The Dyslexia Handbook
http://dyslexiahelp.umich.edu/professionals/dyslexia-school/strategies-for-teachers

Course Description: This course introduces the theoretical foundations of reading and explores how reading, literacy and cognitive processes are developed. An examination of teaching approaches, text genre, writing, listening, speaking, linguistics, cueing systems, letter-sound relationships, phonemic awareness, phonics, word recognition, spelling and comprehension are included. This course includes a 15-hour observation requirement that will acquaint you with public school reading instruction. Prerequisites: Minimum GPA 2.5 and passing scores on THEA – Texas Higher Education Assessment. These requirements align with the NCLB Act of 2001 which states that all teachers will be highly qualified and knowledgeable.

Objectives:
ELA/Reading Objectives: (Supported through TEKS and TexES Standards)
This course will focus on the teacher knowledge and applications as supported by the following Standards:

Standard I. Oral Language: Teachers of young students understand the importance of oral language, know the developmental processes of oral language, and provide a variety of instructional opportunities for young students to develop listening and speaking skills.

Standard II. Phonological and Phonemic Awareness: Teachers of young students understand the components of phonological and phonemic awareness and utilize a variety of approaches to help young students develop this awareness and its relationship to written language.

Standard III. Alphabetic Principle: Teachers of young students understand the importance of the alphabetic principle to reading English, know the elements of the alphabetic principle, and provide instruction that helps students understand that printed words consist of graphic representations that relate to the sounds of spoken language in conventional and intentional ways.

Standard IV. Literacy Development and Practice: Teachers of young students understand that literacy develops over time and progresses from emergent to proficient stages. Teachers use a variety of contexts to support the development of young students’ literacy.

Standard VI. Reading Fluency: Teachers understand the importance of fluency to reading comprehension and provide many opportunities for students to improve reading fluency.

Standard VII. Reading Comprehension: Teachers understand the importance of reading for understanding, know the components of comprehension, and teach young students strategies for improving comprehension.

Standard VIII. Development of Written Communication: Teachers understand that writing to communicate is a developmental process and provide instruction that helps young students develop competence in written communication.

Standard IX. Writing Conventions: Teachers understand how young students use writing conventions and how to help students develop those conventions.

Standard X. Assessment and Instruction of Developing Literacy: Teachers understand the basic principles of assessment and use a variety of literacy assessment practices to plan and implement literacy instruction for young students.

Standard XII. Viewing and Representing: Teachers understand how to interpret, analyze, evaluate, and produce.

Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities Standards:

Standard I. The teacher designs instruction appropriate for all students that reflects an understanding of relevant content and is based on continuous and appropriate assessment.

Dyslexia and other language disorders:

- Pre-service teachers will be knowledgeable of local, state, and national mandates governing dyslexia and other language disorders.
- Pre-service teachers will develop an understanding for “related disorders” like developmental auditory imperceptions, dysgraphia, specific developmental dyslexia, developmental dysgraphia, and developmental spelling disability.
- Students will understand that characteristics of dyslexia are typically exhibited as a deficit in the phonological components of language and that it is often unexpected in relation to other cognitive abilities and educational level. Student Learning Outcomes:

During the course of RDG 350, participants will be able to:

- Select and plan appropriate reading lessons of the essential components for diverse elementary students to include ESL learners.
- Integrate appropriate children’s literature into reading comprehension lessons
- Observe and analyze experienced teachers’ methods for ensuring comprehension and assess student learning.
- Develop a variety of comprehension strategies to use for a variety of reading difficulties.
- Deliver effective oral presentations in a variety of settings.
- Use multiple formats and technologies to communicate ideas effectively in large and small group settings.
- Provide additional artifacts for their professional portfolio which will indicate growth in the five Teaching Proficiencies.
1. Literacy History: (25 points)
Students will write and share their own literacy history. The literacy history is a reflection of your engagement with reading and writing over the course of your academic life. The written literacy history will be presented in a small group. (E/LA Reading Standards: 1, 8) (PPR Standards: 2.1k, 2.2k, 2.3k, 2.3s)

