COURSE STRUCTURE:
This course is entirely Web-based and will consist of a mixture of online group discussions, online lectures and quizzes. I’ve designed the course and thought carefully about the types of assignments and format that would be best suited to the course goals. Nevertheless, the quality of the course will depend very much on the preparation and effort expended by all members of the course. You will find the majority of the information and materials that you will need to complete the course in this syllabus and on the eCollege course management website. Be sure to log onto eCollege and check your university e-mail regularly to see what work you are required to do. We will utilize the “Discussion Board” feature of eCollege. This is the main way in which everyone (regardless of your location, time zone, etc.) can actively participate in this course. I will also facilitate live sessions during the course in order to answer any questions or concerns about the course and discuss some of the material.
PowerPoint slides for the live sessions will be available under the “Doc Sharing” tab. You should submit all of your work in a format that is compatible with Microsoft Word and post it in the appropriate “Dropboxes” when due.

COURSE SCHEDULE:
A specific course schedule is included on page 5 of this syllabus.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

QUIZZES: There will be two quizzes based on the readings that will be completed through eCollege on the dates indicated on the schedule below. During the time frame, once you click on the link in eCollege, you will be given 80 minutes to complete these quizzes on eCollege. There will be no make-up quizzes except for observance of religious holidays, sanctioned University events or documented serious illnesses. It is your responsibility to make alternate arrangements with me at least two weeks prior to the actual date of the religious holiday or University event. There will be no makeup quizzes for any other reason.

DISCUSSION THREADS: Students are expected to participate in online class discussions and to help cultivate an environment that fosters other students’ participation. Participation can take a variety of forms, including posing questions, answering questions, and pointing out disagreements or inconsistencies that come up in the readings or in online class discussions. Your grade for the online discussion threads for each unit will be determined by whether you posted the required number of posts in the right timeframe. Specifically, three per week on weeks 1 – 7 (21 total).

LIVE SESSION PARTICIPATION: For each Unit (2 total), I will facilitate a live session in order to answer any questions or concerns about the course and provide a high-level overview of the Unit. You will be required to actively participate in this live session by responding to questions, asking questions, making comments, and responding to other student's questions and comments. Live sessions will typically last no more than 90 minutes and will be recorded for later viewing. On the days indicated on the schedule below, the live sessions will always begin at 9 PM Central time, so plan now to clear your schedule on those 2 nights! If for some reason you are not able to participate in one or more of the live sessions, please contact me before the live session (if at all possible) to discuss your options.
FINAL PROJECT: The final project will apply your comprehension of the textbooks, the live session lectures, and the online discussions. For more information and the grading rubric, see Appendix A at the end of the syllabus.

COURSE POLICIES

CLASS ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION:
Attendance and participation is critical to gaining the most you possibly can from this course. I suggest that you log onto the eCollege site for this course SEVERAL TIMES a week. This is one way of “attending” the class. As mentioned earlier, I will also facilitate 2 live sessions throughout the course. Not only are you required to participate in the live sessions, but it is a great opportunity to communicate with me and your fellow students and to ask questions and gain clarification on any issues you may have. In order to get to the live session: Click the “Live” tab at the top of the eCollege course screen.

SYLLABUS SUBJECT TO CHANGE STATEMENT:
I anticipate that we will follow the schedule I’ve outlined in this syllabus, but I may make adjustments based on what actually happens in class. I may also change the basis for the course grade (if I need to eliminate an assignment or something of that nature). If I do so, I will so inform you in writing. Remaining in the course after reading this syllabus will signal that you accept the syllabus as written AND the possibility of changes and responsibility for being aware of them.

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:
Academic honesty is the foundation of the university community. Cheating, plagiarism, or other acts of academic dishonesty compromise the integrity of the academic process and community and are subject to disciplinary action. For this class, plagiarism will result in automatic failure (final course grade of F).

SPECIAL NEEDS/REASONABLE ACCOMODATIONS:
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

TENETS OF COMMON BEHAVIOR STATEMENT:
All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment (See current Student Handbook).

