COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course introduces students to the science of gerontology and the sociology of aging and the elderly.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES: After completing this course, students will be able to:

1. Define and explain the social science of gerontology and the sociological approach to the study of aging and the elderly.
2. List and explain some of the major physical, psychological, and social issues associated with aging.
3. Identify important social, cultural, political, and economic issues facing a society where the largest single age cohort will soon be over 65 years of age.
4. Demonstrate critical thinking skills on the subjects of aging and the elderly.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

CLASS FORMAT: This class will utilize readings, power point slides, guest speakers, lectures, and discussions in order to provide the best learning experience possible.

The environment will be totally open. Your participation in class discussion is encouraged. All ideas, comments, opinions, etc., will be heard. Likewise, all of them will be questioned, analyzed, and critically scrutinized. Do not be timid and do not "wear your feelings on your shirtsleeves." On the other hand, be cognizant of other's feelings and do nothing to interfere with another person's learning opportunities.

STATEMENT OF STUDENT BEHAVIOR: As stated in the student handbook: “All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.” (See Student Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct, for more information.)
THIS CLASSROOM IS A “SAFE SPACE”

All persons who enter this classroom will be treated with dignity and respect regardless of age, race, sex, social class, religion, politics, sexual orientation, and/or lifestyle. There will be “Zero Tolerance” in this classroom for any form of ageism, racism, sexism, sexual harassment, or any other form of prejudice, discrimination, or bigotry.

ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION: It should go without saying that attendance at all class sessions is extremely important. The class meets only once a week and there is no possible way to gain the information lost by missing class discussions. It is inevitable that one or two of you will have to miss a session for some very good reason. If this is the case, please check with others in the class to see what you missed. If you anticipate missing more than two class sessions, you probably should drop the course.

Each Monday evening will be divided into 2 sessions with a 10 minute break in between sessions. Attendance will be taken for each session. There are 15 Mondays (hence, 30 sessions). You will be awarded 1 point for each session you attend and participate. At the end of the semester your attendance and participation will count for up to 30 pts.

EXAMINATIONS: There will be three major examinations worth 100 pts. each. They will be multiple choice, short answer, and essay-type exams covering the material in class up to the date of the exam. You will need a blue book and a brown scantron for the exams. They are on the course schedule. Please do not schedule anything that conflicts with those dates.

CRITICAL THINKING PAPERS: There will be 5 critical thinking papers on various topics covered in the class. They will be worth 10 pts. each for a total of 50 pts.

GRADES: Grades will be based on the three exams worth 100 pts. each (300 pts), 5 critical thinking papers (10 pts. ea.—50 pts total) and attendance/participation (30 pts.).

POLICIES ON ENROLLMENT, "Xs", AND WITHDRAWAL: All policies regarding last day for enrollment, dropping without a grade, withdrawal from class, and the use of “X” will be rigidly adhered to in this course. Students should check the student handbook, current semester schedule, and the appropriate bulletin boards for specific deadlines. Seeing that all university procedures are properly followed is the student's responsibility.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM: Cheating or plagiarism of any kind will not be tolerated. Anyone who participates in either activity will fail the course and the professor will initiate steps for the university to take further disciplinary action.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

There are no technology requirements for this course per se. Students should have access to a computer, however, to develop Power Point slides, use word processing, and access online materials as well as to check their MyLeo accounts for e-mails from the professor.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION
This course is taught face-to-face. The publisher of the introductory textbook provides an online site to accompany the textbook. The web address is on the back cover of the textbook.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement:
The most effective way to communicate with the professor will be to come to class. The professor will be in his office during posted office hours and by appointment. The best way to make an appointment is to communicate directly with the professor immediately prior to or after class. Appointments can also be made via e-mail.

E-MAIL COMMUNICATION: I will communicate with the class through MyLeo e-mail. I will send out reminders about assignments, changes in syllabus, etc., to the entire class through e-mail using your official “My Leo” university e-mail address. Consequently, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to check your e-mail regularly for messages from me. If you contact me via e-mail, please tell me your name and the course in which you are enrolled as part of your e-mail.

If you send me an e-mail, I will always read it and respond within a reasonable amount of time. Generally, if you send me an e-mail any time between Monday 8:00 a.m. and noon Friday, I will respond within 24 hours or sooner if possible. If, however, you e-mail me after noon on Friday, it will be Monday at the earliest before I respond. Fortunately, I am not a brain surgeon or cardiologist and none of the issues or assignments in this class are life or death matters. If you have a class-related problem or issue, DO NOT PANIC. Any problem that is class-related that occurs over the weekend can wait until the following Monday to be addressed.

Students with Disabilities:
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Office of Student Disability Resources and Services

Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835
Fax (903) 468-8148
StudentDisabilityServices@tamu-commerce.edu

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.
