Course Description: This course focuses on the study of current theories and practices of classroom management and discipline in school settings.

Student Learning Outcomes: By the completion of the course, you will be able to:

1. Analyze strengths and challenges in your own classroom management system to include your most and least effective practices, procedures, routines, rewards, consequences, etc.
2. Know and become familiar with current research on best practices in classroom management.
3. Demonstrate improved insight into the critical role of classroom management, rules and procedures, disciplinary interventions, teacher-student relationships, mental set, students' responsibilities for management, and good management at the school level.
4. Demonstrate, via the Classroom Teaching Application Log, the ability to experiment with and analyze the effectiveness of innovative classroom discipline and management strategies based on new learning in the cohort class, outside reading, and/or staff development.
5. Contribute ideas toward the development of a Scrapbook of Classroom Management Ideas that Work to be distributed to all students in the cohort.
6. Discuss in detail the impact of your learning this semester on your thinking, beliefs, and classroom practices.
7. Write goals for new classroom innovations that meet the criteria established in Ken Blanchard's SMART goals evaluation system.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

This course consists of a series of activities and assessments to assist you in achieving the outcomes/objectives for the course and instructional units/modules. You will work on various combinations of assignments; worksheets, activities, asynchronous threaded discussions, readings, etc. The focus of Unit 1 will be to read the first half of the required textbook and share your learning with your colleagues, identify the most pressing management and discipline issues in your class this year, identify one of those major challenges, and develop a plan for experimenting with the resolution of that issue. In Unit 2 you will read the second half of your textbook, share your learning with your colleagues, research and report on one significant management strategy that has been successful for one of your colleagues, identify two additional management challenges in your own classroom, and develop a plan for ameliorating those challenges. For the final unit, you will write a reflection paper on what you have learned in this course and the changes you have made in your management plan and share that learning with your colleagues. Below are more specific details about each of these components.

1. Class Attendance.

Our class will meet face-to-face three times during the semester. See the Course calendar for those dates. Attendance at all class meetings is required and essential to your success in this experience. Students are expected to be on time and actively participate. Although you are urged to notify faculty in advance, in the event you are not able to attend class, such notification does not constitute an excused absence. The consequence of one absence is a reduction of one letter grade in the course; two absences will result in a reduction of two letter grades; missing all three classes will result in an "F" in the course. In the event of any absence, you are responsible for obtaining class materials/assignments/notes from your colleagues and/or via eCollege.

2. Complete a self-assessment of your strengths and challenges with regard to your classroom management program.

Student Learning Outcome #1: Analyze strengths and challenges in your own classroom management system to include your most and least effective practices, procedures, routines, rewards, consequences, etc.

During the first night of class you will spend some self-reflection time thinking about your strengths and challenges to your management and discipline system. You will convey your reflections onto a document titled: Plus Delta Self-Assessment and share your reflections with others in the class and get an opportunity to modify your lists as you become enlightened by the comments of your colleagues.

Assessment Method: Your Plus Delta Self Assessment will be word processed and submitted to eCollege for evaluation, comments, and grading.

3. Participate in online mini-lectures on the topic: research on effective classroom management.

Student Learning Outcome #2: Know and become familiar with current research on best practices in classroom management.

To accomplish this outcome you will read the Marzano textbook and participant in four online mini-lectures based in part on Marzano's extensive research on best practices in classroom management and discipline. Each mini-lecture will be scheduled in eCollege with print materials, slide shows and other supporting documents.

Assessment Method: Following each mini-lecture you will take a short quiz over the materials. Quizzes are untimed and open book. Each quiz is worth 5 Points.

4. Participate in a small-group book discussion and participate in four threaded discussions throughout the semester.

Student Learning Outcome #3: Demonstrate improved insight into the critical role of classroom management, rules and procedures, disciplinary interventions, teacher-student relationships, mental set, students' responsibilities for management, and good management at the school level.

During the first class meeting you will be divided into small groups of about 4-6 students each based on the professional book you are assigned to read. You will divide your book into four equal sections and four dates by which each section will be completed; two deadlines during Unit 1 and two during Unit 2. We will use the Threaded Discussion feature for your group to share what you are learning and make decisions about what is most important for you to share with the class during our second and third class sessions. The four threaded discussions will coincide with the four deadlines for reading the book.

Assessment Method: Threaded discussions will be evaluated against a rubric designed to assess both the quantity and quality of your contributions. Your responses will be evaluated based on the following: (1) Quantity of your initial response; (2) Quality of your initial response; (3) Quantity of your responses to your team members; (4) Quality of your responses to your team members; and (5) Overall quantity and quality.

