COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will build upon previous experience with creative methodologies and process utilizing both team and individual problem solving. This course will address research, targeting and positioning, creative process, creative problem solving as well as formal and aesthetic design issues. Thumbnail ideation, creative sessions, critiques, and computer generated solutions will be explored through weekly assignments.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Continue development of understanding marketing and positioning
- Gain further understanding of creative methodologies through experimentation
- Understand the function and process of working in a creative team
- Navigate real world issues in the design industry and develop skills to be successful

COURSE FORMAT

This class will be a combination of assignments worked on outside of class and in-class which will be critiqued by peers as well as the instructor. A commitment to many hours of homework is required to achieve the goals of this class and its completion. The class will be broken into teams for out of class critiques and discussions throughout the week. The final is a presentation of your work to your peers and instructor. You will explain the pieces in detail giving insight to the decisions you made for the client.

GRADING

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

A  work well above the general class level, evidence of participation in related activities outside of the classroom, thoughtful participation in classroom discussion and critique
B  work above the general class level, participation in classroom discussion and critique
C  average work, minimal requirements met
D  work below class average, lack of participation and/or poor attendance
F  inferior work, work not turned in, failure to attend class

GRADES WILL BE BASED ON:

- 15% Logo project
- 25% Packaging project
- 25% Poster Project
- 25% Book Cover
- 10% Participation

A lack of participation in weekly critiques can negatively affect your grade.

ATTENDANCE

You may be absent from class twice. On your first absence you will receive an e-mail warning, which is copied to Lee Whitmarsh. On your second absence you will receive an e-mail and you will contacted by Lee Whitmarsh. On your third absence you will receive an “F” in the class.

Two tardies of 20 minutes or more equals an absence. A tardy of 60 minutes equals an absence. Two late returns from break of more than 10 minutes equals one absence. If a student is OVER 10 MINUTES late for the final, a full grade will be deducted from his or her final grade. If a student does not show up for the final they automatically fail the class.

There is no distinction between excused and unexcused absences.

If you are late to class, I ask that you sit outside the class in plain sight without distracting the class. I will let you in at the next available moment that will not disrupt the class.
WHAT TO BRING TO CLASS

Paper, Pencils, 2 1/2” or 3” binder for research and process, paper or notebook to take notes,
Black mat board is needed 15”x20”

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. “Academic dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one’s own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material.

STATEMENT ON ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ADA ELIGIBLE STUDENTS

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

STATEMENT ON STUDENT BEHAVIOR

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenet of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Student’s Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct)

All students must show respect toward the instructor and the instructor’s syllabus, presentations, assignments, and point of view. Students should respect each others’ differences. If the instructor determines that a student is not being respectful towards other students or the instructor, it is the instructor’s prerogative to ask the student to leave, to refer the student to the department head, and to consider referring the student to the Dean of Students who may consider requiring the student to drop the course. Please refer to pages 42 – 46 of the Texas A&M University-commerce Student guidebook’s Codes of Conduct for details.

NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.
