Student Learning Outcomes
In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.
1. Students will be able to engage with peers in a way that demonstrates their understanding of relevant course theories and concepts.
2. Students will demonstrate the ability to synthesize varied sources of information, acknowledge the contributions/insights of others, and make independent judgments.
3. Students will understand and practice academic honesty

Core Objectives (Language, Philosophy & Culture):

Critical Thinking Skills: Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.

Critical Thinking Skills: Students will demonstrate the ability to synthesize varied sources of information, acknowledge the contributions/insights of others, and make independent judgments.

Communication Skills: In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.

Social Responsibility: Students will understand and practice academic honesty.

Local learning outcomes:

Communications: In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.

This objective will be assessed by the instructor using a rubric upon each student's successful completion of at least four major writing assignments.

Teamwork: Students will be able to engage with peers in a way that demonstrates their understanding of relevant course theories and concepts.

This objective will be assessed by an evaluation of at least one essay or researched presentation from each student. Students will be responsible for reading and giving productive feedback to peers based on guidelines and/or a rubric provided by the instructor. Students revise work based on feedback received in peer review from one or more peers.

Critical Thinking: Students will demonstrate the ability to synthesize varied sources of information, acknowledge the contributions/insights of others, and make independent judgments.

This objective will be assessed by an evaluation of at least one essay, critical response paper, or researched presentation from each student.

Social Responsibility: Students will describe the relationships of individuals to their communities.

This objective will be assessed by an evaluation of at least one essay by each student. The essays will focus on specific readings and issues relevant to the course.

Personal Responsibility: Students will understand and practice academic honesty.

Following a unit that looks at the cultural, legal, and academic contexts surrounding plagiarism, students will take a quiz that determines if students have understood the content of the unit and why plagiarism is taken so seriously in academic contexts.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments:
Please note that these assignments are subject to change as I see fit to better meet the needs of you the learner. In this event I will notify you of the change in enough time that you can successfully complete the assignment.

- Essays will be graded per a rubric and handed back to you through the blackboard with comments attached. If I see the need for revision it will be noted there on your paper and include a deadline for the revisions. This is an English class, therefore it includes a great deal of writing and to be a successful writer, you must write often. All essays will be written in 12 point font, times new roman and use MLA format. Essay length will generally be 2 pages long for the Writing Assignments 1-4. Other assignments will have specific instructions as well.
- Reading of the textbook is essential to the writing and learning in this class. We will spend a vast amount of time reading the text as well as supplemental reading to enhance the content we are studying. My goal is to help you become a critical thinker and learner.
- Our class is a face to face class; therefore we will not have all of our content online through ecollege. However, there will be aspects of this class that are enhanced by the online component, so please check there daily and be prepared to print off needed documents for class assignments.
- We will do a lot of collaborative learning this semester. There are many reasons for this but first and foremost I believe that we all should strive to be lifelong learners and that by using collaborative learning students learn from one another.

Major Writing Assignments (WAs):
There will be 3 writing assignments this semester. I will discuss the writing prompts as we get deeper into the reading of our text. We will discuss this in a timely manner and as a class so that you are aware of the expectations.

Reading Responses:
Reading Response Journals will be used as a way for me to see what you have learned by reading your assigned Chapters. I will use a handout called Questions Using the Elements of Thought, and you will be required to submit these to me. I will determine how and when these are submitted.

Photo essay- Choose a key theme from the course (discourse community, literacy sponsor, literacy, Burkean Parlor, CARS model, dialogue, rhetorical terms, etc.) and create a photo essay illustrating your understanding of these themes. This essay should be comprised almost entirely of images you create and collect. You will then write one paragraph about each image explaining why that image illustrates the concept you chose. The essay should be more than a collection of images. Those images should help tell a story about the concept. Think about what stories involve: an argument, a beginning, a middle, an arc, and an end. In other words, you are using your images—a kind of rhetoric—to tell a story about a concept.

In addition to submitting this essay to your instructor, you should also send a copy of this assignment to writingprogramTAMUC@gmail.com upon completion.

