COURSE INFORMATION

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings:

Required Texts:

Course Description:

This course serves as one of the introductory classes in the doctoral dissertation writing process. The students will read and understand the Doctoral Dissertation Graduate School requirements and the EDAD Doctoral Program in the Doctoral Handbook. The course will also provide students the knowledge and skills needed to write their literature review and compile a list of appropriate references.
Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, the student will:

- Apply skills learned in this course to revise their completed Chapter I: Introduction
- Analyze a completed literature review similar to their research topic.
- Compose and submit a draft of the literature review.
- Write references using the correct APA 6th edition style.
- Determine peer reviewed articles.
- Request articles and books from Inter-library loan.
- Retrieve peer reviewed articles from various databases.
- Create an Endnote web account and import citations into endnote

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

This is an online class. All instructional activities and assignments will be delivered and received online using the eCollege learning media platform.

Being a Successful Student

- What Makes a Successful Online Student
- Self-Evaluation for Potential Online Students
- Readiness for Education at a Distance Indicator (SmartMeasures)

to Login Information: Login = tamuc; password = online

Given the constructivist design of the class and the online delivery format, it is imperative that this course is interactive. It is my expectation (and I'm sure yours too) that all students participate fully in all activities and assignments in order to maximize their learning experience.

In order for this class to be interesting and beneficial, each student is expected to be prepared to lead and/or enter into discussions, to ask relevant questions, and to share the results of their study and reflection.

This means that each student should be:

(1) conscious of the class schedule and the requirements for each class (knowing what to be prepared for),
(2) self-disciplined (spending time to be fully prepared), and

(3) eager to share with your classmates (participating actively by sharing what you have prepared). Participation is an extremely important part of your experience in this class. When you miss participating in a class assignment, not only do you miss information presented, but you miss the interaction of your classmates, which can lead to the loss of key learning experiences.

Assignments:

Regardless of circumstance, all assignments are due on the date specified, unless prior approval is granted by the professor.

Module 1 Assignment 1 - Review and revise your Chapter I – Introduction to the Study, which was completed in EDAD 663.

Include the following sections in the Introductory Chapter:

- Research Topic
- Introduction to the Chapter
- Background of the Study
- Statement of the Problem
- Purpose of the Study
- Significance of the Study
- Definition of Terms
- Research Questions and Hypotheses. Include research questions and hypotheses for quantitative or mixed method research designs. Do not include hypotheses for qualitative research design.
- Limitations
- Delimitations
- Assumptions
- An Overview of the Methodology
- Organization of the Chapter

Videos, lecture notes, and articles in the modules and Doc Share will help guide students through the development of these assignments. You are expected to read all lecture notes and articles and view all videos in each module before completing assignments and discussion threads.

Module 1

- Assignment 1: Revised Introduction Chapter with references

- Discussion Thread 1: Each student will respond to two or more cohort members’ Chapter 1 Introduction in the discussion thread. Responses should provide critical feedback regarding the quality of each section in Chapter I.
Module 2

- Assignment 2- Literature Review Analysis
  This assignment is designed for the student to develop a deeper understanding of the literature review by examining and critically analyzing an existing literature review. Each student will access a dissertation from the Gee Library archives or other Dissertation Databases that matches or closely resembles their dissertation research topic.

  Write a reflection paper, which includes your analysis of the literature review. The analysis should include a discussion of each category of Boote’s and Beile's (2005) Revised Rubric for Scoring Literature (i.e., the presence or absences of each of these categories should be discussed.) Do not summarize the literature review. The reflection paper should consist of two double spaced pages with appropriate use of APA. The reflection paper should also explain how you will use this new knowledge to help you write your literature review.

  Submit your Literature Review Analysis Reflection paper with the completed Boote’s and Beile's (2005) Revised Rubric for Scoring Literature as an attachment to the dropbox.

- Discussion Thread 2: Each student will respond to two or more cohort members’ Literature Review Analysis Reflection Paper in the discussion thread.

Module 3

- Assignment 3 – Literature Review: The Structure
  Write a Reflection Paper (two double spaced pages with appropriate use of APA) summarizing some of the information from the video on structure of the literature review, module notes, and Galvin’s textbook chapters related to the structure of the literature review. The reflection paper should also explain how you will use this new knowledge to help you structure your literature review.

  Submit your Literature Review Structure Reflection Paper as an attachment to the dropbox.

- Discussion Thread 3: Each student will respond to two or more cohort members Literature Review Structure reflection paper in the discussion thread. Provide constructive feedback.
Module 4

- Assignment 4- Literature Review: The Steps
  Write a Reflection Paper (2 double spaced pages) summarizing the video on steps to writing a literature review, Galvin’s textbook chapters on steps to writing a literature review, and lectures notes in this module on steps to write a literature review. The reflection paper should also explain how you will use this new knowledge to help you write your literature review.

  Submit your Literature Review Steps Reflection Paper as an attachment to the dropbox.

- Discussion Thread: Each student will respond to two or more cohort members Literature Review Steps Reflection paper in the discussion thread. Provide constructive feedback.

