Course Description

CATALOG DESCRIPTION OF COURSE

516. Pre-Practicum. Three semester hours. Provides the foundation for all practicum and internship experiences. Students learn communication and interpersonal skills under faculty supervision. Demonstration of these skills is a prerequisite for enrollment in practicum (COUN 551). Students will examine their intrapersonal issues and interpersonal styles and will follow ACA Ethical Standards.

GENERAL COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of Pre-Practicum is to provide continued acquisition of counseling skills. Supervised application of a number of interviewing skills is the primary focus. Students can expect to examine their intra-personal issues and concerns. They should be able to demonstrate the ability to express and understand their own personal dynamics and development, including strengths, sensitivities, defenses, and limitations. A grade of “B” or higher must be earned in COUN 501, 510, 528, and 516 for admission to candidacy status (or its equivalent for those seeking school counselor certification only), which is required before practicum (COUN 551).

COURSE OBJECTIVES include, but are not limited to the following:

Students will demonstrate understanding and appropriate application of:

1. Essential interviewing and counseling skills so that the student is able to develop a therapeutic relationship;

2. Essential interviewing and counseling skills so that the student is able to establish appropriate counseling goals, design intervention strategies, evaluate client outcome, and successfully terminate the counselor-client relationship;

3. Self-awareness to promote therapeutic relationships and appropriate professional boundaries;

4. Ethical standards of ACA and related entities, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling;

5. Process/communication skills; conceptualization skills; personalization skills; and professional skills.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Activities / Assessments

This course is made up of a series of assignments and assessments to assist you in achieving the course and module learning objectives. Each week you will work on various combinations of assignments, activities, discussions, readings, research, etc.

1. Attendance and Participation. Attendance and active participation are a necessary and vital part of the course. Active participation includes attending each class session, completing reading assignments prior to class sessions, and participating in peer observation and peer counseling, and contributing substantive feedback. Absence from class and/or nonparticipation will result in grade reduction. More than two absences (or more than 5 class hours missed) will result in your final grade being reduced one grade level. More than three absences will require you to repeat this course for credit. Being late to class or leaving class early will result in grade reduction. Participation includes the ability of the student to interact with the professor and peers in a professional and respectful manner.

2. Counseling Theory and Professional Growth Paper

Paper will need to be written in APA format with a title page. Paper should be 8-10 pages. This should not be a hard task as you will be examining and speaking about your own personal beliefs.

This paper should be based on your selected theory of counseling. Your purpose is to clarify your own views in terms of the theory and to defend your theory to the reader. The paper should include a minimum of 5 outside references. You may use your textbook as a reference for your paper. Use existing theory for the basis of this discussion. Discuss how and why you chose your theory of choice, what about the theory matched your values? Discuss how your theory has helped your counseling skills develop. Give examples of how you incorporated your theory into your sessions thus far. Discuss how your theoretical techniques could be improved in your sessions. How does your theoretical choice help give your sessions direction? How do you plan to utilize your theory in future sessions? How does your theory reflect your personal and professional values? What is your short-term plan for developing your counseling skills in terms of your theoretical perspective?

3. Final Self-Evaluation Paper: The final paper will encompass your experiences in sessions with your peers and overall in this class. You should discuss the following areas in approximately 4-6 double-spaced and typed pages with each area delineated by a heading in your paper. Papers should be in APA format including complete cover page, page headers and numbering, headings, and double-spacing.

- Discuss in a specific and concrete manner your current strengths.
- Discuss in a specific and concrete manner the progress you have made in the development of counseling skills.
- Discuss in a specific and concrete manner your current areas in need of improvement.
- Describe and discuss areas of personal/professional growth and awareness.
- What insights have you gained regarding your counseling skills, personal characteristics, or interpersonal relationships and how might these enhance your skills as a counselor?
- What are some of your personal values that might affect your ability to work with specific populations?
- Develop a plan that addresses your professional development needs.

4. Videotapes: Videotapes of practice sessions will be made outside of class. These videotapes will be reviewed in class for feedback. STUDENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR BRINGING A VIDEOTAPED PRACTICE SESSION TO EACH CLASS TO BE REVIEWED FOR FEEDBACK.

- Students will turn in a minimum of 4 videotapes for evaluation. Students will complete a Counseling Skill Scale for each tape turned in for evaluation.

GRADING AND EVALUATION

Students who achieve a grade of "A" complete the following (All areas must be completed for this grade):

- Demonstration of exceptionally high level of effectiveness in the use of the communications, relationship, personalization, and professional skills taught in this course.
• Demonstration of comfort with and openness to feedback and view the process of training as both a personal and professional growth opportunity

• Consistently bring tapes to class that demonstrate current skills and that students view as demonstrating their highest level of current ability, which may require completing more than one videotape each week

• Complete reading assignments and actively participate in class discussions

• Complete the self-evaluation papers with a high degree of introspection and clearly demonstrate a high level of effort in completing the papers

• Attend class regularly and on-time

Students who achieve a grade of "B" complete the following (All areas must be completed for this grade):

• Demonstration of an expected level of effectiveness in the use of the communications, relationship, personalization, and professional skills taught in this course

• Demonstrate ability to employ the skills satisfactorily, and have a uniformly beneficial effect on interviewees

• Demonstrate openness to feedback and avoid a defensive attitude with peers and instructor

• Consistently bring tapes to class that demonstrate an expected, acceptable level of skills

• Completed reading assignments and participate in class discussions

• Complete the self-evaluation papers with an adequate degree of introspection and demonstrate an adequate level of effort in completing the papers

Students who achieve a grade of "C" complete the following:

• Demonstrate a minimal level of effectiveness

• Demonstrate severe limitations in certain areas

• Demonstrate failure to grasp and to consistently demonstrate basic communication and interpersonal skills

• Fail to provide tapes demonstrating adequate skill level

• Fail to complete reading assignments and participate in class discussions

• Fail to demonstrate an adequate level of introspection and effort in completing self-evaluation papers

• Students with this grade are functioning below the level required for field placement and will not be accepted for Practicum. When students demonstrate personal limitations that might impede future performance, or consciously violate ethical standards, and are ineffective and harmful to clients, then these students will not receive the instructor’s endorsement to continue with the program.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Policies

ATTENDANCE AND LATE POLICY Students are expected to attend all classes and arrive on time. Attendance in this class is critical and cannot be emphasized enough. Even missing one class may hinder your skill development. If you know that you are going to miss a class, email or call me 24 hours prior to class. More than 1 absence from class will result in a deduction of 30 points from your final grade. More than 2 absences from class will result in a failing grade. As stated previously, missing more than one supervision session will result in a failing grade in the class. Make every attempt to be on time. Arriving late will affect your grade.

ASSIGNMENT POLICY I expect you to turn in all assignments at the beginning of class on the due date designated in the syllabus. Late assignments are not accepted and will receive a grade of zero.

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICES

If you have a cell phone or any other type of electronic communication device with you (including iPads and laptops), please disarm it before entering the classroom and keep it off for the duration of class. In addition, neither texting nor phone calls are allowed in class. You will lose all daily participation points if you use any electronic device during class.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
