Course Description:

U.S. History from 1865 is a broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America from 1865. Pre/co-requisite Eng. 1301 or 1302.

As a result of the quantity of information that must be examined, this course, essentially, is not a comprehensive assessment of that history. Still, the developments discussed in History 1302 ought to serve as a prologue to many tribulations that Americans continue to encounter today, and as such, has relevance for students regardless of their personal interests in the past.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose, and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of societal and/or civic issues.
4. EXTRA CREDIT 25 POINTS GIVEN IF ON TIME - Students will be able to understand their role in their own education – Student Responsibility Sheet will be turned in online in Dropbox labeled SRS by Friday September 4, 2015. (Find the document in eCollege under the Document Sharing Tab).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

Our Week will be from Sunday to Saturday. B & C Activities will be due at the end of the week, Saturday of the due date week by 11:59pm. Activity A = D & DQ must be posted by Wednesday of the due date week by 11:59pm; R must be posted by Saturday of the due date week by 11:59pm.

A. Discussion, Discussion Questions, Responses: 660 Points (12 @ 55 pts).

Discussions 12 @ 15 pts., Discussion Questions 12 @ 25 pts., Responses 12 @ 15pts

1. Discussions & Responses: You are expected to participate in the discussion section for each week in two ways. 1) You will directly address the topics I have established by writing a paragraph of at least 100 words 2) You will respond to the Discussion ? of a fellow student, directly replying to them answering the question by writing a paragraph of at least 100 words. Make sure your discussions relate to the topics given on your syllabus and that you consider what it means then and now. You should make the effort to respond to your classmates' comments in a substantive way. Unfortunately, this is the only way I can objectively measure the level of your engagement in an online class. Therefore, err on the side of caution and try to respond to several Discussion Questions per topic thread. To receive full participation credit students must log in consistently throughout the semester, participate on topics several times during each week’s discussions by providing substantive comments, and stay current with all readings and assignments. Keep in mind this is discussions between the students in the class, I may or may not add anything to the discussion. Late work will not be accepted.

2. Discussion ?'s: Each student is required to attach a Good Discussion Question to their Discussion Post. A good discussion question will lead to higher order thinking (analysis, synthesis, comparison, evaluation) about the work and the issues it raises. Good discussion questions will do more than recall facts they are open-ended, leading to a variety of topics. Discussion questions rely on a careful reading of the text and often cite particular scenes, passages, happenings, connections, etc. Good discussion questions make connections between the text and the world at large, other works, and the themes and issues of the course. Late work will not be accepted.

B. History Project: 500 Points (5 @ 100 pts).

Each student will participate/engage in history through a series of mini papers due throughout the semester. The student will be given a person in Week 2 assigned by the instructor. All details such as position, class, gender, race, and religion will be given as well as what crime your person will be accused of in order for the student to complete the History Project created from http://MrRoughton.com. Details on the History Project is posted in DocSharing. Look on your Course Calendar for due dates. Late work will not be accepted.

C. Counter Culture/Activist Presentation: 100 Points (1 @ 140 pts).

Each student will create a powerpoint, prezi, etc. presentation to upload to eCollege Dropbox. This presentation will be researched with academic sources over a particular counter culture movement or activist in America. Below are lists of these movements to choose from. Information over Presentation is in DocSharing.

1. Ida B. Wells

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

There is no reason for plagiarism in this class. Each student needs to know that if caught plagiarizing there are severe consequences in the class (such as result of an F for the course) and through the university.

Plagiarism and Academic Honesty: Plagiarism: “1. The action or practice of plagiarizing; the wrongful publication or purloining, and publication as one’s own of the ideas, or expression of the ideas (literary, artistic, musical, mechanical, etc.) of another.” Oxford English Dictionary.

Students should know that plagiarism occurs any time another’s ideas or words are used without attribution. Direct quotations must be cited and set off from other text by quotation marks (“”); paraphrasing of another’s ideas must also be cited. Copying from other students is also plagiarism. Any offense wholly or partially touching the above definition constitutes plagiarism for the purposes of this policy. ([See Texas A&M-Commerce Code of Student Conduct 5.b [1,2,3]].)

Writing Center:  By working with students one-on-one or in small groups, tutors can help writers analyze the rhetorical demands of the writing task, generate and focus ideas at the prewriting stage, ensure they are addressing the writing assignment directly and effectively, elaborate and rework a rough draft after hearing the writer read the draft aloud, discover their strengths and weaknesses in a particular rhetorical context, strengthen arguments, spot weak rhetorical choices and make more effective choices, and address formatting or other surface-level concerns. The Writing Center in Hall of Languages 103 is open Monday-Thursday, 9am-4pm, Thursday 9am-1pm. Additional hours are available in the evening and on weekends at Gee Library: Sunday-Thursday 6pm-9pm. Also the Writing Center offers the Online Writing Lab, which can be accessed by clicking the Online Writing Lab menu item to the left.

University Specific Procedures:

ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Office of Student Disability Resources and Services
Texas A&M University-Commerce
Gee Library 132
Phone (903) 886-5150 or (903) 886-5835
Fax (903) 468-8148
StudentDisabilityServices@tamuc.edu

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.
