Objectives:
The special education teacher

4 (light emphasis) understands and applies knowledge of procedures for managing the teaching and learning environment, including procedures related to the use of assistive technology,
5 knows how to promote students’ educational performance in all content areas by facilitating their achievement in a variety of settings and situations,
6 understands and applies knowledge of issues and procedures for teaching appropriate student behavior and social skills,
007 understands and applies knowledge of transition issues and procedures across the life span, and
012 knows how to communicate and collaborate effectively in a variety of professional settings.

Assignments/Activities: Interactive Chapter Presentations: Students will work in groups of two or three to present information from the text as well as other topics and resources as assigned in class.

Students will have the opportunity to hear professionals currently working in school and agency settings who are currently actively involved in providing services to students with disabilities.

Students will have the opportunity to view and work in transition resources available online to public school staff and students as well as additional resources. The two projects for this class will utilize these resources. One project will include using information from an assessment to create an IEP and a lesson plan to teach one aspect of an objective. The second project will be determined with the approval of the instructor.
Exams:

Two exams will be required. These exams will have some combination of short answer and essay questions.

Attendance and Participation:

Professional behavior includes being punctual and attending ALL class sessions. Activities and discussions in class will be utilized to promote understanding and application of course content. Excessive absences will result in course failure or in being dropped from the class. Class participation will be worth 45 points and these points cannot be made up if class is missed.