INSTRUCTOR EXPECTATIONS:
Students are required to meet the expectations listed below.
- Professional Behavior: It is important that you maintain a professional demeanor at all times, including during “electronic communication”. Texas A&M-Commerce expects this from you, as do current and future employers. Since so much communication in the workplace is “electronic” nowadays, this course will be a good place to practice interacting in a manner appropriate to a professional setting. In particular, take special care when posting and responding to discussion board questions.
- Regular and Timely Attendance and Participation: You are expected to log onto eCollege regularly and attend all live sessions.
- Assignments:
  1. Submitted assignments must be correctly formatted and free of grammatical and stylistic errors. Students in MGT 501 should have at least some skill with software for word processing, spreadsheets,
2. Assignments must be turned in on time. Assignments are due at the date and time listed. While the syllabus designates specific dates for which work is assigned, you do not have to wait until the “assigned” date to start working on it. Start working on each assignment as soon as you possibly can and make sure that you have all assignments submitted by the specified due dates. However, you MUST turn in all written assignments ON TIME. Unexcused late work will receive an automatic 50% penalty if turned in by the next day, and a 0 if turned in more than one day late. Late work is viewed as very unprofessional in the corporate world: “Sorry Mr./Ms. Vice President, I just did not get the work done in time for our meeting today.” That will be the last time your manager gives you the opportunity to “shine” in front of a VP.

3. Assignments must be complete. You must complete and submit all components at the specified due date and time to receive credit for the assignment. Please don’t turn in work that is only “half-finished”.

4. Please submit assignments in a format that is compatible with Microsoft Word.
   - Back-ups Are Required: You are required to back up all your assignments so that they can be submitted to me upon my request. If work is lost due to insufficient back-up, you will not have the opportunity to recreate and submit at a later time.
   - E-mail: Students must routinely check e-mail sent to his or her Texas A&M-Commerce account. This is my primary mechanism for communicating to the class. I check my e-mail several times a day, so this is the best way to reach me.
   - Make-up Assignments Will Only Be Accepted If You Obtain University Approved Documentation for Your Excuse: There are no make-up assignments for poor performance on a previous assignment.

IF YOU EVER FEEL AS IF YOU NEED TO MEET WITH ME OR SPEAK OVER THE PHONE IN ORDER TO CLARIFY ASSIGNMENTS, DISCUSS CONCERNS ABOUT THE CLASS, DISCUSS TOPICS FROM THE CLASS, ETC., E-MAIL ME IN ORDER TO SET UP AN APPOINTMENT.

FINALLY: This syllabus is a contract between you and me. If you disagree with the policies set forth in this syllabus, you have the right to withdraw within the timeframe indicated in the University calendar. By staying enrolled in this class, you agree to adhere to all policies stated in this syllabus.

Final Project

Introduction and motivation

(Why are we doing this?)

Most of you either currently work for a company and/or have worked for a company in which you have noticed problems, challenges, and issues arise in how the business is run. For this final exam you'll be asking yourself: Why would a manager even care about the information that was presented in the course? How are you really helping them? What would they value about what you learned?

You'll be doing some work to answer these questions in relation to a company you currently work for (or have worked for), and then preparing 15 points to demonstrate that you have gained:

1) an appreciation for managements’ problems/challenges/issues and the contexts in which they arise;

2) a clear understanding of how the information in this course solves some of those problems/challenges/issues;

3) evidence that management values (or would value) the information presented; and

4) a plan for how you can improve the firm as a result of this information.

Directions

(Okay, so what do I have to do and how do I do it?)

Step 1: Review the company you work for (or have worked for) and what you have learned in the course

You likely already work for a company and may even be a manager in that company. Think about the problems, challenges, and issues that exist in that company. Consider the online lectures and discussions. Also have a look at the information presented in the textbook in relation to the problems, challenges, and issues you identify. After you identify specific problems, challenges, and issues, then identify relevant outside sources only from the journal list provided on eCollege.

Step 2: Plan your work

The broad goal of this assignment is to put yourself in the shoes of management from the company you work for (or have worked for) and identifying how the information you have learned in the course could help to increase the effectiveness of management in the firm and then create a 15 point document that clearly demonstrates what you have learned that would be of use to management, providing evidence from two different OUTSIDE sources per point (30 total references) ONLY from the journal list provided on eCollege. It might also help at this point to review how you’re going to be assessed (see below).

Step 3: Complete the assignment

The deliverable for completing the assignment will be a document that contains 15 points. These 15 points should be detailed enough that management could actually use the feedback by implement clear and concrete plans for change and need to each be supported by two different outside sources ONLY from the journal list provided on eCollege for a total of 30 references (include reference section at the end).
Final Project Assessment Form

Student Name:

1) How well does the paper address the objective of the assignment? (60%):

Please note that unless two unique outside sources ONLY from the journal list on eCollege are used to support each point (30 total references), then that point will not count. For each point that does not count, an automatic 3% will be deleted from your total grade above.
