Graphic Design Thinking Beyond Brainstorming, by Ellen Lupton, ISBN 9781568989792, $16.47 on Amazon

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course will introduce and focus on creative methodologies and process utilizing both team and individual problem solving. Course content will address research, targeting and positioning, creative process tools, point-of-difference problem solving as well as formal and aesthetic design issues. Thumbnail ideation, rationale writing, creative sessions, critiques, and computer generated comprehensives will be explored through weekly assignments and in class work.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
1. Understand the value and power of exhaustive research as the first step in the creative process.
2. Develop a basic understanding of marketing and positioning
3. Gain an understanding of various creative methodologies through experimentation.
4. Understand the basic function, process and roles associated with working in creative teams.
5. Introduction to logos and basic company identity and strategy through various collateral pieces
7. Explore basic graphic standards

COURSE STRUCTURE
The class will be a combination of lecture, in class work and critiques with both outside and in class exercises and assignments. The weekly schedule will be rigorous and meant to mimic a “real-world” professional practice environment. A commitment to many hours of homework will be necessary to achieve the goals for this class and its completion. Breaking down and understanding creative methodologies is the underpinning of what we do and sets us apart in the professional realm – and the herd.

ABSENCE POLICY
• You may be absent from class twice.
• On your first absence you will receive an e-mail warning from your instructor and it will be copied to Lee Whitmarsh and filed.
• On your second absence you will receive an e-mail from your instructor and a phone call or email from Lee Whitmarsh, both filed.
• On your third absence you will receive an F in the class. If you wish to drop the class you will receive a drop/fail.
• Two tardies of 20 minutes or more equals an absence.
• A tardy of 60 minutes equals one absence.
• IF A STUDENT IS OVER 10 MINUTES LATE FOR THE FINAL, A FULL GRADE WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM HIS OR HER FINAL GRADE. IF A STUDENT DOES NOT SHOW UP FOR THE FINAL THEY AUTOMATICALLY FAIL THE CLASS.

STATEMENT ON STUDENT BEHAVIOR:

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenet of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct)

All students must show respect toward the instructor and the instructor’s syllabus, presentations, assignments, and point of view. Students should respect each others’ differences. If the instructor determines that a student is not being respectful towards other students or the instructor, it is the instructor’s prerogative to ask the student to leave, to refer the student to the department head, and to consider referring the student to the Dean of Students who may consider requiring the student to drop the course. Please refer to pages 42 – 46 of the Texas A&M University-commerce Student guidebook’s Codes of Conduct for details.

STUDENT CONDUCT/CITIZENSHIP

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook). Students are expected, at all times, to recognize constituted authority, to conform to the ordinary rules of good conduct, to be truthful, to respect the rights of others, to protect private and public property, and to make the best use of their time and effort toward the educational process.
