Class Live Pro:
This course will make use of Class Live Pro. During the first week of class information will be sent out regarding these sessions.

Student Responsibilities:
Learning is every student’s responsibility. My role is to facilitate and support your learning process. To accomplish the learning process you are required to:
1. Check eCollege frequently for announcements and other information.
2. Read assigned material listed on the course schedule. Work additional problems to gain mastery over the material and prepare for exams.
3. Prepare for, and take, scheduled quizzes, homework, and exams.
4. Contact me about any questions or issues when they arise. It’s much easier to help and work out a solution early-on, than later when it may be too late.

Email Policy:
Please include the course number and section number in the subject line of the email message. If you need to contact me, email is the best method as it is the communication of choice by the university.

University Specific Procedures:

ADA Statement
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Student Conduct
All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook).
Integrity is the hallmark of the accounting profession and will be stressed throughout the course. Any type of student breach of ethics, including but not limited to: illegal activity, dishonest conduct, cheating, plagiarism, or collusion, will result in failure of assignment or exam (F) and/or further academic sanction (i.e. failure of course (F), dismissal from class and/or referral to Dean of the College of Business and Technology).

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY
The College of Business and Entrepreneurship at Texas A & M University-Commerce will strive to be recognized as a community with legal, ethical, and moral principles and to practice professionalism in all that we do. Failure to abide by these principles will result in sanctions up to and including dismissal. Five different types of activities that will bring sanctions are as follows:

- Illegal activity – Violation of any local, state, or federal laws that prohibit the offender from performance of his or her duty.
- Dishonest Conduct: Seeking or obtaining unfair advantage by stealing or receiving copies of tests or intentionally preventing others from completing their work. In addition, falsifying of records to enter or complete a program will also be considered dishonest conduct.
- Cheating: The unauthorized use of another’s work and reporting it as your own.
- Plagiarism: Using someone else’s ideas and not giving proper credit.
- Collusion: Acting with others to perpetrate any of the above actions regardless of personal gain.

Dropping or Withdrawing from the course

University policy will be followed in regards to all withdrawals during the semester. Financial Aid – If you are getting financial aid (grants, scholarships, loans, etc.), check with the financial aid office to be sure that dropping or withdrawing from the course does not adversely affect your financial aid. It is the student’s responsibility to assess all consequences of dropping or withdrawing from the course. (http://www.tamuc.edu/home/finAid/default.asp or http://www.tamuc.edu/scholarship/)
