Course Description:

Welcome to United States and Texas Government! The purpose of this course is to study the political systems in the United States and Texas. This course will introduce you to the formal and informal institutions of national and state governments and the roles they play in the creation and implementation of public policy. Please note that you will not be taught what to think about political issues in this course. Rather, you will be provided with the knowledge base to determine how to think about political issues for yourself.

First, we will examine the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the United States and Texas State Governments, in addition to federal and state bureaucracies. Then, we will spend a significant amount of time analyzing the formulation and implementation of public policies at the national and state levels. We will also discuss institutions and policies in the context of the 2012 presidential election that will take place this semester.

Format:

Each class session will involve lectures and discussions about the assigned readings. You will regularly be asked to contribute your opinions about the assigned topics and answer questions about the readings. In addition to the assigned readings listed in the syllabus, we will occasionally read short news articles and opinion columns in class and discuss them on the spot, since developments in American politics occur on a daily basis. This syllabus is subject to change at any time at the professor’s discretion.

NO PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES ARE ALLOWED IN CLASS AT ANY TIME.
THIS INCLUDES (BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO):
CELL PHONES,
LAPTOPS,
iPADS,
iPODS,
MP3 Players/Recorders,
VIDEO CAMERAS
OR ANY OTHER AUDIO AND/OR VIDEO RECORDERS OF ANY KIND

IF ANY OF THESE DEVICES ARE PRESENT IN CLASS YOU WILL BE ASKED TO STORE THEM OR LEAVE THE CLASS IMMEDIATELY.
Requirements/Assignments:

Examinations: In this course, all students are required to take three exams, each of which will consist of 50 questions in a multiple choice format. Together, these exams will comprise 75% of your grade. There is not a final exam in this course.

If you miss an exam, you will receive 0% for that exam.

If you have a legitimate reason for missing an exam (e.g. severe illness or injury requiring professional medical care, emergencies in your immediate family, participation in official university activities, legal obligations) AND you have supporting documentation for your absence, then you may request taking the make-up exam, which will be a comprehensive examination given during finals week.

Requests for taking the make-up exam must be submitted in writing and include documentation explaining and substantiating why the absence was legitimate. An approval to take the make-up exam will be based solely upon the professor’s evaluation of your request and supporting documentation. Your grade on the make-up exam may only be used to substitute one missed exam. Any other missed exams will receive 0% scores, irrespective of the circumstances.

Attendance: 10% of your grade is based on your class attendance. Students are required to attend class and attendance will be taken at the end of each class session using a sign-in sheet. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that they have signed in. Arriving late and/or leaving early will negatively impact your attendance grade. Attendance is critical, discussions are irreplaceable, and course sessions cannot be “made up.” I will not be managing any excuses for absences. You can miss up to THREE class sessions without penalty for any reason. More than three absences will result in a reduction in your grade, REGARDLESS of the reason (excused OR unexcused).

The attendance grade scale appears below.

- 0 absences = you will get a bonus of 2% added to your grade
- 1-3 absences= no penalty
- 4 absences= -1% from your grade
- 5 absences= -2% from your grade
- 6 absences= -3% from your grade
- 7-8 absences= -5% from your grade
- 9-10 absences= -7% from your grade
- 11 or more absences= -10% from your grade

Participation: Your participation in this course is worth 5% of your grade. Positive participation includes responding to my questions, asking your own questions, and contributing to class discussions. Your participation grade will be reduced if you use personal electronic devices in class, misbehave in class, or disrupt class in any way.

Pop Quizzes and Short Writing Assignments: These will be assigned randomly throughout the semester and will count for a total of 8% of your grade. If you are absent when a short writing assignment or pop quiz is given, you cannot make it up, irrespective of the circumstances. Short writing assignments and pop quizzes will be graded on the basis of the content and clarity of your answers.
Global Class Project: All students in this class will be required to participate in a university sponsored global research project, or complete an alternative assignment on global studies. The easiest way to fulfill this requirement is to complete two online surveys (one at the beginning of the fall semester and a second survey at the end of the fall semester). Each survey should take less than 15 minutes to complete. I will email you the link to the survey at the beginning and at the end of the semester with dates/times of the deadlines to complete each survey.

If you would not like to participate in this research project you must complete an alternative assignment: Choose a film that focuses on an international political theme (or themes) and write a four-page research paper that focuses your evaluation of how the film depicts the political or historical reality of the case it is based upon. Legitimate Internet sources for citations are acceptable; academic journals and books are preferred. At least five sources must be cited in your paper. Papers must be submitted in electronic form (as an email attachment) AND as a hard (printed) copy on or before the last day of class.

Alternative assignment papers must be FOUR pages of text, not more, not less; typed 12-point Times New Roman font; double spaced; 1in. margins all around; and bibliographies are not included in that page count.) Late papers will NOT be accepted for ANY reason. (email me if you would like to do the alternative assignment).

If you do not complete both surveys you will be required to complete the alternative assignment. Thus, if you do not complete the first survey you will automatically be required to do the alternative assignment to fulfill this portion of the class. The global class requirement is worth 2% of your grade.

Grades:

Your grade in this course will be determined by the criteria listed below. Final course grades may be curved at the professor’s discretion. The following scale will be used to determine your grade:

Notes on Academic Dishonesty of ANY kind: Any student who is caught committing any kind of academic dishonesty will receive an “F” in this course and will be reported to the University administration. “Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material” (Texas A&M University-Commerce Procedures A13.12).
