Course Description
This course follows a transatlantic theme by studying two literary and cultural movements in the United States and United Kingdom during the post-WWII years, a time when the US entered a supposed period of pax Americana and Great Britain faced a culture of austerity. By examining important writers and works during the postwar years in both nations, we will see how younger writers sought more freedoms by responding to social, cultural and political restrictions, creating new voices and characters that sought to articulate the concerns of a new “lost generation,” one more inclined to embrace popular culture than high modernism.
One goal of the course is to gain an appreciation for the ways that the writers in and affiliated with these two loose groups have exerted a lasting influence beyond literature.

Primary readings for this course will consist of two novels (Amis and Kerouac), one play (Osborne), and a host of poems. In short, there will be a little of everything over five weeks including the proverbial kitchen sink. Since this is an online course all students should plan to engage regularly and productively in discussions; write two brief response papers (5-8 pp. each); and to provide an online presentation on a topic relevant to the course material.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will demonstrate their understanding of selected American and British texts of the postwar period as measured by the students’ critical response papers.

2. Students will demonstrate mastery of an assigned subject as measured by the students’ performance on an online presentation.

3. Students will demonstrate that their active and engaged members of the course as measured by the quality and quantity of regular course discussions.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

The student's performance in the following areas will determine the student's grade for this course:

• Assigned Topic Presentation (50% of course grade)

Presentations, which will be posted in the discussion section for all class members to read, must include the following elements:

- overview (approximately five double-spaced pages), which may include biographical information;
- enumerative bibliography (primary and selected critical texts);
- other significant information.

• Weekly Critical Responses (Weeks 2-4) (30% of course grade)

During weeks two, three and four all students must post to the discussion site a thoughtful, critical response to a particular text or group of texts from the respective week's reading selections. Discussions should be about 700-1,000 words (about 3-4 pp.). You may explicate a work or take a slightly less formal critical approach.
• Class Participation (20% of course grade)

Participation grades require completing all assignments, including readings in a timely fashion; productive use of discussions and thoughtful replies to other discussion posts. Post initial responses by Friday of each week; this consideration will allow other students time to read and think about your post.

GRADING

Scale used to compute final letter grades:

A: 90-100
B: 80-89
C: 70-79
D: 60-69
F: 59-Below

• No work submitted late will be accepted. All work not submitted on time will receive a grade of zero (0).

• No extra credit work will be assigned.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

• To fully participate in online courses, you will need to use a current, Flash enabled browser. For PC users, the suggested browser is Internet Explorer 9.0 or 10. For Mac users, the most current update of Firefox is suggested.

• You will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:
  - 512 MB of RAM, 1 GB or more preferred
  - Broadband connection required courses are heavily video intensive
  - Video display capable of high-color 16-bit display 1024 x 768 or higher resolution

• You must have a:
  - sound card, which is usually integrated into your desktop or laptop computer
  - speakers or headphones.

• Depending on your course, you might also need a:
  - webcam
  - microphone
For courses where interactive tools are used, like VoiceThread or ClassLive Pro, headphones are suggested for use with recording and playback. We recommend a webcam with an integrated microphone, such as the Microsoft LifeCam Cinema. All devices should be installed and configured before class begins.

- Both versions of Java (32 bit and 64 bit) must be installed and up to date on your machine. Java can be downloaded at: http://www.java.com/en/download/manual.jsp
- Current anti-virus software must be installed and kept up to date.
- You will need some additional free software for enhanced web browsing. Ensure that you download the free versions of the following software:
  - Adobe Reader
  - Adobe Flash Player
- At a minimum, you must have Microsoft Office 2013, 2010, 2007 or Open Office. Microsoft Office is the standard office productivity software utilized by faculty, students, and staff. Microsoft Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software. Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission, will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

Accessing Help from within Your Course: Click on the 'Tech Support' icon on the upper left side of the screen inside the course. You will then be able to get assistance via online chat, email or by phone by calling the Help Desk number noted below.

Note: Personal computer problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, an Internet cafe, or a bookstore, such as Barnes & Noble, etc.

Policy for Reporting Problems with Pearson LearningStudio

Should students encounter Pearson LearningStudio based problems while submitting assignments/discussions/comments/exams, the following procedure MUST be followed?
1. Students must report the problem to the help desk. You may reach the helpdesk at helpdesk@online.tamuc.org or 1-866-656-5511
2. Students MUST file their problem with the helpdesk and obtain a helpdesk ticket number
3. Once a helpdesk ticket number is in your possession, students should email me to advise me of the problem and to provide me with the helpdesk ticket number
4. At that time, I will call the helpdesk to confirm your problem and follow up with you

PLEASE NOTE: Your personal computer/access problems are not a legitimate excuse for filing a ticket with the Pearson LearningStudio Help Desk. You are strongly encouraged to check for compatibility of your browser BEFORE the course begins and to take the Pearson LearningStudio tutorial offered for students who may require some extra assistance in navigating the Pearson LearningStudio platform. ONLY Pearson LearningStudio based problems are legitimate.

Internet Access
An Internet connection is necessary to participate in discussions and assignments, access readings, transfer course work, and receive feedback from your professor. View the requirements as outlined in Technology Requirements above for more information.

myLeo Support
Your myLeo email address is required to send and receive all student correspondence. Please email helpdesk@tamuc.edu or call us at 903-468-6000 with any questions about setting up your myLeo email account. You may also access information at https://leo.tamuc.edu.

Go to the following link Academic Success Center- focused on providing academic resources to help you achieve academic success.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement
Students may contact me during the week through the virtual office, by email, or by meeting in person in my office. I will likely not reply to emails or to questions posed in the virtual office during the evenings or on weekends. Please be aware that all communication in the virtual office is public, available for the entire class to see. As a result I will not respond to questions about a student’s grades in the virtual office in order to protect the privacy of all students.
Course Specific Procedures

Because your active participation in discussions is expected, attendance (or "logging in" through your computer) is vital for success in this course. Students must complete all assignments on time, stay current with the readings, and engage in discussions each week. No late work will be accepted. Although differing views and debates among class members are encouraged, I expect all students to treat other class members with respect and courtesy. Rudeness and insulting remarks will not be tolerated. Please be considerate of all other members of this class.

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (Student’s Guidebook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct)

Some notes on academic integrity: All students are expected to comply with the university’s policies regarding academic honesty. Academic Honesty Statement: Instructors in the Department of Literature and Languages do not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Instructors uphold and support the highest academic standards, and students are expected to do likewise. Penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion. (Texas A&M University-Commerce Code of Student Conduct 5.b[1,2,3])

Any student who commits any infraction of the academic honesty policy as outlined in University Policy 13.99.99.R0.10 ("Graduate Student Academic Dishonesty") will receive a failing grade for the course. Students should consult the policy and become familiar with the definitions and procedures.
