COURSE DESCRIPTION:

MUS 125 is the second in a five-course sequence that examines the notation, structure, compositional practices, and development of Western art-music tradition. This course emphasizes compositional and analytical skills, with particular focus on the study of music of the Common Practice Era (CPE).

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course, students will:
- Identify, using standard symbols and terminology, the various kinds of cadences, phrases, and period constructions commonly found in the music of the early CPE.
- Compose simple melodies, using standard phrases and period construction.
- Identify the various kinds of non-chord tones, employing standard symbols, found in music from the CPE.
- Identify and construct diatonic seventh chords and all inversions of such, using standard Roman-numeral analysis.
- Harmonize a melodic line (given or original) in a simple keyboard-style, demonstrating proper harmonic progression and application of standard voice-leading practices.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS:

Instruction will include lectures by the instructor, listening examples, and class discussions.

ASSIGNMENTS, GRADING POLICIES, AND CALCULATION OF FINAL AVERAGE:

1. READING THE TEXTBOOKS/HANDOUTS AS ASSIGNED ON THE COURSE SCHEDULE

   It is imperative that students read the textbook as assigned.

2. ATTENDANCE/CLASS PARTICIPATION

   The University attendance policy states that students “are expected to be present for all class meetings.” Refer to “Attendance” in the Course and University Procedures/Policies Section below. Each student in this course is allowed unexcused absences amounting to three class periods. Unexcused absences require no explanation. After a student accrues more than 3 unexcused absences, the instructor has the prerogative to reduce the final letter grade for each additional absence.

   The instructor will close the door at the designated starting time. Attendance will be taken at that time. NO ONE will be admitted after the door has been closed.

   Engagement, participation, and a positive attitude are important in a course of this kind, as they are in any area of college and life. Students will participate in classroom activities, field trips, and written work, the details of which will be announced by the instructor. It is especially important that first-year students begin the process of integrating into both the university and department’s community of scholar/musicians.

4. COMPLETION OF HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS/LAB ASSIGNMENTS (30 POINTS)

   The student will have regular assignments from the textbook, and the accompanying workbook. Once a week (day unannounced), homework will be taken up at the beginning of class for a grade. LATE PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. If you do not turn in homework that is taken up, you will receive an assignment grade of 0%.

   Only assignments that are neat, legible, and COMPLETED IN PENCIL will be graded for credit; all others will be returned with a grade of 0%.

4. QUIZZES (20 POINTS)

   Quizzes will be unannounced. No make-ups will be given. If you have an excused absence, and if you receive a C (70%) or higher on the subsequent quiz, that grade will be calculated twice to serve as a “make-up” for the missed quiz. This procedure will only be applied one time. If you miss another quiz, you will receive a grade of 0%.

5. MIDTERM (25 POINTS) / FINAL EXAMINATION (25 POINTS)

   The midterm and final examination will be cumulative to what has been learned to that point in class. No make-up exams will be given.
Calculation of Final Grade

All quizzes, exams and assignments must be completed if the student is to pass the course.

Communication and Support

I encourage classes to interact with me as much as possible, especially if a student feels challenged by the academic content of a course or has missed classes. My office and conference hours are indicated at the top of the syllabus. If you cannot see me during my regular office hours, I will make every effort to set up an appointment at a time that is mutually convenient. Apart from speaking to me before or after class, e-mail is usually the best means of getting in touch with me.

Course and University Procedures/Policies

Attendance

Students are expected to attend classes regularly and to stay abreast, without prompting, of all readings, assignments and exams. Participation in class meetings will provide an opportunity for explanation of difficult concepts, discussion of solutions to homework assignments, and answering of questions. University guidelines on attendance are outlined in The Student Guidebook, available through the Office of the Dean of Students and by searching the University’s web site, but the specific policies for this course are as follows.

Each student in this course is allowed unexcused absences amounting to two class periods. Unexcused absences require no explanation.

Excused absences are defined in The Student Guidebook and various university policies, but the policy employed in this class is confined to the following: (1) Participation in pre-approved University activities such as athletic events, sponsored field trips, and travel for specific University related academic reasons; (2) Verifiable legal proceedings; (3) Documented cases of illness, injury, or emergencies.

All such excuses must be provided in original, written, documentary form within 5 days of the absence(s). In lieu of documentation, the absences become unexcused and counted as such. When a student accrues more than four unexcused absences the instructor has the prerogatives (1) to reduce the final letter grade for each additional absence, and, for excessive absences, (2) to expel the student from class, drop the student from class, or assign the student a final grade of F.
ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty has zero tolerance in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on exams, theft of instructional material or exams, representing the work of someone else as one’s own, misrepresenting absences or tardiness on sign-in sheets or roll calls, etc.). Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression in college and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, expulsion from class, and/or the University, and a failing grade.
