COURSE INFORMATION

TEXTBOOK REQUIRED:

Keys to Success - Quick. Carter, C., Bishop, J. and Kravits, S.L. (2012). ISBN: 978-0-13-254171-8.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course provides a study of Theory and Application of Learning and Critical Thinking, designed to ease the transition from high school to university life and provide important academic, intellectual, and social skills to help ensure a successful first year in college. The course is designed to assist students in increasing their knowledge of and skill in critical thinking and acting behaviors. Concepts studied include perception, memory, creativity, and problem solving as they relate to critical thinking. The effects of attitudes, values, logical fallacies, and thinking errors on critical thinking and problem solving are examined. Assignments require students to apply critical thinking skills to real-life situations.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

After successfully completing this course, students will be able to:

1. Recognize and appreciate A&M-Commerce uniqueness by positively engaging in supporting and encouraging other students.
2. Develop an understanding of the complex issues and choices confronting college students, such as course and career choices and identify problem behaviors that can interfere with student success.
3. Understand the levels of the critical thinking process through problem solving activities.
4. Exhibit higher levels of academic skills that will lead to their success at A&M-Commerce, such as time management, career exploration, and goal setting through various techniques.
5. Be familiar with the range of university events that are available to students.
6. Clarify how they learn and be able to apply active learning techniques.
7. Express what is expected of students so they can be successful at A&M-Commerce.
8. Understand the importance of excellent written and verbal communication by demonstrating academic honesty and integrity.
9. Access information from the web and library and understand the meaning of plagiarism and how to avoid it.
10. Engage in the dynamics of group activities to increase individual satisfaction and team performance.
11. Construct well written papers with minimum grammar and syntax errors.
12. Develop four-year degree plans that accurately reflect degree requirements.
13. Calculate GPA and the impact grades have on cumulative GPA.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

GENERAL POLICIES FOR CLASSES: All students enrolled at the University will follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. See Student's Guide Handbook, Rules and Procedures, Code of Student Conduct at <http://web.tamu-commerce.edu/studentLife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf>.

Civility Requirement: The instructor reserves the right to manage a positive learning environment and thus will not tolerate inappropriate conduct in the course. If the instructor feels that you have not attended class adequately, habitually arrive late and unprepared, that you have cut class during speeches; left class in the middle of a session, that you have not contributed appropriately in class, or that you have complained about assignments and grading policies, your final course grade may be reduced accordingly. Additionally, the instructor expects every student to maintain a professional level with respecting opinions of the instructor, students, and guest speakers. In this regard, hand-held devices such as cell phones, iPods, MP3 players, and CD players must be turned off during class. The instructor can and will confiscate any devices that are disruptive to the class. Understand that this factor of your grade is highly subjective. In extreme cases, the instructor reserves the right to drop students from the class.

Academic Integrity: In this course the need for collaboration is undeniable if you are to excel, even in cases of individual work. There is a fine line in this process. You are encouraged to seek the help and advice of others. However, you must do your own work. My personal policy, which will guide this course, is: I trust you to behave honestly and ethically in all circumstances. Please ask me if you have questions about what is proper and what is not.

Academic Honesty: Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Instructors "are expected to uphold and support student integrity and honesty by maintaining conditions that encourage and enforce academic honesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material." See 13.99.99.R0.10 Academic Honesty at http://www.tamu-commerce.edu/administration/Rules%26Procedures/rules_procedures.asp?RID=97.

PLAGIARISM: Some people seem to believe that anything found on the Internet is free to use as they please. The "cut and paste" option also makes it quite tempting. However, information on the web must be properly cited just as you would any "hard copy" periodicals.

The following web site provides valuable insight relating to what constitutes plagiarism and how it may be avoided: <http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml>. To avoid plagiarism an individual must give credit wherever he or she uses:

- 1) another individual's idea, opinion, or theory
- 2) facts, statistics, graphs, and drawings that are not common knowledge
- 3) quotations of another individual's spoken or written words
- 4) paraphrase another individual's spoken or written words

Any deviation from the guidelines concerning quotes and citations constitutes plagiarism, as it suggests that you are trying to submit someone else's work and creativity as your own. In accordance with the Texas A&M University-Commerce Code of Student Conduct Section 5.b [1, 2, 3], the penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion.

