Course Information
Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings:

Other readings: Readings have been prepared and will be distributed. These are a blend of primary and secondary materials that complement lectures and provide the foundations for classroom discussions.

Note: It is imperative that you complete the assigned readings; the material contained therein will drive classroom discussion, a very crucial course requirement. You are responsible for all the material contained in the readings; if you do not read them, you will have a difficult semester.

Course Description

Government 2302 is a broad interdisciplinary course in the development of the Institutions and Policies of the Federal Government and the State of Texas

A study of the Texas & Federal constitutional systems; executive, judicial, and legislative powers and institutions; the United States Constitution, economic and financial development, formation and organization; political parties and ideologies; federal and interstate relations; close study of various current problems. Core Curriculum satisfied for Political Science/Government

Student Learning Outcomes:

1) Students will be able to recognize their own position as being subjective, follow objectively the arguments of others, and interpret data.
2) In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.
3) Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
4) Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
Instructional/ Methods/ Assessments

The reading assignments and class sessions are listed for each week. I expect you to complete the reading prior to class and be PREPARED to discuss or address specific issues raised in the readings. Written assignments will be submitted at the beginning of the class period to the instructor.

Assignment Explanations

Exams:

Students must complete all three exams. The format consists of Multiple Choice and Short Essay questions. Students are highly encouraged to not miss exams as a makeup exam consists of a complete essay examination given over the materials covered. It is the student’s responsibility to schedule and complete their makeup exams. There are no Exceptions! Failure to make up a Missed Exam Will Result in a Zero (0) for the Exam and a Failing grade for this course. Each exam will be worth 20% of the final course grade. Each Student is responsible for providing a green scantron.

Reading Assignments:

The reading assignments and class sessions are listed for each week. I expect you to complete the readings prior to class and be PREPARED to discuss and address specific issues raised in the readings. Written assignments will be submitted to the instructor at the beginning of the class period.

In Class Simulation

Each student is required to participate in class simulations were each student will play a role in local government. Details will be given later in the semester. It will be fun!

Attendance and Participation

Any absence requires proper documentation. Family emergencies, illnesses, births, deaths, incarcerations or other events and calamities are NOT excused absences. Participation points are earned through your contribution to class discussion that reflects informed and on-topic participation. Participation means that you read the required chapter material in preparation for class. If you are not in class, then you cannot earn participation credit. If you miss three classes, I reserve the right to drop you from the course. Attendance and Participation consists of 20 % of your final grade.

If you do not show up, you will not pass the class!

Classroom Procedures

Cell Phones: The use of cellular phones is prohibited in the classroom. Each student can keep his/her cell phone on his or her desk for checking the time. TEXTING will not be tolerated and if a student is caught texting, during class, an automatic pop quiz will be administered and the subject is at the discretion of the instructor and this grade will contribute to your Participation Grade.

Student Conduct: Each student is expected to observe basic tenants of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See the Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism (pla-gia-rism)–noun

1. the unauthorized use or close imitation of the language and thoughts of another author and the representation of them as one's own original work.
2. In all courses, I expect that all work that you do and turn in is your own. It is the policy of the University, the Department of Political Science, and myself that no form of plagiarism, cheating, collusion, or any other form of academic dishonesty will be tolerated. Cheating is obtaining unauthorized assistance on any assignment. Collusion is the selling of academic products with the intention that they be submitted to satisfy an academic requirement. Students are expected to uphold and support the highest academic standards at all times. Any student found guilty of academic dishonesty will automatically fail the assignment in question, will likely fail the entire course, and will be subject to disciplinary action by the University. Please see pg. 32 of the Student Handbook.

Accommodations

Students with Disabilities: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal antidiscrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
