ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:
Student Conduct

Students are expected to respect the rights of the employer and maintain standards of professionalism. The following are issues that can result in the termination of the internship:

1. Unexcused absence
2. Excessive tardiness
3. Use of intoxicating substances during work hours or in such a way outside of work hours that impairs one’s ability to do the job
4. Failure to follow employer rules, especially those regarding safe use of agricultural and/or commercial equipment
5. Any violations of employer policy that result in disciplinary action.

If the internship is terminated, the student will receive a grade of ‘F’.

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook).
