Course Description: A consideration of techniques for teaching total communication skills; and the role of linguistics in the language arts program.

Student Learning Outcomes:
To communicate better, and to assist children in their language arts development using scientifically based reading research proven methods.

A. Explain the nature of supporting English Language Arts learning in a total literacy classroom
B. Demonstrate a range of effective strategies, processes, and techniques for supporting children’s communication development (thinking, reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing, and performing)
C. Enumerate specific abilities that must be developed in readers to comprehend printed text
D. Evaluate a range of children’s trade books and other media to enhance literacy experiences
E. Contrast phonetic, semantic, and syntactic cueing systems, and how readers use them
F. Design authentic learning environments, accounting for differences between isolated activities and the total learning experience
G. Engage in evaluation and assessment, particularly the use of portfolios and observational accounts of children’s reading events
H. Evaluate yourself as a reader, writer, speaker, listener, speller, viewer, and producer of oral, print and non-print communication
I. Appreciate the home/school connection and children’s “funds of knowledge” about literacy
J. Defend the concept of inquiry-based classrooms

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments
Overview (each worth 10%):

1. Complete a draft Learning Contract and monitor your own progress (up to 10 points, 10% of your final grade).
   Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: A-J

2. Professional Behaviors: Attendance online is required; regular, consistent participation is important. We do important things every week of class – don’t miss it. Excessive absences (less than 6 hours a week logged in to eCollege, or 5 days without logging into eCollege) may prompt an administrative withdrawal.
   ○ Read textbook assignments, supplemental reading assignments, lecture notes, PowerPoint presentations, and resource links.
   ○ Check Leo eMail frequently, at least twice a week.
   ○ Discussions: Participate in frequent online class discussions, whole class or small groups. Most are asynchronous – not live. Note the discussion board rubric in eCollege: Tools: DocSharing: Discussion Board Rubric.pdf. Occasional synchronous (real-time, live) CHAT or CLASSLIVE sessions require your participation when scheduled. Occasional opportunity, optional, to go onsite to schools and centers for guided observation.

- Quizzes: Read all assigned readings. Participate in frequent chapter quizzes as posted in eCollege units.

You will self-evaluate your professional behaviors TWICE, once at the beginning, and again at the end of the course. Your grade on this Course Requirement will come from your self-evaluation (up to 10 points, 10% of your final grade).

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: A-E

3. Write a well formed essay, in three stages, evaluating yourself as a communicator:
   * As a reader of complex, technical texts (Gunning, chapter 9)
   * As a writer of comprehensible reports
   * As a listener and speaker, a conversationalist with children

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: H

4. Compile a notebook of reading comprehension strategies. Include ways to introduce new strategies to children of various ages and different stages of reading development; assessments; intervention; and resources.

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: B, C, E

Identify a specific learner, real or fictitious, and create a tutoring package for him or her.

5. Introduction
   - Identify a specific learner
   - Specify the Family Literacy, the “funds of knowledge” the learner brings from her home environment, her native tongue
   - Use an appropriate measure to pre-assess

6. Engaging Activities
   - Evaluate the results to make inferences about her reading level
   - Construct an engagement, activities, or teaching strategy to aid in her mastery of three to five TEKS.

7. Documentation
   - Document your learning, creatively, artistically, expressively, and exactly.
   - Let your representation of data become a reflective activity from which you learn by presenting what you’ve done.
   - Draw conclusions. Evaluate your effectiveness as a Reading Teacher.

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: B, C, F, G

Survey of Children’s Literature
8. Annotate 50 children’s books
9. Participate in a Literature Circle

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: B, D

10. Exams

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: A-J

Grading Scale: A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69, F = below 60.
TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

The following technology is required for success in this course.
- Internet access/connection – high speed recommended (not dial-up)
- Headset/Microphone/Webcam (especially for ClassLive synchronous sessions)
- Word Processor (i.e. MS Word or Word Perfect) save all files in Rich Text Format .rft

Additionally, the following hardware and software are necessary to use eCollege:
Our campus is optimized to work in a Microsoft Windows environment. This means our courses work best if you are using a Windows operating system (XP or newer) and a recent version of Microsoft Internet Explorer (6.x, 7.x, or 8.x).
Your courses will also work with Macintosh OS X along with a recent version of Safari 2.0 or better. Along with Internet Explorer and Safari, eCollege also supports the Firefox browser (3.x) on both Windows and Mac operating systems.

It is strongly recommended that you perform a “Browser Test” prior to the start of your course. To launch a browser test, login in to eCollege, click on the ‘myCourses' tab, and then select the “Browser Test” link under Support Services.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES
Course Specific Procedures:

Attendance

Attendance online is expected; regular, consistent participation is important. We do important things every week of class – don’t miss it. Excessive absences (less than 6 hours a week logged in to eCollege, or 5 days without logging into eCollege) may prompt an administrative withdrawal.

Academic Honesty Policy

Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material.

We suggest these web resources to students for reference regarding what constitutes plagiarism and how to avoid it: http://www.plagiarism.org/ or http://www.unc.edu/depts/wcweb/handouts/plagiarism.html or http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml

Disciplinary action for these offenses may include any combination of the following:

1. Point deduction on an assignment.
2. Failure for an assignment.
3. A grade of zero for an assignment.
4. Failure for the course.
5. Referral to the Academic Integrity Committee or department head for further action.
6. Referral to the Dean of the College of Education and Human Services as appropriate.
7. Referral to the University Discipline Committee.
8. Communication of student’s behavior to the Teacher Certification Office and/or Dean of the College of Education as constituting a reason to bar student from entering into or continuing in a teacher certification program. Procedures, A 13.04, 13.12, 13.31, and 13.32

Drop a Course http://www.tamu-commerce.edu/home/registrar/dropadd.asp

Students who wish to drop a course are responsible for initiating this action. Students may drop a class with a full refund (if remaining enrolled) until the census day of the particular term. Census date is the 12th University class day of Fall or Spring, 4th university class day of summer or 2nd university class day of a mini term. After census date, eligible students may use their MyLeo to process drops online. The student must obtain approval from the department/instructor to drop after census date.

Administrative Withdrawal http://www.tamu-commerce.edu/home/registrar/dropadd.asp

It is the prerogative of the faculty to drop students from courses in which they have accrued excessive absences as defined in the course syllabus. In such cases, faculty recommend through the department head to the appropriate college dean that a student be dropped from a class. The faculty member will document absences and will make a reasonable effort to communicate with the student prior to recommending the drop. If approved, the college dean will forward the recommendation to the Registrar’s Office.
