VOICE JURIES: MAY 6 AND 7

Conf. hrs: 9-10 M-F Voice Performance class: M 4 Rec. hall

Scope and Purpose: the intent of private lessons in voice is to enhance your ability to use your instrument in the healthiest manner possible, to encourage vocal growth and development in the bel canto style, to aid in the progression of musical style and comprehension of text and its applicability to the delivery of artistry through the marriage of beautiful sound, artistic musicianship, and poetry; to enable singers to sing and employ the healthiest processes for life and to share, through performance and teaching, those attributes. Student learning outcomes: (1) Expressively, meaningfully, and accurately perform classic songs from the vocal repertoire including Italian art songs, German Lieder, French mélodie, English and American art songs, opera and oratorio arias; (2) Expressively and accurately prepare and perform without the assistance of an applied instructor classic selections from the vocal repertoire; (3) Demonstrate the capability of accurately pronouncing song texts in English, French, German, Italian using the International Phonetic Alphabet; (4) Demonstrate the capability of accurately singing at sight a classic selection from the vocal repertoire.

Requirements: For each one hour of voice that you take (a 30 minute lesson), you are required to practice with diligence and care one hour per day. The time is doubled for an additional hour of voice (these are minimums).
All singers registered for 151 have the option of singing one time in Vocal Performance Class, or performing a Jury at the end of the term. All others are expected to perform at least once on the Vocal Performance Class (MONDAYS at 4:00), (except for first semester Freshmen), and give a voice jury at the end of the term. All singers are expected to attend and to participate in the Vocal Performance Class.

VOICE JURY
At the end of each term (semester), each singer who is Mus 151, 152, 351, or 352 is required to take a jury. Those who are restricted applied (Mus 149) have the option of singing a jury and at the discretion of their instructor.

The first semester of instruction (Freshman level), the number of art songs to be prepared and memorized varies from 2 to 6 and is dependent on the instructor’s decision and the student’s vocal development. Every other semester, the singer will prepare vocally beautifully, musically, artistically, and memorized; a minimum of six (6) art songs/arias (three (3) songs for each credit hour of voice). At the jury in the concert hall, you will choose one song to perform, the jurors will select others (usually one other, but not limited to one).
Following the fourth semester of voice (after completing 8 hours of Mus 152), you are required to take a vocal barrier* in order to move to Mus 352 (upper division voice).
Each semester hour will focus on the best vocalism for each individual, employing appropriate vocalizes for each. At the undergraduate level, each singer is required to practice, learn, memorize and prepare for performance six art songs chosen by the instructor from representative literature that will suit each individual instrument: Italian songs and arias, French melodie, German Lieder, English art songs, Spanish and/or Slavic songs. Each singer is to perform a jury at the end of each semester.

RECITAL PERFORMANCES
If you are seeking a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Music Degree, with or without certification, a Junior Level Joint Recital (30 minutes of music memorized) is required. After a full semester following the half recital, a full recital (at least 45 minutes of music) is required (at the discretion of the teacher). Literature will be taken from each of the musical vocal eras, and will focus on World music styles of the Renaissance, Baroque, Classic, Romantic, Impressionistic, 20th and 21st centuries. At least four languages are required (Italian, English, German, French).

HEALTH FOR SINGING

Since your body is your instrument, it is essential that you treat it as the finest instrument ever made. Hence, it is important that you

1. keep well hydrated (drink lots of water; eat APPLES)
2. avoid desiccating drinks such as sodas, or coffee, or any sugared or artificially sugared drinks (id est see #1).
3. get 7 to 8 hours of sleep each night
4. exercise: walk 30 to 40 minutes each day or evening; do crunches, begin with 5, add some each day
5. avoid antihistamines – the propensity is to dry the vocal folds
6. eat regularly (yes, breakfast!) and healthfully (id est balanced with protein, carbohydrates, fruits, vegetables)
7. wash your hands frequently
8. keep a daily log of your activities, plan into each day those things that will make you more confident, successful, happy: meals, exercise, meditation, PRACTICE of voice.

Oh yes GRADING PROCEDURE
I, of course, assume that you are here, seeking a degree, because you want to sing, you want to learn. Attending university is a gift, and therefore, you would always practice more than is sufficient for your own personal, vocal, musical, and spiritual growth; however, just in case you need external assistance: please do not make the faulty assumption that I do not know when you have avoided practicing

Grades are based on the following criteria, and you will receive a grade for each lesson:
- Preparation prior to the lesson (vocal, technical, musical)
- Growth, improvement
- Attendance
- Performance, voice class attendance and participation
- Attitude
- Jury grade
- Combined lesson grade
