*All reading assignments should be completed within the week in which the corresponding lecture takes place. All topics in the readings will not necessarily be covered in lecture, but you may find question from the reading on tests. Please read.

Students with Disabilities:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Academic Honesty: All students are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all academic work. Conduct that violates the accepted standards of academic honesty (as described in the Student's Guidebook), which includes cheating and plagiarism, will result in a grade of F in the course.

Plagiarism is a criminal activity. You must cite all sources of information. Copying of material, whether, whether parts of sentences, whole sentences, paragraphs, or entire articles, will result in a grade of F for the class and can result in further disciplinary action.