Grading:
Rubric for Writing Assignments:
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Criteria</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>90-100</td>
<td>The essay provides a well-organized response to the topic and maintains a central focus. The ideas are expressed in appropriate language. A sense of pattern of development is present from beginning to end. The writer supports assertions with explanation or illustration, and the vocabulary is well suited to an academic paper. Sentences and phrasings within sentences reflect a command of standard written English, including what constitutes a complete sentence. Grammar, punctuation, and spelling are almost always correct.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80-89</td>
<td>The essay provides an organized response to the topic. The ideas are expressed in clear language most of the time. The writer develops ideas and generally signals relationships within and between the paragraphs. The writer uses vocabulary that is appropriate for the essay topic and avoids oversimplifications or distortions. Sentences generally are complete and also grammatically correct, although some grammatical errors may be present when sentence structure is particularly complex. With few exceptions, punctuation, and spelling are correct.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>70-79</td>
<td>The essay shows a basic understanding of the demands of essay organization, although there might be occasional digressions. The development of ideas is sometimes incomplete or superficial, but basic logical structure can be discerned. Vocabulary generally is appropriate for the essay topic but at times is oversimplified. Sentences reflect a sufficient command of standard written English to ensure reasonable clarity of expression. Sentence fragments, fusions, and comma splices may be present. Grammar is usually, although not always, correct. Common words are spelled correctly but more difficult words may be misspelled.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60-69</td>
<td>The essay provides a response to the topic but generally has no overall pattern of organization OR begins with a response to the topic but does not develop the response. Some paragraphs have adequate structure, but ideas are often undeveloped or are repeated and/or seem to be presented randomly. The writer generally does not signal relationships within and between paragraphs. The writer uses informal language frequently and writes in a conversational style when appropriate academic prose is needed. Vocabulary seems limited and words may be misused. Sentences are often simplistic and lacking in variety. Sentence phrasing obscures rather than enhances clarity of expression. The essay has recurrent grammatical problems or has occasional problems only because of the narrow range of sentence and language variety. Fragments, fusions, and comma splices are common. Punctuation, and spelling errors occur often.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Below 50</td>
<td>The essay suffers from general incoherence and has no discernible pattern of organization. It displays a high frequency of error in the regular features of standard written English. Lapses in punctuation, spelling, and grammar often frustrate the reader. Or, the essay is so brief that any reasonably accurate judgment of the writer’s competence is impossible.</td>

Technology Requirements

- To fully participate in online courses, you will need to use a current, Flash enabled browser. For PC users, the suggested browser is Internet Explorer 9.0 or 10. For Mac users, the most current update of Firefox is suggested.

- You will need regular access to a computer with a broadband Internet connection. The minimum computer requirements are:
  - 512 MB of RAM, 1 GB or more preferred
  - Broadband connection required courses are heavily video intensive
  - Video display capable of high-color 16-bit display 1024 x 768 or higher resolution

- You must have:
  - Sound card, which is usually integrated into your desktop or laptop computer
  - Speakers or headphones.

- Depending on your course, you might also need:
  - Webcam
  - Microphone

For courses where interactive tools are used, like VoiceThread or ClassLive Pro, headphones are suggested for use with recording and playback. We recommend a webcam with an integrated microphone, such as the Microsoft LifeCam Cinema. All devices should be installed and configured before class begins.
• Both versions of Java (32 bit and 64 bit) must be installed and up to date on your machine. Java can be downloaded at: http://www.java.com/en/download/manual.jsp

• Current anti-virus software must be installed and kept up to date.

• You will need some additional free software for enhanced web browsing. Ensure that you download the free versions of the following software:
  o Adobe Reader
  o Adobe Flash Player

• At a minimum, you must have Microsoft Office 2013, 2010, 2007 or Open Office. Microsoft Office is the standard office productivity software utilized by faculty, students, and staff. Microsoft Word is the standard word processing software, Microsoft Excel is the standard spreadsheet software, and Microsoft PowerPoint is the standard presentation software. Copying and pasting, along with attaching/uploading documents for assignment submission, will also be required. If you do not have Microsoft Office, you can check with the bookstore to see if they have any student copies.

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

Pearson LearningStudio (eCollege) Access and Log in Information

Some of this course will be facilitated using Pearson LearningStudio, the learning management system used by Texas A&M University-Commerce. To get started with the course, go to: http://www.tamuc.edu/myleo.aspx.

You will need your CWID and password to log in to the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact Technology Services at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu. It is strongly recommended that you perform a “Browser Test” prior to the start of your course. To launch a browser test, login to Pearson LearningStudio, click on the ‘myCourses’ tab, and then select the “Browser Test” link under Support Services.

Pearson LearningStudio Student Technical Support

Texas A&M University-Commerce provides students technical support in the use of Pearson LearningStudio.
Technical assistance is available 24 hours a day/ 7 days a week.

