Conference
  Or
- Submit a poster proposal or paper for an appropriate conference.
  Or
- Develop a grant proposal for a service learning grant that includes involvement of a youth development organization in the service learning project.

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus during the semester, if needed. The instructor also reserves the right to extend credit for alternative assignments, projects, or presentations.
Electronic Submission of Assignments/Documentation

All assignments will be submitted online in the appropriate Assignment Dropbox through eCollege, the university’s format for web-based and web-enhanced courses.

Class Syllabus Addendum, Fall 2012

Professionalism

Students are expected to attend class and/or laboratory as scheduled. Their participation in class discussion and instructional activities should follow the basic principles of common courtesy, decency, and cooperation with peers and instructional personnel. Rude and disruptive behavior, as well as cheating, in any form, will not be tolerated. The use of tobacco products in the classroom, laboratory, or field trip sites is prohibited. Inappropriate conduct will not be tolerated. Failure to comply with instructor’s guidelines may result in suspension from class for the remainder of the day’s instruction. Repeat offenses may result in additional consequences.

Reasonable Accommodations

Requests from students with disabilities for reasonable accommodations must go through the Academic Support Committee. For more information, contact Director of Disability Services at 903/886-5835.

Teaching Assistants/Guest Instructors

The need will arise occasionally for either a teaching assistant or guest instructor to teach/present a lecture or lab. It is expected that students will support and participate in class activities with the same level of courtesy as that demonstrated when the professor is present. Discourteous behavior during the lecture/demonstration by a teaching assistant or guest instructor is not acceptable.

Office Hours

The following office hours are the official times that I will be available for drop-in student consultation.

Mondays and Wednesdays 10:00-11:55 a.m.
Tuesdays 11:00-11:55 a.m.
Wednesday, Thursdays, Fridays by appointment only

Academic Honesty and Integrity

Students are expected to do their own work. Assistance with written assignments, such as proofreading or editing, is encouraged as long as the final concepts and product are those drafted and authored by the student. Information or materials (including ideas, quotes, data, procedures, etc.) from sources other than the student must be given proper credit through appropriate citation. The discipline of Agricultural Education uses the APA format (6th edition) as its primary style guide for publications, including research papers and reports. Assistance with this format and general guidelines for written assignments are available at the following two sources:

The Online Writing Lab at Purdue University

The Writing Center @ TAMU-Commerce
http://web.tamus-commerce.edu/academics/colleges/humanitiesSocialSciencesArts/departments/literatureLanguages/writingCenter/default.aspx

Academic honesty and integrity is expected of all students. Cheating including but not limited to copying, talking to classmates during testing, using notes when prohibited by instructor, and plagiarism (as defined by the Council of Writing Program Administrators http://www.wpacouncil.org/node/9) will not be tolerated. Penalties may include grade reduction or suspension from class, depending on the frequency and severity of the violation.

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus during the semester, if needed. The instructor also reserves the right to extend credit for alternative assignments, projects, or presentations.
