COURSE INFORMATION

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings:

Note about the Course Texts:

Students are expected to acquire the course texts prior to the start of class. Failure to do so will hinder a student’s ability to keep up with the course, and the Instructor is in no way responsible for such an eventuality. Allowances will not be made for students who lack possession of any one or both of the textbooks.
Course Description:

This course introduces the field of history by developing the students’ skills at critical analysis of both reading and writing assignments and class participation. Students will explore the political, economic, social, and cultural history of the United States from the age of European exploration and conquest through the Civil War. Students will read a textbook, one primary source reader, and additional readings as needed. Through these readings, assignments, and lectures students will examine major themes in American history, such as colonization, the founding of a new nation, the forging of an American culture, the entrenchment of slavery, and the coming of the Civil War.

Student Learning Outcome:

Students will recognize ways in which slavery divided American society, and thus became a leading factor in causing the Civil War.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

The reading assignments and class sessions are listed for each week. I expect you to complete your readings prior to class on Monday and be prepared to discuss or address specific issues raised in the readings. You will submit all written assignments electronically through eCollege so be sure to familiarize yourself with the application before any assignments are due. To access this course, go to MyLeo, login, click eCollege on the right side of the screen, then click My Courses on the left side of the next screen and look for this course.

Assignment Explanations:

Weekly Reading Quizzes:

Each week students will complete a short reading quiz on eCollege over the assigned reading in The American Promise (exception: Week 1). Students should expect no more than 10 questions per chapter that may include multiple choice, fill in the blank, or maps. Each quiz will be open all week but students only have a one hour time limit to complete it. The quiz will be due @ 11:59pm the day before the material is covered in lecture. Multiple choice questions will be scored immediately in eCollege. Your quiz score will be finalized in the Gradebook within 7 days. Students are free to use the textbook, notes, and information in eCollege to complete the quiz but no outside sources are allowed. Quizzes cannot be made up. No late work accepted.

Discussion Posts:

A total of five prompts will be posted in eCollege under Discussion. These prompts are usually based on the primary source readings assigned for the week. Students must answer each prompt in two paragraphs using the primary sources and any relevant information from other class texts. Posts must contain evidence cited from the assigned readings. Students will submit their discussion post to the Discussion Thread by 11:59pm on Friday of the week indicated. While these posts are more informal than the exams or paper, spelling and grammar must be accurate. Discussion Posts cannot be made up. No late work accepted.

Students can earn from 1 to 5 additional points (up to the maximum 20 points for the assignment) by responding to a fellow classmate’s post. Your response must elaborate on a point or pose a related idea/question. Simply writing something like, “Good work, Joe! I completely agree” is insufficient.

Note: I reserve the right to substitute special assignments of a similar length with notice.

Film Analysis Paper:

Students will choose a film, either from the provided list available in eCollege or obtain instructor approval for an alternate title, and write a critical film review. If choosing an alternative film, it must pertain to American history from ancient indigenous settlement to 1877. All students must notify the instructor of their film choice by the end of Week 3 and receive an ‘Approved’ notice before submitting the paper. Students must also provide the instructor with a tentative list of proposed sources, in addition to the film, by mid-semester and will receive Instructor feedback. See the Schedule for the Film Selection Due Date and Tentative Sources Due Date.

This assignment requires active participation in the viewing experience so note taking is essential. Students will submit their paper into the appropriate eCollege Dropbox by the due date indicated on the Schedule.

This will be a 3 to 4 page paper, double spaced (full pages, 12 point font, Times New Roman, 1 inch margins). A minimum of three sources, in addition to the film, are required. All papers must include a Work Cited page in MLA or Chicago format (Chicago is the standard for History). Significant latitude is given for writing style but spelling and grammar must be accurate. For any questions on spelling and grammar, contact the instructor or visit the TAMU-Commerce Online Writing Lab. More than three typographical errors results in 1 full letter grade deduction from the final score. Film Papers cannot be made up. No late work accepted. Failure to submit the film paper will result in an automatic F for the course.

For this paper, you are a highly regarded film critic known internationally for your reviews of historical films. The editor of the New York Times has asked you to write an in-depth review of a film. She wants you to research the historical event or group, (1) write about what actually happened, and (2) then review the film for its historical accuracy. Thus, your paper will have two parts of similar length. In order to conform to the New York Times style of writing, a good film critic would also view a few reviews already published in the paper, available online at http://www.nytimes.com/pages/movies/index.html.

If you are unfamiliar with film reviews focusing on historical accuracy, visit these sites before constructing your paper. They are regarding James Cameron’s 1997 blockbuster, Titanic.

Wikipedia Page on Titanic – take note of the discussion on historical accuracy in Cast: Historical Characters, Writing and Inspiration, Scale Modeling, and Editing.

Five Titanic Myths Spread by Films – BBC article

This paper should not focus on cinematography, camera angles, acting ability, or the soundtrack. Instead, you are conducting a historical analysis of the film, attempting to ‘read between the lines’ and compare the historical event with the writer/director’s interpretation of the event. To achieve sufficient depth of material, you should also read the part of your textbook and reader that discusses the historical context of the film’s subject matter AND from the time of filming.
(for example, a film about the 1880s that was made in the 1950s would require reading about both decades). It will also be necessary to do further background reading from appropriate hard copy and online sources and provide citations for those used in the paper. When you are ready to write your paper, some of the questions below may help guide you in constructing your analysis. Note: Responses to these questions are not required; they are simply food for thought!