INSTRUCTIONAL/ACTIVITIES ASSESSMENTS

Course Evaluation: The final course grade will be based on the following components:

Grading	Percent
Critical Thinking Assignments (4)	20%
Attend at least 4 University/Campus Sponsored Events or Activities	10%
Mid-Term Exam	15%
Final Exam	15%
Activities, Assignments & Presentations	20%
Class Attendance and Participation	20%

Range	Grade
90-100.00	A
80-89.99	B
70-79.99	C
60-69.99	D
Less than 60	F

Course Requirements:

- Critical Thinking Assignment: Each student will write four 1-paged critical analyses that describe how attending events on campus contributes to the student's success as a college student, as well as other topics as deemed necessary by the instructor. These papers should be organized with Introduction, Main Points, and Summary. Pick a few significant elements from the event to focus on in your critical analysis.
- Attend at least 4 University/Campus Sponsored Events or Activities: Each student will attend at least 4 events on campus – which should be used for the Critical Thinking Writing Assignments. 1 event should be a “Cultural Event” (art show, concert, play, etc.); 1 should be a “University-Wide Event” (guest speaker, breakout entertainment, colloquium, convocation, etc.); 1 should be an athletic event (varsity sport or intramural sport); and 1 can be of the student's choosing of any university/campus sponsored event or activity.
- Mid-Term Exam and Final Exam: Each student will take two online exams through eCollege. Each exam will consist of multiple-choice and true/false questions from the text book and materials related to the course lectures and workshops.
- Class Attendance, Participation, and Miscellaneous Activities and Assignments:
 - ❖ Class Attendance and Participation is critical to your success in this course, just as it is critical for your job. The attendance policy is simple: Come to class every day. Come to class on time. Come to class prepared. The instructor reserves the right to implement punitive policies if attendance is not acceptable. You get one free absence in this class, so save it and use it judiciously. If you miss more than three classes, you cannot make an A. It is simply impossible. If you miss four classes, you cannot make a B. If you miss five class periods, you cannot make a C. If you miss seven or more days you will automatically receive an F for the course.
 - ❖ Miscellaneous Activities and Assignments are vital to developing a support community at A&M-Commerce. Students will be expected to complete degree audit and plan, calculate GPA, develop resume, maintain a planner, maintain journal/notes, and other assignments as instructor sees fit.

Critical Thinking Rubric #5.

Assignments

Event Paper #1, Your Choice. To be submitted and presented in class, week 5.

Briefly describe the event you attended. It has been said that attending college events increases a student's chances for success in their personal and professional life, as well as their academic career. Do you agree? Why or why not? Think critically!

Event Paper #2, University. To be submitted only, week 8.

Briefly describe the event you attended. Think about the other people at the event. As a business major, do you think that you experienced the event or saw things at the event that other people would probably miss or see differently? Why or why not? Think critically!

Event Paper #3, Cultural. To be submitted and presented in class, week 12.

Briefly describe the event you attended. Evaluate the event, including its strengths and weaknesses from a cultural perspective. What are some possible improvements to enrich this experience? Think critically!

Event Paper #4, Athletic. To be submitted only, week 15.

Briefly describe the event you attended. What planning do you think went into this event? (Some examples are: marketing, management, finance, information technology, logistics.) Compare and contrast this event and a business. Think critically!

