Course Requirements:
1. Complete and monitor your own progress on an individualized Learning Contract (up to 10 points, 10% of your final grade).

Aligns with Student Learning Outcomes: H

2. Professional Behaviors: Attendance both online and at face to face meetings is required; regular, consistent participation is important. We do important things every week of class – don’t miss it. Excessive absences (less than 5 hours a week logged in to eCollege, or 10 days without logging into eCollege) may prompt an administrative withdrawal.
   ○ Read textbook assignments, supplemental reading assignments, lecture notes, PowerPoint presentations, and resource links.
   ○ Check Leo eMail frequently, at least twice a week.
   ○ Discussions: Participate in frequent online class discussions, whole class or small groups. Most are asynchronous – not live. Note the discussion board rubric in eCollege: Tools: DocSharing: Discussion Board Rubric.pdf. Occasional synchronous (real-time, live) CHAT or CLASSLIVE sessions require your participation when scheduled. Occasional opportunity, optional, to go onsite to schools and centers for guided observation.
   ○ Quizzes: Read all assigned readings. Participate in frequent chapter quizzes as posted in eCollege units.

You will self-evaluate your professional behaviors TWICE, once at the beginning, and again at the end of the course. Your grade on this Course Requirement will come from your self-evaluation (up to 10 points, 10% of your final grade).

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:
Attendance
Attendance online is expected; regular, consistent participation is important. We do important things every week of class – don’t miss it. Excessive absences (less than 6 hours a week logged in to eCollege, or 5 days without logging into eCollege) may prompt an administrative withdrawal.

University Specific Procedures:
Academic Honesty Policy
Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material.

We suggest these web resources to students for reference regarding what constitutes plagiarism and how to avoid it: http://www.plagiarism.org/ or http://writingcenter.unc.edu/handouts/plagiarism or http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml
Disciplinary action for these offenses may include any combination of the following:
1. Point deduction on an assignment.
2. Failure for an assignment.
3. A grade of zero for an assignment.
4. Failure for the course.
5. Referral to the Academic Integrity Committee or department head for further action.
6. Referral to the Dean of the College of Education and Human Services as appropriate.
7. Referral to the University Discipline Committee.
8. Communication of student’s behavior to the Teacher Certification Office and/or Dean of the College of Education as constituting a reason to bar student from entering into or continuing in a teacher certification program. Procedures, A 13.04, 13.12, 13.31, and 13.32

Drop a Course https://www.tamuc.edu/admissions/oneStopShop/registrar/forms/default.aspx

Students who wish to drop a course are responsible for initiating this action. Students may drop a class with a full refund (if remaining enrolled) until the census day of the particular term. Census date is the 12th University class day of Fall or Spring, 4th university class day of summer or 2nd university class day of a mini term. After census date, eligible students may use their MyLeo to process drops online. The student must obtain approval from the department/instructor to drop after census date.

Administrative Withdrawal https://www.tamuc.edu/admissions/oneStopShop/registrar/forms/default.aspx

It is the prerogative of the faculty to drop students from courses in which they have accrued excessive absences as defined in the course syllabus. In such cases, faculty members recommend through the department head to the appropriate college dean that a student be dropped from a class. The faculty member will document absences and will make a reasonable effort to communicate with the student prior to recommending the drop. If approved, the college dean will forward the recommendation to the Registrar’s Office.

ADA Statement The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities.