5. Submit two Classroom Teaching Application Logs.

Student Learning Outcome #4: Demonstrate, via the Classroom Teaching Application Log, the ability to experiment with and analyze the effectiveness of innovative classroom discipline and management strategies based on new learning in the cohort class, outside reading, and/or staff development.

To accomplish this outcome you will complete and submit via eCollege two classroom teaching application logs this semester. The Classroom Teaching Application Log is the form on which you will document the techniques and strategies you are trying in your classroom. Specific expectations for this assignment will be provided. The focus of your application logs will be on management issues you identified in your Delta exercise on the first night of class. The strategies you develop to ameliorate those issues will be ones you have never attempted before in order to experiment on strategies that have promise of being successful or more successful than those you typically use now.

Assessment Method: Your three application logs will be submitted via eCollege and evaluated using the rubrics provided, i.e., examples of application logs previously done by former students in this class.

6. Contribute one example of a Super-Duper Classroom Management Strategies from a Source other than yourself.

Student Learning Outcome #5: Contribute ideas toward the development of a Scrapbook of Classroom Management Ideas that Work to be distributed to all students in cohort.

During the course of the semester you will identify one “highly super successful” classroom management strategy that works and write the strategy in a one or two page report using the template provided. This idea must come from a teacher on your campus, different campus, or some other professional in your organization. The focus areas you might consider include rules and procedures, disciplinary action that works, teacher-student relationships, a campus-level strategy, a motivational strategy, successful parent-teacher or parent-child strategy, or even “what to do when you are through” strategy. The vehicle for sharing your strategy is a template on which you will record the following: (1) Name of strategy, (2) Source of your idea; (3) Primary purpose and appropriate uses; (4) materials needed; (5) Step-by-step procedures to follow; and (6) Additional uses or comments.

Assessment Method: Your idea will be submitted to the eCollege dropbox. On a scheduled date you will share your idea, and provide for Q&A. You will be graded on the regular 5 to 0 scale based on the combination of quality of your document and your short presentation.

7. Reflections on Your Learning: A Group Presentation.

Student Learning Outcome #6: Discuss in detail the impact of your learning this semester on your thinking, beliefs, and classroom practices.

To fulfill this requirement you will work with a small group of colleagues and prepare a 10 minute presentation to the rest of the class on the final meeting date. Your presentation can be in any form suitable for the occasion but the message to the audience should be focused on three distinct areas: (1) meaningful learning, (2) changes in thinking and beliefs, and (3) effects of learning on classroom practices. You can form your own groups as long there are at least three and no more than five.

Assessment Method: Your presentation will be evaluated based on a rubric to be designed following the guidelines, the content of the presentation, quality of the presentation, evidence of idea. On a scheduled date you will share your ideas, and provide for Q&A. You will be graded on the regular 5 to 0 scale based on the combination of quality of your notes document and your short presentation.

GRADING

All assignments are graded on a scale of from 5 (highest grade) to 0 (lowest grade) based on the following criteria:

5 - Exceptional – Exceeds Minimum Expectations in All Areas Addressed. Well above average in thought, language structure, and word choice; extremely well organized; shows thorough understanding and assimilation of concepts; excellent sense of unity; polished transition between concepts or thoughts; frequent sentence variation which adds to flow and unity of paper; virtually free of errors.

4 - Above Average – Meets Minimum Expectations in the Majority of Areas Addressed and Exceed Expectations in Some Areas. In general command of thought, sentence structure, and word choice; organized; shows some understanding of concepts; good sense of unity; good transition between concepts or thoughts; some sentence variation which adds to flow and unity of paper; writing that demonstrates a level expected of graduate students; few if any errors.

3 - Average - Adequate In some Areas and Inadequate in Others. Problems in some of the following areas: depth of thought; ability to elaborate and provide sufficient detail; sentence structure, word choice, grammar, and spelling; organized and formatted appropriately; good unity, sequence, and transitions; writing that demonstrates a level expected of graduate students; in need of instruction.

2 – Below Average -- Inadequate in Several Areas. Problems in several of the following areas: depth of thought; ability to elaborate and provide sufficient detail; sentence structure, word choice, grammar, and spelling; organization and formatting; unity, sequencing, and transitions; writing below a level expected of graduate students; in need of instruction.

1 – Unacceptable -- Inadequate in Many Areas. Problems in many of the following areas: depth of thought; ability to elaborate and provide sufficient detail; sentence structure, word choice, grammar, and spelling; organization and formatting; unity, sequencing, and transitions; writing below a level expected of graduate students; in need of instruction.

0 - Not Submitted or Not Accepted By Instructor.