Module 5

No Discussion Thread

Module 6

- Assignment 6 - Final Submission of Chapter 2 Literature Review (10-15 pages) and References (10-12). This assignment is designed for the student to develop a draft of the Literature Review. Each student will construct a draft literature review on the topic that they identified in Chapter 1 during EDAD 697 (EDAD 663). The students will also compile the reference list.

  Submit your Chapter 2- Literature Review (10-15 pages) and References (10-12 sources) as an attachment in the dropbox and in doc sharing.

- Discussion Thread 6: Each student will respond to two or more cohort members Literature Review in the discussion thread.

Module 7

- Assignment 7 -Chapter 2 - Doctoral Dissertation Literature Review: Reflection Paper (2 double spaced pages). Please reflect on your draft literature review and introduction chapter experiences. Tell us what you learned and what you would have liked to learn.

  Submit the written reflection paper as an attachment to the dropbox.
• No Discussion Thread

APA Format for Papers

Please follow APA 6 formatting in your Style Manual. You may also access a free online APA tutorial at Purdue Online Writing Lab and at www.apastyle.org).

Reflection papers should be double spaced, size 12 font (New Times Roman), and follow the format for papers as specified by the APA Publication Manual. This is scholarly work and should not be written in first person.

All resources should be cited using APA format. The paper should also be free of technical errors (spelling, punctuation, proper use of grammar, etc.).

Late work

Late work is not accepted, unless prior approval received by the instructor. Points may be deducted. You will have plenty of notification and time to complete course assignments. If you know you are going to be out of town and unable to access a computer, plan ahead. See course semester outline at the bottom of this syllabus.

Attendance

This is an online class therefore attendance is up to you! You will be required to work as a team via various activities. The quality of your contributions and regular participation in weekly activities will be considered attendance. It is strongly encouraged that you attempt to log into the course each day – Monday through Friday. Please check your MyLeo email for messages in order to keep current. If we do synchronous sessions via ClassLive PRO, these sessions will not be required.

GRADING

Student Performance Evaluation:

Evaluation will be based on successful completion of each of the performance expectations. Each performance assignment has been assigned points towards the total on which the final course grade will be based. The points for each assignment may be viewed in the grade book.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

The following technological resources will be required.

- Access to a computer with Internet access (high-speed preferred)
- Document Productivity Software (Microsoft Office preferred)
- External Microphone
- Webcam

As a student enrolled at Texas A&M University-Commerce, you have access to an email account via myLeo - all my emails sent from eCollege (and all other university emails) will go to this account. Please be sure to check it regularly. Conversely, you are to email me via the eCollege email system or your myLeo email as our spam filters will catch yahoo, hotmail, etc. and I will not check for your email in spam. When sending me an email be sure that you have the included your name and Course Number (EDAD 697) in the subject line.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

Our campus is optimized to work in a Microsoft Windows environment. This means our courses work best if you are using a Windows operating system.
Your courses will also work with Macintosh OS X along with Internet Explorer and Google Chrome.

It is strongly recommended that you perform a "Browser Test" prior to the start of your course. To launch a browser test, login in to eCollege, click on the 'myCourses' tab, and then select the "Browser Test" link under Support Services.

eCollege Access and Log in Information (7.1)

This course will be facilitated using eCollege, the Learning Management System used by Texas A&M University-Commerce. To get started with the course, go to: https://leo.tamu-commerce.edu/login.aspx.

You will need your CWID and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, please contact Technology Services at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamu-commerce.edu.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

I will communicate with you through:

- Email
- eCollege Announcements
- Module Q&A Forum
- Virtual Office Hour
- ClasslivePro
- Google +

Email is the primary mode of communication that will be used in this course. I will attempt to answer emails within 24 hours. Please be sure that the email you have listed with TAMUC is the one you wish to use. Ecollege uses the MyLeo email that was provided to you upon admittance to the University, unless you have changed your primary email through the system.

When sending me an email be sure that you have the included Course Number (EDAD 664) in the subject line.

Another way to communicate with me is through Module Q&A. Each of the seven modules within our EDAD 664 course shell has a link entitled Module Q&A where you can post questions and review responses to questions that pertain to course information as we progress through this course.
Prior to asking a question, please quickly review previous responses within a particular Module Q&A forum as your question may already have been addressed. You are welcome to respond to a classmate’s question if you can accurately address the issue.

You may also interact with me through ClassLivePro. I will hold a synchronous online office hour every Monday at 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. (after EDAD 664 Hang Out at 6:30 p.m.), which will allow additional opportunities for you to ask me questions pertaining to course content and assignments. Click Live at the top of the eCollege course page followed by Classlive on the next screen. Then, click Join Session. Having a high speed internet, a microphone, and a webcam, will make your ClassLivePro experience more meaningful. ClasslivePro is not mandatory. You are not required to do one or the other or both (Google + or ClassLivePro); however, students who do participate express an increased sense of community and presence in the online class. This forum attempts to simulate an actual classroom experience.

eCollege Student Technical Support

- Texas A&M University-Commerce provides students technical support in the use of eCollege. The student help desk may be reached by the following means 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
- Chat Support: Click on 'Live Support' on the tool bar within your course to chat with an eCollege Representative.
- Phone: 1-866-656-5511 (Toll Free) to speak with eCollege Technical Support Representative.
- Email: helpdesk@online.tamuc.org to initiate a support request with eCollege Technical Support Representative.
- Help: Click on the 'Help' button on the toolbar for information regarding working with eCollege (i.e. How to submit to dropbox, How to post to discussions etc...)

