COURSE INFORMATION

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings:

Course Description:

This course provides an introduction to the criminal justice system. The primary goal of this course is to develop a general understanding of the criminal justice system’s response to crime in society. This course will serve as an overview or survey of the structure of the criminal justice system. It will introduce students to the components of the criminal justice system – police, courts, and corrections. It will prepare students to enter into more advanced courses that address each individual component more in-depth.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. The student will become knowledgeable about the basic elements of Police organization and processes, Court organization and processes, and Punishments.

2. The student will critically analyze the issues pertaining to crime, the media, and culture.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:

Attendance Policy

The course meeting times are T 4:30pm-7:10pm, according to the University schedule.

It is each student’s responsibility to attend the course meetings and complete any exercises, assignments, activities, and exams as outlined in this syllabus.

Examination Policy

There are a total of three exams during this semester. Each exam is worth 1/3 of your grade. The exams will be completed using scantron’s (form no 982-E) and will be multiple choice and true/false format. It is the student’s responsibility to complete these exams by the due dates.

Academic Dishonesty

The University will strictly enforce policies regarding academic dishonesty. If you are found in violation of these policies, you will be reported to both the Department Head, as well as the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. These administrators may impose penalties, separate of my actions.

Penalties for academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to, receiving a failing grade, failing the course, and/or dismissal from the university.

Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to the following acts:

- Cheating - Copying another’s work, using unauthorized Materials during assignments or exams, perpetrating the work of another as your own, etc.

- Plagiarism - Failure to cite the work of another in your own submissions, perpetrating the work of another, etc.

Student Behavior

As stated in the student handbook: “All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment”. (See Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct, for more information.)

Class rules regarding electronic devices: iPods are not allowed during class meetings. Cell phones, pagers, and any other electronic devices should be set to silent or turned off. No texting during class meetings. If you receive an emergency call or text during class and it is of the magnitude that you should take the call or respond, please remove yourself from the class and I will see you the next class meeting date. No cell phones or other electronic devices should be visible or checked during class meetings or examinations. Computers of any sort will not be allowed during class, without expressed permission from the instructor. This means, you take notes the traditional way...with paper and pen/pencil. Please take care of restroom activities prior to class, however if you must go, during class, please make as little disruption as possible. All efforts should be made to keep any and all class interruptions at a minimum, out of respect for your fellow students and myself. At my discretion, you may be asked to leave for any activities deemed distractive to the class.

Make-up Work – Drop Policy

The ONLY make-up work will be during the Final Exam week and IS the Final Exam, which will be for those students who may have missed one of the regular exams. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or withdraw from the course by the appropriate dates, according to the university calendar. There will be no discussion of make-up work during class time. That is what office hours are for!
