Class meeting dates: June 2nd–July 3rd

Text: Accounting – Tools for Business Decision Making, 5th ed., by Kimmel, Weygandt and Kieso. (Includes Wiley Plus) ISBN 9781118566305

Course Description: An introduction to financial accounting concepts and financial reporting, with the focus being on how decision makers analyze, interpret, and use accounting information. Emphasis is given to how accounting measures, records, and reports economic activities for corporations and on the relationship between accrual and cash flow measures in interpreting accounting information.

Course Objectives: Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- Apply the fundamental concepts and assumptions that underlie financial accounting principles
- Demonstrate an understanding of the steps of the accounting cycle and of the basic elements of the four financial statements
- Identify, record, and report transactions in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

Grading Policy

Course grades will be based upon two exams (100 points each) and five quizzes (20 points each). Grades for the course will be determined by converting each student's points out of a possible 300 into a percentage and then applying the following ranges:

Range	Grade
90-100	A
80-89	B
70-79	C
60-69	D
Below 60	F

The above point spreads are guaranteed grades. In other words, if you score in a particular range you are guaranteed at least that grade. The instructor reserves the right to lower the range for a particular grade, at his discretion. Cheating will not be tolerated.

Anyone caught cheating will receive zero on that test or quiz and will be subject to academic sanction.

Examinations:

The exams will be taken online.

Quizzes:

The quizzes will be taken online.

Class Live Pro:

This course will make use of Class Live Pro. During the first week of class information will be sent out regarding these sessions. You are required to either log in to the session or to watch it in the archives.

Academic Honesty Policy:

All students must follow and conform to the University policy on Academic Honesty. A copy of this will be sent to you and you must sign and return it to the dropbox.

ADA Policy: Students requesting accommodations for disabilities must go through the ADA Compliance Committee. For more information, please contact Director of Disability Resources & Services, Gee library room 132.