FINAL GRADE IN THE COURSE

Your Final grade in this course is based on your performance on all of the requirements and expectations for the class. Some assignments carry more weight than others. Once the final grade is calculated, it is then adjusted by (1) absence and (2) number of “Fail” grades on the course reflection notes. Assignments, along with weights and final point values, include the following:

Activity	# of	Points Each	Total
	Assignments		Pts.
Plus-Delta Self-Assessment	1	5	5
4 Quizzes on Course Lessons (Lectures)	4	5	20
4 Small Group Threaded Discussions	4	5	20
2 Classroom Application Logs	2	15	30
“Super-Duper” Management Strategy	1	10	10
Group Presentation of Course Reflections	1	15	15
Course Reflection Notes	1	Pass/Fail	N/A
Course Evaluations	N/A	N/A	N/A
Total Points			100 Pts

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Internet Connection. Internet access/connection – high speed recommended.

Word Processor. MS Word is the recommended word processor for eCollege

Operating Systems. Our campus is optimized to work in a Microsoft Windows environment. This means our courses work best if you are using a Windows operating system (XP or newer) and a recent version of Microsoft Internet Explorer (6.0, 7.0, or 8.0).

Browser Testing. It is strongly recommended that you perform a “Browser Test” prior to the start of your course. To launch a browser test, login in to eCollege, click on the ‘my Courses’ tab, and then select the “Browser Test” link under Support Services.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

This course will be facilitated using eCollege, the Learning Management System used by Texas A&M University-Commerce. To get started with the course, go to: <https://leo.tamu-commerce.edu/login.aspx>.

You will need your CWID and password to log in to the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact Technology Services at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamu-commerce.edu.]

How is the eCollege Course Organized? This course is organized around three live class meetings and three eCollege units of study. If you look on the left side of screen when you go to the course, you will see a link for Unit 1, Unit 2, and Unit 3. If you click on Unit 1, several other links will appear. Each link under Unit 1 is an assignment that is due sometime during that unit. You can click on any of the links and you will be able to read all of the details for each assignment.

What is the Schedule of Assignments.

You would think that each assignment link would include the due date. No, in fact, it doesn’t. Rather, at the beginning of each assignment it will tell you to go to the “Schedule of Assignments” to see due dates. The Schedule of Assignments is a link by that name located above the Week 1 link in a separate section titled “Course Home.” If you click on Schedule of Assignments, you will see every assignment and its due date.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Questions about the course, assignments, syllabus, etc.

Contact me via email any time 24/7. I check my email frequently. Just click on the “email” tab in eCollege, click on my name to move it into the address box, type your message and submit. If that fails, send it to me at gilbert.naizer@tamuc.edu. Always include your first name, last name, course number and Campus ID at the end of all emails. Otherwise, I may not know which of my classes you are in.eCollege Student Technical Support

Texas A&M University-Commerce provides students technical support in the use of eCollege. The student help desk may be reached by the following means 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Office Hours

I am available most days to meet with students either at my office in Commerce. Email or call me to make an appointment.

Submitting Assignments:

All assignments are submitted through the eCollege Dropbox. Pay close attention to due dates. All assignments have due dates and penalties are assessed for late work. Consult the "Schedule of Assignments" for the date and time each is due.

Announcements:

Announcements are posted often during the semester. They are posted on the home page when you go to the course. In some cases I will also send the same announcement to you via the eCollege email system inside of the course.

Chat Support: Click on 'Live Support' on the tool bar within your course to chat with an eCollege Representative.

Phone: 1-866-656-5511 (Toll Free) to speak with eCollege Technical Support Representative.

Email: helpdesk@online.tamuc.org to initiate a support request with eCollege Technical Support Representative.

Help: Click on the 'Help' button on the toolbar for information regarding working with eCollege (i.e. How to submit to dropbox, How to post to discussions etc...)

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course/Department Specific Procedures/Policies:

Late Work: Specific dates and times are established for every assignment. Grades for work not submitted when due are automatically reduced beginning immediately upon exceeding the deadline. As I consider all assignments valuable and know that they contribute to your learning, I do accept late work; however late assignments will result in loss of points. The final authority on time is the time recorded on your assignment by the eCollege clock.

Academic Integrity/Honest Statement

This course demands a high level of scholarly behavior and academic honesty on the part of students. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: (1) turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or instructor without obtaining permission from this instructor in advance; (2) turning in another person's work, in part or in whole, as your own; (3) copying from professional works without citing them; and (4) any form of cheating on exams. Violations of academic integrity/honesty while carrying out academic assignments may, at the discretion of the instructor, receive a zero on the particular work in question, receive an "F" in the course, or brought before a higher level of governance for possible dismissal from the university.

University Specific Procedures:

ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
