COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

Attendance and Participation:

I cannot make you come to class. However, the class has been structured in such a way that frequent quizzes are given, nearly every class meeting. Only the two lowest scores on these quizzes are dropped; missed quizzes cannot be made up. Arriving late to class means that you have missed the quiz.

I enjoy teaching and I love the material we are covering. As such, class meetings are fairly informal discussions of fascinating works of art/artists/time periods. I respect and welcome input from everyone in the class as it adds to the quality of class and usually results in a tangent or bit of information I may not have normally made time to present.

I come to class fully prepared; I show up early; I respect thoughtful input. In return, I expect you to show up fully prepared, on time, and respectful of me and your fellow students.

A = Always prepared, frequently participates, rarely absent

B = Always prepared, participates only when called on, rarely absent

C = Usually prepared, rarely speaks, rarely absent

D = Often unprepared, several absences

F = Usually unprepared, frequent absences

The professor reserves the right to give unannounced pop quizzes or homework assignments. These cannot be made up and will count as part of the participation grade.

Assignments:

Quizzes: A ten point short quiz will be given weekly, at the start of class. The quiz will cover assigned readings and the previous lecture. The lowest two quiz scores over the course of the semester will be dropped in the calculation of your final grade.

Short Writing Assignments: Two short written assignments may be given during the semester.

Grading

Grades will be determined according to the following breakdown:

Quizzes: approx. 100 points

Short Written Assignments: approx. 20 points

The grading scale used for this course is as follows:

120 - 108 = A

107 - 96 = B

95 - 84 = C

72 - 60 = D

59 or less = F

All students are expected to observe basic tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct). During class time, I expect your undivided attention. This means turning off all electronic devices for the duration of the class period (exceptions will be allowed for emergencies with advance permission of the professor). Please come to class on time and plan to stay for the entire period. Coming late and/or disrupting the learning environment shows disrespect for us, your colleagues, and the educational endeavor in which you are engaged.

Plagiarism is defined as taking the words or ideas of someone else and passing them off as your own. Cheating is obtaining unauthorized assistance on any assignment. Collusion is the selling or buying of academic products with the intention that they be submitted to satisfy an academic requirement. Any student found guilty of academic dishonesty will automatically fail the assignment in question, will likely fail the entire course, and will be subject to disciplinary action by the University (See Texas A&M University-Commerce Code of Student Conduct 5.b[1,2,3]).

**Plagiarism, in any form, but particularly cutting and pasting from internet sources will result in a grade of zero on any written assignment.****

Cheating on any quiz will result in a 0 for the class.

Writing Center

Students are encouraged to take advantage of the resources of the Writing Center for assistance with drafting their papers. The Writing Center is a resource for you. They will not write your paper; they will help you improve your writing skills. If you use the Writing Center, please plan ahead. They can only help you if you see them in advance and have time to incorporate their suggestions into the final paper. More information can be found at <http://www.tamu-commerce.edu/litlang/CSC/>.

Students with Disabilities

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities.