2. Group Lesson: (50 points)
Students will collaboratively work together to create a week’s unit of lesson plans based off of a mentor text. Each person in the group will write a lesson plan that helps to teach one of the essential elements of reading (oral language, phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, reading comprehension, vocabulary, fluency, and writing) that can be covered with the text. (E/LA Reading Standards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8) (PPR Standards: 1.1k, 1.1s, 1.2k, 1.5k, 1.6k, 1.8k, 1.19k, 1.22s, 2.1k, 2.2k, 2.3k,

3. Live Binder: (75 points)
Each student must compile and share a digital notebook on the essential elements of reading, literacy, and dyslexia that would be helpful in the classroom. At the end of the semester, live binders will be presented in class. (E/LA Reading Standards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8) (PPR Standards: 1.16k, 1.16s, 1.17k, 1.17s)

4. Nonfiction Scavenger Hunt (75 points)
Each student will engage in an extensive search on lesson plans featuring nonfiction texts that can be used in the classroom. Students will also write one lesson plan featuring a nonfiction text. (E/LA Reading Standards: 7, 8) (PPR Standards: 1.1k, 1.1s, 1.2k, 1.5k, 1.6k, 1.16k, 1.19k, 1.22s, 2.1k, 2.2k, 2.3k)

5. Literature Circles (50 points)
Students will engage in two literature circles, with a fiction book and a nonfiction book. In preparation for each literature circle, you must complete a literature circle job sheet, as well as write a reflection of the class discussion. Both literature circles will be the week of November 19th. You will select one of the following books in each genre, based on your interest. (E/LA Reading Standards: 7, 8) (PPR Standards: 2.1k, 2.2k, 2.3k, 2.3s)

Literature Theme: Names
My Name is Yoon by Helen Recorvits
My Name is Maria Isabel by Alma Flor Ada
The Name Jar by Yangsook Choi.

(Nonfiction) Theme: Prominent People
So You Want to be President by Judith St. George
Harvesting Hope by Kathleen Krull
Talking About Bessie by Nikki Grimes

6. Tests (300 points) See course schedule. (E/LA Reading Standards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12) (PPR Standards: 1.1k, 1.1s, 1.2k, 1.5k, 1.6k, 1.8k, 1.19k, 2.1k, 2.2k, 2.3k)

7. Observation Hours Log In Sheet
This course includes a 15-hour observation requirement that will acquaint you with public school reading instruction. If this is not complete, you will fail this class. Documentation must be turned in for credit at the end of the semester. (E/LA Reading Standards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12) (PPR Standards: 1.1k, 1.1s, 1.2k, 1.5k, 1.6k, 1.8k, 1.19k, 2.1k, 2.2k, 2.3k)

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement:
E-mail is preferred for outside of class contact. Students are encouraged to inform the instructor of concerns or questions they may have pertaining to the course.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:
1. Attendance is required and is essential to your success in this class. Participants are expected to be on time and to actively and constructively participate. Arriving late and/or leaving early two (2) times will constitute one (1) absence. Your attendance and participation will impact your grade, particularly if you’re on the borderline of a grade. Contact the instructor (via email) if you anticipate an absence or are absent for any reason explaining the situation. This is a common courtesy that is expected by all teachers. It is also part of forming that “community of learners” that we need in the classroom. When you are gone, there is a “hole” at your learning tables, as you are important to your community. If you miss more than 1 class, your grade may be/will be lowered. If you miss more than 3 classes, you may/will fail the course. We are trying to encourage professional development and life-long learning skills. Remember: Class activities and group discussions cannot be made up; therefore, reinforcing the idea that attendance is important! Attendance/Participation, including Professional Attitude: (30 points)

