Program Description:

The Bachelor of Applied Science in Organizational Leadership prepares innovative leaders for employment in an increasingly diverse technological and global society. The degree develops practical workplace competencies that meet current and future challenges through a real world coursework utilizing personalized academic mentoring and tutoring. The coursework focuses on team building, ethical decision making, enhanced communication skills, critical thinking, and people skills. Graduates of this program pursue careers in education, government, nonprofit, and business organizations.

Course Description: This course offers in-depth analysis of prevalent issues related to organizational change.

Pretest: The purpose of the pretest is to provide a baseline understanding of your knowledge of this competency. The pretest is required before students begin studying course materials. The Pretest for this course assesses your current knowledge of the learning outcomes for this course.

Course Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Recognize and describe organizational change in varied organizations-profit & non-profit.
2. Explain and demonstrate behaviors/characteristics to establish credibility and legitimacy as a change agent.
3. Recognize the current dynamic social, political, and cultural environment for change and its potential impact on contemporary organizations.
4. Explain the role of conflict in organizational change and how to guide conflict to serve the interests of the learning organization.
5. Identify fundamental theories of leadership, change and explain their application.

Posttest and Culminating Project

The Posttest and Culminating Project for this course assess your culminating knowledge of the learning outcomes for this course.

A score of 80 percent or higher on both the Posttest and Culminating Project is required to demonstrate competency. If you score less than 80 percent on the Posttest and/or Culminating Project you will have an opportunity to review the course materials and re-take the Posttest and/or resubmit the Culminating Project. You may take the Posttest assessment and submit the Culminating Project up to three times during the seven-week term. If you have not passed the competency in three attempts, you will work with an Academic Coach to determine another method of fulfilling the program requirements in this subject.

Students who are unable to successfully complete all competencies mapped to a course, upon approval of their instructor have the option to receive a mark of "X" (incomplete) in the course in which they are maintaining satisfactory progress toward competency completion. You must re-register for the course again in the subsequent term. You understand that the grade of X will remain on your transcript indefinitely. However, failure to re-register for the course during the next term will result in a grade of F being posted for your incomplete competency course.

In order to demonstrate competency you must achieve 80% or higher for both the Posttest and Culminating Project.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Email is the best way to communicate as it is checked throughout the day. However, in order to avoid duplication of questions and answers I prefer that you post all class related questions in the Virtual Office course tab. It is likely that your peers will have the same question. Emails of a personal nature should be sent to my email address via eCollege.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures:

A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See 'Code of Student Conduct' from Student Guide Handbook)

Academic Integrity:

Students attending Texas A&M University-Commerce are responsible for adhering to standards of academic integrity. Academic integrity is the pursuit of scholarly activity in an open, honest and responsible manner. Academic integrity is a basic guiding principle for all academic activity at Texas A&M University-Commerce and students are expected to act in accordance with this principle. Failing to adhere to academic integrity constitutes academic dishonesty.

Academic Dishonesty:

Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty. "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material. Violation of these academic standards may result in removal or failure. Please see the TAMUC Catalog.

Cheating is defined as:

- Copying another's test or assignment
- Communication with another during an exam or assignment (i.e. written, oral or otherwise)
- Giving or seeking aid from another when not permitted by the instructor
- Possessing or using unauthorized materials during the test
- Buying, using, stealing, transporting, or soliciting a test, draft of a test, or answer key

Plagiarism is defined as:

- Using someone else's work in your assignment without appropriate acknowledgement
- Making slight variations in the language and then failing to give credit to the source

Collusion is defined as:

Collaborating with another, without authorization, when preparing an assignment

If you have any questions regarding academic dishonesty, ask. Otherwise, I will assume that you have full knowledge of the academic dishonesty policy and agree to the conditions as set forth in this syllabus.

Plagiarism Policy:

Plagiarism is taking credit for someone else's words, ideas or images and then submitting that work for credit as if it were one's own without appropriate acknowledgement of the author. Any student suspected of cheating, submitting the work of another student, or submitting the work of another party and failing to cite his/her sources will be investigated fully, reported to college officials, and disciplined according to college guidelines.

Dropping the Class

If you need to adjust your schedule by dropping this course, please contact your Academic Coach. Please be aware that dropping your course may impact your financial aid, veterans and military benefits, three part, 45-hour, and 30-hour rules. It is the student's responsibility to drop the course. If you fail to officially drop the class, a failing grade will be assigned.

Incompletes

Students who are unable to successfully complete all competencies mapped to a course, upon approval of their instructor have the option to receive a mark of "X" (incomplete) in the course in which they are maintaining satisfactory progress toward competency completion. You must re-register for the course again in the subsequent term. You understand that the grade of X will remain on your transcript indefinitely. However, failure to re-register for the course during the next term will result in a grade of F being posted for your incomplete competency course.

Student Withdrawal

A student wishing to withdraw from all courses before the end of a term for which he/she is registered must clear his or her record by filing an application for voluntary withdrawal. Please contact your Academic Coach.

This action must be taken by the date stated in the Academic Calendar as the last day to drop a class or withdraw. Any student who withdraws from the university is subject to the conditions outlined in the section regarding Scholastic Probation or Suspension in the university catalog. It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from classes if he or she does not plan to attend during the semester in he/she has enrolled. A student has one year from the first day of a semester to appeal a withdrawal refund. Courses withdrawn are counted as attempted hours and count towards the three-peat, 45-hour and 30-hour rules and financial aid and veterans and military benefits.
