Exams: 60% (4 @ 15% each)
Participation/Assignments: 20%
Term Paper: 20%
TOTAL 100%

Exams: 60% of overall grade. There are 4 exams. Each exam is worth 15%.
A missed exam equals a missed exam grade regardless of the reason unless you contact me immediately. If, for any reason, you miss a scheduled exam, you may take a make-up exam in my office within one week of the missed exam. I will warn you that the make-up exam is purposely more difficult than the scheduled exam because it means you have had more time to prepare. You will need to e-mail me (always remember to put MGT 394.01E in the subject line) to set up a day and time that works for both of us.

Term Paper: 20% of overall grade.
Due Tues., Apr. 23rd by noon (12:00pm)

This is a group assignment. One person should be designated as a group leader. Only that person should submit the paper to the dropbox.

Instructions for the term paper can be found by clicking on COURSE MATERIALS and TERM PAPER. Student papers will be submitted to the Term Papers Drop Box. Please do not e-mail these papers to me. If you can see it in your drop box, then I can also see it. Any papers that are received past noon will automatically drop one letter grade. For each day thereafter the grade drops another letter grade. (In other words, just get your paper in on time or feel free to submit it as early as you’d like. Procrastination is not recommended!)

NOTE All papers will be automatically submitted to Turnitin.com as they are loaded in the Dropbox. Papers with a similarity index above 25% will be reviewed for plagiarism. You may choose to upload your paper early in order to receive your score early and make any necessary changes before the due date.

Participation/Assignments: 20% of overall grade. Class attendance is very important! Do your best to always be in class and be on time! Treat this class like your job! Excessive absences (more than 3) will be filed with the Dean of Students Office. Please see undergraduate catalog for more information regarding the attendance policy.

Extra Credit: I DO NOT ASSIGN EXTRA CREDIT WORK. PLEASE DO NOT ASK.

Comment on Academic Honesty: There seems to be a belief among many that anything found on the Internet is free to use as one wishes. The "cut and paste" option also makes it quite tempting. However, information on the web must be properly cited just as you would any "hard copy" periodicals. Keep the following in mind:

1. It is generally not advisable to quote anything verbatim in a paper unless there is an overriding reason to do so, such as the use of a particular phrase or sentence that illustrates a point well and should not be changed. When you do so, you must provide place the statement in quotes in addition to a footnote at the end of the quote. Not placing the statement in quotes implies that the wording is your own.
2. Changing a few words in a sentence (for example, "large" to "big") may alleviate the need for quotes (depending on how much you change), but it is not the best way to go. If you are not going to provide a direct quote, then the material should be stated in your own terms. Changing a couple of words implies laziness.
3. Every idea you get from another source must be cited. Placing 100 citations in a paper does not imply that the work is not original, but that you did a proper job of giving credit where it was due.
4. The real danger in a "cut and paste" approach to report writing is that you end up including a lot of information that is related to the topic about which you are writing, but does not really address what you are trying to say. Putting things in your own words allows you to focus your comments more effectively.
Any deviation from the guidelines concerning quotes and citations constitutes plagiarism, as it suggests that you are trying to submit someone else's work and creativity as your own. If you have any questions, please let me know.