Students will attend classes and participate in class activities. Students should be prompt and ready to contribute. Participation in class discussions, on assigned readings and related material, and contributions to group tasks are expected. Students will receive a grade based on a point system each class period (15 classes) with each class being worth 2 points each, for a total of 30 points. If classes are done via the internet participation grades will be given. This will include, but not limited to, turning in your homework and class assignments on time, being involved with web conversations, full participation in individual and group work, etc.
*Missed Class: In the event of a missed class, you are responsible for obtaining class materials/assignments/notes and being prepared for the next class meeting. I will not bring additional copies of handouts from previous classes; therefore, it is your responsibility to get the necessary materials and assignments from a designated class member. Select a buddy and exchange telephone numbers and e-mail with him/her. By exchanging information, your buddy agrees to collect all handouts for you and to explain any class materials/assignments/notes; however, it is your responsibility to contact your buddy for this information.

2. Professionalism: You will be evaluated on your growth in becoming a professional teacher. You must:

a. Engage in self-evaluation processes: This will be done by using the rubrics provided for class projects.

b. Demonstrate professionalism: This will be done by:
      (a) attending ALL classes,
      (b) paying attention,
      (c) participating actively and constructively,
      (d) being responsible and prepared,
      (e) being an equal partner in group work,
      (f) showing enthusiasm and interest in being a teacher (see Field-Based Teacher Education Program Handbook and Professional Behavioral Standards Evaluation Form),
      (g) following the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior. Code of student conduct can be found under discipline in the student’s guidebook.

Remember: Your grade will be adjusted based upon these criteria (see grading section).

3. Written Assignments: All written assignments are expected to exhibit professional quality. You should demonstrate mastery of organizing, structuring, and editing in your writing. Letters/materials written by you as a professional and sent to parents/administrators MUST BE PERFECT. Begin that practice now! Therefore, if you need extra help, the Writing Center can assist you. See http://web.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/artsSciences/departments/literatureLanguages/

   a. Written Assignments should be:
      * double spaced
      * 1” top and left side margins, 1” bottom and right side margins
b. Academic Integrity/Honest Statement:
This course demands a high level of scholarly behavior and academic honesty on the part of students. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: (1) turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or instructor without obtaining permission from this instructor in advance; (2) turning in another person’s work, in part or in whole, as your own; (3) copying from professional works without citing them; and (4) any form of cheating on exams. Violations of academic integrity/honesty while carrying out academic assignments may, at the discretion of the instructor, receive a zero on the particular work in question, receive an F in the course, or will be brought before a higher level of governance for possible dismissal from the university.

Department Statement:
The Department of Curriculum and Instruction believes that students with dyslexia and other language disorders deserve the right to proper identification and educational intervention. These students should have access to evidenced-based instruction that meets their educational needs. To that end, the Department of Curriculum and Instruction prepares teachers to identify, assess, and provide multisensory instruction for students with these difficulties. Consistent with the Americans with Disabilities Act (1990) and Texas Law (38.003 Screening and Treatment for Dyslexia and Related Disorders, §74.28. Students with Dyslexia and Related Disorders) the Department of Curriculum and Instruction supports the learning and teaching of instruction that assists all students including those with dyslexia and other language disorders.

University Specific Procedures:

1. ADA Statement: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provide comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

   Office of Student Disability Resources and Services
   Texas A&M University-Commerce
   Gee Library 132
   Phone 903-886-5150
   Fax (903) 468-8148
   StudentDisabilityServices@tamuc.edu

2. Student Conduct: All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook). If you display disruptive behavior, you may be asked to leave class and/or drop the class.

3. Financial Aid Support: You will be dropped from class if you have not paid the balance due on their accounts. If you need assistance to pay your balance, please contact the Loan Office (903-886-5051). There are also forgivable loans. You may want to check in to this by contacting the Bursar’s Office for more details.

4. A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

5. MyLeo: As a student, your email account is through MyLeo. Please check the status of your accounts as this is the only way the university has on contacting you and informing you of important information. It is available to you 24/7 at https://leo.tamuc.edu/
6. eCollege: eCollege will be used for this course. It is accessed through your MyLeo account. https://leo.tamuc.edu/
