Course Description:

This course is designed to provide an overview of financial statement analysis with a focus on global entrepreneurship. It presents a framework for analyzing business opportunities and risks through the use of financial statement analysis, ratio analysis, and trend analysis and valuation methods. Prerequisite Acc 222 and a minimum of 55-semester hour credits.

Required for: BBA, MBA

Course Materials:

Required Text:

Fraser and Ormiston take readers behind the financial reports to assess the real financial condition and performance of U.S. companies.

Understanding Financial Statements retains its reputation for readability, concise coverage, and accessibility, and gives readers the conceptual background and analytical tools necessary to understand and interpret business financial statements. Its ultimate goal is to improve readers' ability to translate financial statement numbers into a meaningful map for business decisions and enable each reader to approach financial statements with enhanced confidence.
Course Embedded Objectives:

Your achievement level for each objective will be measured by your success in completing the homework, quizzes and examinations. The successful student, upon completion of this course, will be expected to have achieved the following as a result of this course:

- Understand financial statements, both from a historical viewpoint and the relationship between the Income Statement, the Balance Sheet and the Statement of Cash Flows.
- Be able to analyze financial statements and identify the strengths and weaknesses of firms using the techniques such as ratio analysis, common size analysis and cash flows.
- Understand and interpret the differences between US GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) financial statements.
- Exposure to global entrepreneurship financial environment.

Student Responsibilities:

1. Read assigned material on schedule
2. Complete all homework assignments on time
3. Prepare for class, examinations and quizzes
4. Participate in all discussion boards and any Class Live Pro sessions

Course Evaluation:

Grades will be based upon the following items:
