Class Attendance and Participation in Discussions

Students are expected to discuss experiences and observations, as well as ask questions. Being in attendance is only part of the learning process. By discussing issues and asking questions, you will reinforce learning through a multi-sensory approach. Your attendance and effective listening is also necessary for participation in the peer review of the team presentations and individual speeches. Some discussions will be online.

Essay over Instructor-Approved Activity

Each student will compose a personal reflective essay consisting of 600-800 words over an experience outside of class but related to course content. Examples of activities will be discussed in class. Some suggestions include:
- Participation in the Farm Bureau Collegiate Ag Discussion
- Visit to the state or federal capital, ag/food/environmental related agencies
- Viewing documentaries related to domestic or global food/agricultural issues
- Reading a book over an ethical issue in food or agriculture
- Hosting a National Ag Day Event on campus or in your home community

Team Presentation and Report

Students will be organized into teams of 4-5 by a random selection process. Teams will draw for a topic from a pre-approved set of issues relevant to the course. Each team member will conduct research on the topic and prepare a 2-3 page Position Research Brief. Each team member’s brief will be used to collectively compose a research paper that presents the pros and cons of the issue. This research will serve as the basis for a class presentation using multimedia (or other appropriate graphics or models). The presentation will be submitted for peer and instructor review during a regularly scheduled class period. The Texas FFA Agricultural Issues Forum Leadership Development Event* format should be used as a guide for the development of the paper and presentation.

Prepared Informative or Persuasive Speech

Each student will develop a 2-minute speech on an instructor-approved topic. The student may use the rules for Texas FFA Extemporaneous Public Speaking or Texas University Interscholastic League (UIL) Persuasive or Informative Speaking guidelines as a suggested format.

Issues in Retrospect Essay

Each student will compose an in-class essay that synthesizes the key elements of issues discussed, facts presented, and opinions shared during the course. The professor will provide 5-6 prompts from which the student will respond to 4. Essays will be hand-written in a Blue Book during the last regular class meeting.

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus during the semester, if needed. The instructor also reserves the right to extend credit for alternative assignments, projects, or presentations.