If at any time you experience technical problems (e.g., you can't log in to the course, you can't see certain material, etc.) please contact the Pearson LearningStudio Help Desk, available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The student help desk may be reached by the following means 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

- Chat Support: Click on 'Live Support' on the tool bar within your course to chat with a Pearson LearningStudio Representative.

- Phone: 1-866-656-5511 (Toll Free) to speak with Pearson LearningStudio Technical Support Representative.

Accessing Help from within Your Course: Click on the ‘Tech Support’ icon on the upper left side of the screen inside the course. You will then be able to get assistance via online chat, email or by phone by calling the Help Desk number noted below.

Note: Personal computer problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, an Internet cafe, or a bookstore, such as Barnes & Noble, etc.

Policy for Reporting Problems with Pearson LearningStudio

Should students encounter Pearson LearningStudio based problems while submitting assignments/discussions/comments/exams, the following procedure MUST be followed?

1. Students must report the problem to the help desk. You may reach the helpdesk at helpdesk@online.tamuc.org or 1-866-656-5511
2. Students MUST file their problem with the helpdesk and obtain a helpdesk ticket number
3. Once a helpdesk ticket number is in your possession, students should email me to advise me of the problem and to provide me with the helpdesk ticket number
4. At that time, I will call the helpdesk to confirm your problem and follow up with you.

PLEASE NOTE: Your personal computer/access problems are not a legitimate excuse for filing a ticket with the Pearson LearningStudio Help Desk. You are strongly encouraged to check for compatibility of your browser BEFORE the course begins and to take the Pearson LearningStudio tutorial offered for students who may require some extra assistance in navigating the Pearson LearningStudio platform. ONLY Pearson LearningStudio based problems are legitimate.

Internet Access
An Internet connection is necessary to participate in discussions and assignments, access readings, transfer course work, and receive feedback from your professor. View the requirements as outlined in Technology Requirements above for more information.

myLeo Support
Your myLeo email address is required to send and receive all student correspondence. Please email helpdesk@tamuc.edu or call us at 903-468-6000 with any questions about setting up your myLeo email account. You may also access information at https://leo.tamuc.edu.

Course Specific Procedures

Student Responsibilities/Expectations:
Attendance will be taken daily. If you come to class late, it is YOUR responsibility to make sure that the instructor counts you in attendance that day. Participation in class will also be included in your grade, so become involved. We will do many cooperative learning assignments and in class projects that involve all students involvement to be a success. Each day you come to class you MUST bring your textbook even if we don’t need it that day, something to write with and paper to write on. Many times we begin writing and reading assignments at the start of class; if you’re late you will not be able to make up those assignments. This is an English composition course; therefore we will be reading the text and writing in class. You will not be successful in this class without the appropriate materials.

Please don’t engage in casual conversations during our lecture, discussion and group times or while we’re working on other assignments. I reserve the right to act as necessary to maintain a productive class environment, including asking disruptive students to leave, and in extreme circumstances, dropping chronic disruptors from my course. I will not tolerate uncivil behavior toward other class members during class discussions. Uncivil behavior includes interrupting others while they have the floor, rude responses to the ideas expressed by others, and the use of racial, ethnic, sexual, gender, or religious slurs. If you have an issue, please see me before or after class. I have an open door policy and am confident that we can solve any issue that may arise.

I will not allow any cell phones on during class, which includes texting as well. If you are expecting an emergency call during class time, please let me know before class. There may be some activities that involve cell phone usage for assignments. If you have an issue, please see me before or after class. I have an open door policy and am confident that we can solve any issue that may arise.

Attendance Policy

- A student that misses up to 70% of the class (7 absences) will fail the course if the absences are excused. Please see attendance policy for more details.
- For classes that meet twice/week, students may miss up to four times without penalty. After the fifth absence, the student’s final grade will drop by one letter. After the seventh absence, the student cannot pass the course.
- For classes that meet three times/ week, students may miss up to six times without penalty. After the seventh absence, the student’s final grade will drop by one letter. After the ninth absence, the student cannot pass the course.
- There is no such thing as “partial attendance”—students are either present for the entire course or they are absent.
- The university has no policy for “excused absences” except for university sanctioned events, so please save your absences for illness, court appearances, child care arrangements, and other situations when you must miss class.

University Specific Procedures

ADA Statement
Students with Disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Student Conduct
All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook). Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.
