Class code: 12:30PM-1:45PM 20330

Recommended:

Basic calculator to add, subtract, multiply, and divide. Any type is acceptable. Cell phones and other similar devices are not to be used.

Course Embedded Assessment Objectives:

Your achievement level for each objective will be measured by your success in completing the homework, quizzes, and examinations. This class focuses on transaction analyses (i.e. record transactions in journals, post to ledger accounts, prepare a trial balance, record the period adjustments required for monthly reporting, prepare, prepare financial statements, and complete closing entries to close temporary (nominal) accounts to retained earnings).

The successful student upon completion of this course will be expected to have achieved the following:

- Assess and understand the Accounting Conceptual Framework and underlying principles of accounting, applications, and procedures.
- Analyze the effects of transactions and events on an entity's financial condition and demonstrate an understanding of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).
- Employ professional judgment applying GAAP technical concepts to prepare and present financial statements and related disclosures.

Student Responsibilities:

1. Read assigned material on schedule.
2. Complete all homework assignments on time and before class.
3. Prepare for class, examinations, and quizzes.
4. Participate in all discussions.

Teaching Procedures:

The class will be conducted in a lecture/discussion format. Be prepared to discuss and ask questions about the material assigned for each class period. This will require that you read the material prior to the class period during which it will be discussed. Although many of the issues covered in the readings will be discussed in class, all the areas covered in the readings will not be part of class discussion. You are encouraged to participate in class. Participation is based on volunteering for class activities and exhibiting a positive attitude, demonstrated by attentive, courteous, and respectful behavior at all times. The nature of this course encourages an interactive forum, and everyone has something valuable to contribute. Disruptive or rude behavior will not be tolerated.

General Classroom Rules

Other: University policy will be followed in regards to withdrawals during the semester. It is the student’s responsibility to conform with the university rules relating to dropping or withdrawing from the course.

Email Policy

All students must use their My Leo accounts when corresponding with professors. Please include the course number in the subject line of the email message. I will answer emails within 24 hours during the week. If you do not hear from me during the specified time, assume I did not receive your email and contact me again.

The following schedule lists the specific assignments for the course. This syllabus is subject to change as needed to meet the objectives or administration of the course at the discretion of the professor. It is not anticipated there will be any substantive changes.

Attendance

Punctual class attendance and participation is mandatory. Missing class or assignments is detrimental to mastering the material. It is the student’s responsibility to drop the class. I will not drop you from the class
Class Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to be present for all class meetings of any course for which they are enrolled. Per University Procedure A13.02, effective September 1, 1996, students are responsible for learning about and complying with the attendance policy stated in the catalog, Student’s Guidebook, and/or faculty syllabus. Faculty members will provide details on requirements and guidelines for attendance in their classes in their course syllabi. Students are responsible for requesting makeup work when they are absent. They will be permitted to make up work for absences which are considered by the faculty member to be excusable. The method used to make-up this work shall be determined by the faculty member. The student is responsible for providing the faculty member reason(s) for his/her absence. The faculty member then determines the validity of the reason(s) for the absence and whether the student is to be excused for the absence.

Faculty members may consider the following reasons for absences excusable: (a) Participation in a required/authorized university activity; (b) Verified illness; (c) Death in a student's immediate family; (d) Obligation of student at legal proceedings in fulfilling responsibility as a citizen; and (e) Others determined by individual faculty to be excusable (e.g. elective University activities, etc.)

Ethics

Integrity is the hallmark of the accounting profession and will be stressed throughout the course. Any type of student breach of ethics, including but not limited to: illegal activity, dishonest conduct, cheating, plagiarism, or collusion, will result in failure of assignment or exam (F) and/or further academic sanction (i.e. failure of course (F), dismissal from class and/or referral to Dean of the College of Business and Technology).

"All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment." (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Other

University policy will be followed in regards to withdrawals during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to conform with the university rules relating to dropping or withdrawing from the course.

Discipline Policy

"All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment." (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Comfortable Learning Environment

The university, this department, and your instructor are all committed to maintaining an inoffensive, non-threatening learning environment for every student. Class members (including the instructor) are to treat each other politely both in word and deed. Offensive humor and aggressive personal advances are specifically forbidden. If you feel uncomfortable with a personal interaction, contact your instructor for help in solving the problem.

Academic Honesty Policy

The College of Business and Entrepreneurship at Texas A & M University-Commerce will strive to be recognized as a community with legal, ethical, and moral principles and to practice professionalism in all that we do. Failure to abide by these principles will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal. Five different types of activities that will bring sanctions are as follows:

Illegal activity – Violation of any local, state, or federal laws that prohibit the offender from performance of his or her duty.

Dishonest Conduct: Seeking or obtaining unfair advantage by stealing or receiving copies of tests or intentionally preventing others from completing their work. In addition, falsifying of records to enter or complete a program will also be considered dishonest conduct.

Cheating: The unauthorized use of another's work and reporting it as your own.

Plagiarism: Using someone else's ideas and not giving proper credit.

Collusion: Acting with others to perpetrate any of the above actions regardless of personal gain.

Civility in the Academic Environment

Civility in the classroom or online course and respect for the opinions of others is very important in an academic environment. It is likely you may not agree with everything that is said or discussed in the classroom/online course. Courteous behavior and responses are expected. To create and preserve a learning environment that optimizes teaching and learning, all participants share a responsibility in creating a civil and non-disruptive forum. Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that does not disrupt teaching or learning. Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/online course and may refer serious offenses to the University Police Department and/or the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

Incomplete in Course

Students who, because of circumstances beyond their control, are unable to attend classes during or after review week will, upon approval of the teacher, receive a mark of "X" in all courses in which they were maintaining passing grades. A grade of "X" (incomplete) will not be counted in the calculation of the grade point average for one semester. If the "X" has not been removed at the end of one semester, it will automatically be changed to a grade of "F." If a student feels that a grade is not correct, the matter should be discussed with the instructor. If the instructor finds the grade incorrect, the instructor must petition for a grade change by receiving approval from the department head and dean, with final approval from the Registrar's Office