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

ADA Statement

Students with Disabilities:
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Office of Student Disability Resources and Services
Texas A&M University-Commerce
Gee Library- Room 132
Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835
Fax (903) 468-8148
StudentDisabilityServices@tamu-commerce.edu

Scholarly Expectations

All works submitted for credit must be original works created by the scholar uniquely for the class. It is considered inappropriate and unethical, particularly at the graduate level, to make duplicate submissions of a single work for credit in multiple classes, unless specifically requested by the instructor. Work submitted at the graduate level is expected to demonstrate higher-order thinking skills and be of significantly higher quality than work produced at the undergraduate level.

Dropping the Class

At times, we become overloaded or have unplanned events that demand our attention. If you need to adjust your schedule by dropping this course, please follow university procedures to officially drop the class. Please do not just disappear. If you fail to officially drop the class, a grade must be assigned at the end of the course.

Incomplete Grades

Per university policy, you must visit with the instructor, develop, and sign "A Plan for Completing the Grade of X" before you may receive an incomplete for the course. The reason for such requests is limited to "circumstances beyond student’s control which prevented student from attending classes during Finals Week or the preceding three weeks." You are notified that the deadline date for all plans is not to exceed one semester. Failure to fulfill plan requirements within the specified time will result in a course grade of F.

Academic Honesty:

Please see the TAMU-C Graduate Catalog and the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (2010) for the discussion of academic honesty. Academic honesty is especially important when it comes to citing/quoting sources in research papers and assignments. Students are responsible for reading this material and becoming familiar with the conventions for acknowledging sources of information. Consequences for academic dishonesty range from failing a specific assignment to expulsion from the University.

"Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty, which includes, but is not limited to plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments) and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material."

(Texas A&M University –Commerce, Graduate Catalog)

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook.

sufficient time to provide feedback. Post assignment by Thursday of each week.

The student is timely in providing constructive feedback to one of their classmates’ discussion thread. Time range from Thursday to Sunday.

The student demonstrates an observable understanding of the video, lecture notes, assignment, and/or articles being discussed. The understanding will be at the critical thinking and synthesis level.

The student response in the discussion thread is at least 100 words.

The student demonstrates application of the knowledge and skills learned from the lecture notes and videos by describing at least two ways he/she will use this new learning in the assignment.

<th>Research Topic and Introduction to the Chapter - The research topic is researchable; that is, it can be investigated through collecting and analyzing data. It also has theoretical or practical significance. That is, it contributes in some way to improvement or understanding of educational theory or practice. It is ethical and does harm the research participants. Finally the research topic is manageable; that is, you can investigate the topic adequately, given your current level of research skill, resources available, and the time you can commit to carrying out the study. The introduction to the chapter does not have its own heading. It gets the reader into the chapter somewhat gradually. The introduction includes the professional conditions at the time of the study and broader societal and school conditions that made the problem seem important.</th>

The Purpose of the Study clearly describes the intent of the study and builds on the need of the problem. The Significance of the Study answers the question, “Why did you bother to conduct the study?” Specific explanations based on research was discussed such as: improves policy and practice, previous studies have turned up conflicting evidence concerning the issue you have chosen to study, the study includes a theory that has been widely accepted but little tested, would be of value to practitioners, and would likely advance knowledge.</td>

Research Questions are statements to which the researcher seeks an answer. The research questions are stated correctly for the research design (i.e., qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods). For example, the qualitative research questions are interrogative sentences that ask questions about a process, issue or phenomenon. The quantitative research questions are interrogative sentences that ask a question the relationship that exist between two or more variables. Research questions are worded specifically in order to pinpoint what is being instigated. The question specifies exactly the variables that are to be investigated. The hypothesis (i.e., quantitative study) is the formal statement of the researcher’s prediction of the relationship that exists among the variables under investigations.

Limitations, Delimitations, and Assumptions. The limitations that are not under the control of the researcher were explained. These factors may have an effect on the interpretation of the findings or on the generalizability of the result. The delimitations, self-imposed boundaries set by the researcher on the purpose and scope of the study, were discussed in a paragraph format. The assumptions that are postulates, premises, and propositions that were accepted as operational for purposes of the research were discussed.

An Overview of the Methodology and Organization of Chapter. The overview of the methodology includes a general discussion of the research design (i.e., quantitative), research strategy of inquiry (i.e., causal-comparative design) and described procedures that will be used to collect and analyze the data, sampling technique, research participants or archival data. The organization of the chapter described the content found in subsequent chapters.
