Course Objectives: The purpose of this course is to develop projects to promote service learning and the Cambodia Project. The Cambodia Project at Texas A&M University-Commerce is a service learning program that raises global and cultural awareness of Cambodia through its diverse activities. Our purpose is to promote rural development through economic empowerment projects, to engage in University to University initiatives, and to support the Sister-city program that links Commerce, Texas and Pailin, Cambodia.

Readings: in consultation with faculty member.

Assignments: to develop activities that support our mission statement and projects

Students with Disabilities: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