Critical Thinking Rubric

	4 - Exemplary If applicable, consistently does all or almost all of the following	3 - Satisfactory If applicable, consistently does most or many of the following	2- Below Satisfactory If applicable, consistently does most or many of the following	1 - Unsatisfactory If applicable, consistently does all or almost all of the following
Purpose	--Demonstrates a clear understanding of the assignment's purpose	--Demonstrates an understanding of the assignment's purpose	--Is not completely clear about the purpose of the assignment	--Does not clearly understand the purpose of the assignment
Key Question, Problem, or Issue	--Clearly defines the issue or problem; accurately identifies the core issues --Appreciates depth and breadth of problem --Demonstrates fair-mindedness toward problem	--Defines the issue; identifies the core issues, but may not fully explore their depth and breadth --Demonstrates fair-mindedness	--Defines the issue, but poorly (superficially, narrowly); may overlook some core issues --Has trouble maintaining a fair-minded approach toward the problem	--Fails to clearly define the issue or problem; does not recognize the core issues --Fails to maintain a fair-minded approach toward the problem
Point of View	--Identifies and evaluates relevant significant points of view --Is empathetic, fair in examining all relevant points of view	--Identifies and evaluates relevant points of view --Is fair in examining those views	--May identify other points of view but struggles with maintaining fairmindedness; may focus on irrelevant or insignificant points of view	--Ignores or superficially evaluates alternate points of view --Cannot separate own vested interests and feelings when evaluating other points of view
Information	--Gathers sufficient, credible, relevant information: observations, statements, logic, data, facts, questions, graphs, themes, assertions, descriptions, etc. --Includes information that opposes as well as supports the argued position --Distinguishes between information and inferences drawn from that information	--Gathers sufficient, credible, and relevant information --Includes some information from opposing views --Distinguishes between information and inferences drawn from it	--Gathers some credible information, but not enough; some information may be irrelevant --Omits significant information, including some strong counter-arguments --Sometimes confuses information and the inferences drawn from it	--Relies on insufficient, irrelevant, or unreliable information --Fails to identify or hastily dismisses strong, relevant counter-arguments --Confuses information and inferences drawn from that information
Concepts	--Identifies and accurately explains/uses the relevant key concepts	--Identifies and accurately explains and uses the key concepts, but not with the depth and precision of a "4"	--Identifies some (not all) key concepts, but use of concepts is superficial and inaccurate at times	--Misunderstands key concepts or ignores relevant key concepts altogether
Assumptions	--Accurately identifies assumptions (things taken for granted) --Makes assumptions that are consistent, reasonable, valid	--Identifies assumptions --Makes valid assumptions	--Fails to identify assumptions, or fails to explain them, or the assumptions identified are irrelevant, not clearly stated, and/or invalid	--Fails to identify assumptions --Makes invalid assumptions
Interpretations, Inferences	--Follows where evidence and reason lead in order to obtain defensible, thoughtful, logical conclusions or solutions --Makes deep rather than superficial inferences --Makes inferences that are consistent with one another	--Follows where evidence and reason lead to obtain justifiable, logical conclusions --Makes valid inferences, but not with the same depth and as a "4"	--Does follow some evidence to conclusions, but inferences are more often than not unclear, illogical, inconsistent, and/or superficial	--Uses superficial, simplistic, or irrelevant reasons and unjustifiable claims --Makes illogical, inconsistent inferences --Exhibits closed-mindedness or hostility to reason; regardless of the evidence, maintains or defends views based on self-interest
Implications, Consequences	--Identifies the most significant implications and consequences of the reasoning (whether positive and/or negative) --Distinguishes probable from improbable implications	--Identifies significant implications and consequences and distinguishes probable from improbable implications, but not with the same insight and precision as a "4"	--Has trouble identifying significant implications and consequences; identifies improbable implications	--Ignores significant implications and consequences of reasoning

4 = Thinking is exemplary, skilled, marked by excellence in clarity, accuracy, precision, relevance, depth, breadth, logicity, and fairness

3 = Thinking is competent, effective, accurate and clear, but lacks the exemplary depth, precision, and insight of a 4

2 = Thinking is inconsistent, ineffective; shows a lack of consistent competence: is often unclear, imprecise, inaccurate, and superficial

1 = Thinking is unskilled and insufficient, marked by imprecision, lack of clarity, superficiality, illogicality, and inaccuracy, and unfairness