How does the film portray the past when compared to descriptions of life in the US from that time?
Does it romanticize or demonize the period?
Does it accurately portray the past?
What historical myths and misconceptions does the film convey?
Do the filmmakers seem to have an agenda?
What does the film say about the time in which it was made?
What forces (contemporary issues, beliefs, fears, mores) were at work during its production that might have affected its final form?
What underlying message(s) does the film contain?
For whom is the message(s) intended?
How differently is this subject viewed now when compared to the time of the film’s release?
What is lost and what is gained in portraying history through film?
How do filmmakers and historians negotiate the tension between accuracy and truth?
Some films can be accurate, even meticulous, about historical detail, events, and personalities, yet totally lack any larger insight about the past. Can creative imagination actually enhance a fundamental understanding of the past?
Does cinema embody the autobiographies of the scriptwriters and filmmakers more than those of the historical characters portrayed?
What do audiences actually experience when watching “history on film?”

Participation:

This course moves at a fast pace and focuses on a variety of complex events and ideas, sometimes spending only one day on a particular large topic. For this reason, your attendance is just as important as keeping up with the readings and writing assignments and will be recorded. University policy does allow excused absences in certain situations such as school sponsored events, jury duty, and military service. All of these excuses require proper documentation. Family emergencies, illnesses, births, deaths, incarceration or other events and calamities are NOT excused absences.

As this is a university level course, discussion is also an expected part of the class. You are encouraged to ask questions and answer those questions asked to the class. There will also be opportunities to voice your informed opinions and debate certain issues. I do not grade on your opinion but rather on your engagement, participation, and ability to support your arguments.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

The following information has been provided to assist you in preparing to use technology successfully in this course.

- Internet access/connection – high speed required (not dial-up)
- Word Processor (i.e. MS Word)

Additionally, the following hardware and software are necessary to use eCollege:
Our campus is optimized to work in a Microsoft Windows environment. This means our courses work best if you are using a Windows operating system (XP or newer) and a recent version of Microsoft Internet Explorer (6.0, 7.0, or 8.0). Your courses will also work with Macintosh OS X along with a recent version of Safari 2.0 or better. Along with Internet Explorer and Safari, eCollege also supports the Firefox browser (3.0) on both Windows and Mac operating systems.

It is strongly recommended that you perform a “Browser Test” prior to the start of your course. To launch a browser test, login in to eCollege, click on the ‘myCourses’ tab, and then select the “Browser Test” link under Support Services.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

This course will be facilitated using eCollege, the Learning Management System used by Texas A&M University-Commerce. To get started with the course, go to: https://leo.tamuc.edu/login.aspx.

You will need your CWID and password to log in to the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact Technology Services at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement:

Students should use the email function in eCollege to email the Instructor. Students must provide a valid return email address for replies. Unless otherwise announced, students can expect replies within 24 hours.

eCollege Student Technical Support:

Texas A&M University-Commerce provides students technical support in the use of eCollege. The student help desk may be reached by the following means 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
Chat Support: Click on ‘Live Support’ on the tool bar within your course to chat with an eCollege Representative.

Phone: 1-866-656-5511 (Toll Free) to speak with eCollege Technical Support Representative.

Email: helpdesk@online.tamuc.org to initiate a support request with eCollege Technical Support Representative.

Help: Click on the ‘Help’ button on the toolbar for information regarding working with eCollege (i.e. How to submit to dropbox, How to post to discussions etc…)

Late Assignments:

Ample time is given for the completion of all assignments and there are no ‘surprise’ due dates. Late work will not be accepted.

Extra Credit:

There is no extra credit in this course.

Class Conduct:

I will treat you with respect and I expect the same in return. Please exercise common classroom courtesy which includes: logging into the class promptly, not interrupting me or fellow students during discussion, turning off all electronic devices not intended for class, staying focused on the material rather than social networking, reading material for other classes, avoid sleeping and generally act in a way that indicates to me that you are engaged. Also, refrain from logging-off and putting away your things before class is over. I will not keep you past the end time.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is taking someone else’s work and passing it off as your own words, thoughts, or ideas. This includes, but is not limited to, using direct quotes out of a book or from the internet as your own words, properly using quotation marks but noting the wrong person as the author, purchasing a paper from friends or strangers, using material from the internet verbatim as your own words, and cutting and pasting entire papers or internet pages as your final paper. Cheating on exams and discussion posts or allowing others to copy your answers is another form of academic dishonesty.
It is fine to use other people’s words and ideas as long as they receive credit in citations. If you are unsure about the precise definition of plagiarism and/or think you may have committed this form of academic dishonesty, see me or visit the TAMU-Commerce Online Writing Lab before you turn in the assignment.
I have absolutely no tolerance for plagiarism! If a student commits academic dishonesty on any part of an assignment, the assignment will receive a zero with no possibility for make-up. If academic dishonesty is committed a second time, the student will immediately fail the course and the instructor will pursue the maximum university discipline possible. This is not negotiable.

Writing Lab:

The TAMU-Commerce Online Writing Lab is a valuable service free to any student. They can help you get started on a paper, help with drafts, and answer specific questions about citation style, grammar, and spelling. While they will not write the paper for you, they are there to give feedback and guidance.
