Exams: 45% of overall grade. There are 3 exams. Each exam is worth 15%.

The exams will be timed and can only be accessed once; therefore, once you begin, you may not stop and come back to it later. A missed exam equals a missed exam grade regardless of the reason unless you contact me immediately. If, for any reason, you miss a scheduled exam, you may take a make-up exam in my office within one week of the missed exam. To clarify, this also means that I will not reset any exams. You need to make sure that you have a secure connection upon beginning the exam. If you lose connection, then you will need to contact me immediately to schedule a time to take the exam in my office. I will warn you that the make-up exam is purposely more difficult than the scheduled exam because it means you have had more time to prepare. You will need to e-mail me (always remember to put MGT 305 in the subject line) to set up a day and time that works for both of us.

Term Paper: 10% of overall grade. The topic of this paper is “organizational culture”. The paper should be a full 5-page paper.

Instructions for the term paper can by found by clicking on COURSE MATERIALS and TERM PAPER. Student papers will be submitted to the Term Papers Drop Box. Please do not e-mail these papers to me. If you can see it in your drop box, then I can also see it. Any papers that are received past noon will automatically drop one letter grade. For each day thereafter the grade drops another letter grade. (In other words, just get your paper in on time or feel free to submit it as early as you’d like. Procrastination is not recommended!)
NOTE  All papers will automatically be submitted to Turnitin.com. Papers that receive higher than 25% on the similarity index will be reviewed for plagiarism. Using your own words and as few quotations as possible will help keep your score below 25%. Also, make sure you give credit to the authors by using the proper citations.

Ethics Assignment: 10% of overall grade.

You will find the assignment under COURSE MATERIALS and then Ethics Assignment. Assignments should be uploaded to the appropriate Drop Box. Late Assignments ARE NOT accepted. A late submission equals a zero!

Self-Assessments: 20% of overall grade. There are 4 self-assessment sections. Each section is worth 5%.

Self Assessment 1 (I. What About Me?):
Self Assessment 2 (II. Working With Others):
Self Assessment 3 (III. Life in Organizations):
Self Assessment 4 (IV. New Assessments):

If you’ve bought the Student Value Edition of the text, it comes with access to the MyManagementLab. Click on the link that says Student Study Tools. Under that link you will see a link to the Self-Assessment Library (SAL). You will need to complete all of the self-assessments and save your scores to a flash drive each time. If you did not buy the specified Student Value Edition of the textbook, you may purchase online access to the self-assessments from the following website for $40: http://www.prenhall.com/sal.

(Also, if you have trouble accessing the self-assessments through MyManagementLab, you may go directly to the www.prenhall.com/sal website and sign in there to access the self-assessments.)

For each of the 4 Self-Assessment sections, you will write a full 1-page paper (single-spaced; Times New Roman; 12 pt. font; 1” margins), attach your self-assessment scores for that section, and upload it to the Journal section that you create for SA1, SA2, SA3, and SA4. See Course Home and Self-Assessments for a more detailed explanation of these assignments. You may complete & upload these assignments early and I highly recommend doing so.

Comment on Academic Honesty: There seems to be a belief among many that anything found on the Internet is free to use as one wishes. The "cut and paste" option also makes it quite tempting. However, information on the web must be properly cited just as you would any "hard copy" periodicals. Keep the following in mind:

1. It is generally not advisable to quote anything verbatim in a paper unless there is an overriding reason to do so, such as the use of a particular phrase or sentence that illustrates a point well and should not be changed. When you do so, you must provide place the statement in quotes at the end of the quote. Not placing the statement in quotes implies that the wording is your own.
2. Changing a few words in a sentence (for example, "large" to "big") may alleviate the need for quotes (depending on how much you change), but it is not the best way to go. If you are not going to provide a direct quote, then the material should be stated in your own terms. Changing a couple of words implies laziness.
3. Every idea you get from another source must be cited. Placing 100 citations in a paper does not imply that the work is not original, but that you did a proper job of giving credit where it was due. 4. The real danger in a "cut and paste" approach to report writing is that you end up including a lot of information that is related to the topic about which you are writing, but does not really address what you are trying to say. Putting things in your own words allows you to focus your comments more effectively. Any deviation from the guidelines concerning quotes and citations constitutes plagiarism, as it suggests that you are trying to submit someone else's work and creativity as your own. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Extra Credit: I DO NOT ASSIGN EXTRA CREDIT WORK. PLEASE DO NOT ASK.

First time eCollege users: eCollege is user-friendly, but I do recommend that you complete the tutorial that is on the same page where you enter the course (the welcome page). For any technical questions you may contact the eCollege Help Desk at 1-866-656-5511 or by e-mail at helpdesk@online.tamuc.org.
