Journal (lined and bound—composition or spiral notebook)

Package of 50 Notecards (3X5, lined)

Course Description

English 1301 - (formerly ENG 101) - Introduces students to writing as an extended, complex, recursive process and prepares students for English 1302, which more rigorously examines the forms and structures of argument and means to approaching multiple audiences. In 1301 students will write weekly, and will work on essay organization and development. The course will emphasize close reading, summarizing, and analysis of expository texts, including student writing.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to use rhetorical terminology to describe writing.
2. Students will be able to identify instances of plagiarism and explain why it is a serious offense in academic writing.
3. Students will be able to interpret texts written for academic audiences.
4. Students will be able to use academic writing conventions in their own writing.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

Major Writing Assignments (WAs)

Writing Assignment 1

(10 pts.) Consider this essay as a look at your own personal writing history. This essay is an assessment of your own writing based on our readings. You may want to include your early education, your family influences, and other literacy sponsors. Have the readings changed how you see this history? If you have a new way of “seeing” your history, how did it change? Have you developed a new approach for your writing and research? This assignment will follow the MLA format (Times New Roman 12 pt. font, double-spaced, 1” margins). 3-5 pp.

Writing Assignment 2

(10 pts.) For this writing assignment, pick a specific discourse community that you are interested in and explain to me why and how it qualifies as a discourse community by comparing it to the criteria described in your English 1301 course pack. This assignment will be 2-3 pages in length (500-750 words), typed Times New Roman 12-font, double-spaced, and follows standard MLA format. You need to include at least 2 citations (quotes from your course material) in your essay and a Work Cited page. 2-3 pp.

Writing Assignment 3

(10 pts.) Based upon our review of the types of argumentation used in communication (logos, pathos, ethos, and kairos), pick a particular (current) television commercial and analyze it by comparing these forms of argumentation to it. This assignment will be 2.5-4 pages in length (625-1000 words), typed Times New Roman 12-font, double-spaced, and follows standard MLA format. Include at least two references and a separate works cited page with this assignment. 2.5-4 pp.

(30 pts.) Choose a key theme from the course (discourse community, literacy sponsor, literacy, Burkean Parlor, CARS model, rhetorical terms, etc.) and create a photo essay illustrating your understanding of these themes. This essay will consist of images you created or collected with a paragraph about each image explaining why that image illustrates the concept you chose. Keep in mind, this essay should be more than just a collection of images. Those images should help tell a story about the concept. Think about what stories involved: an argument, a beginning, middle, an arc, and an end. In other words, you are using your images—a kind of rhetoric—to tell a story about a concept.

In addition to completing WA 4, all students will present their photo essays to the class on a designated day on the last week of class. The grading breakdown for the photo essay project is as follows:

Presentation: 10pts
Attendance: 5pts
Total: 30pts

Conferences

(10 pts.—5 pts. each) All students will be required to attend two conferences with the instructor during the semester. These conferences are designed to give us time to discuss expectations and any questions or concerns that may arise.

Participation

(10 pts.) Participation is based on class attendance and involvement with discussions and in-class activities. Students are encouraged to attend the Celebration of Student Writing on December 11, 2015 at 11am to prepare for ENG 1302. Students who attend can receive extra credit or replace one absence.

Discussion, Notecards (Spot Checks) and Quizzes

Make sure to complete all reading assignments before class, because we will discuss each reading as a group. I believe knowledge is created through such group collaboration—the unique intersection of all of our perspectives, ideas and experiences. So for our class to be successful, each of you needs to come to class ready to ask your questions and share your insights. I will typically ask you to prepare for our discussion by writing an in-class response on a notecard (Spot Check) at the beginning of class. If I notice that our discussion is not fruitful (due to a lack of preparation), I will give pop quizzes, as well. Since you have chosen to become a college scholar, this should not be necessary.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Please contact you instructor with any questions you may have. Your instructor's communication preference is e-mail, and her address is: michelletvete@gmail.com. Also, each instructor in the department of literature and languages is required to keep at least three office hours per course per week. My office hours are MWF 10:50-12:00 and TR 10:45-11:30 & 3:15-3:45 in HoL 233.

Grievance Procedure

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with the Director of First-Year Writing, Dr. Tabetha Adkins, by completing a student grievance form available on the program website:

<http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/colleges/humanitiesSocialSciencesArts/departments/literatureLanguages/firstYearWriting/informationForStudents.aspx>.

Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 ("Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation").

Departmental Chain of Command for ENG 100/1301/1302 courses: Instructor -> Dr. Tabetha Adkins, Director of First-Year Writing -> Dr. Susan Stewart, Assistant Department Head or Dr. Hunter Hayes, Department Head

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures

Attendance Policy

Since our class meets twice a week, you may miss up to four (4) times without penalty. After the fifth absence, your final grade will drop by one letter. After the seventh absence, you cannot pass the course.

Three tardies=one absence. Please arrive for our class on time. Coming in late not only means that you are missing important information/discussion and showing disrespect for your professor—it distracts your fellow students who have put in the necessary effort to arrive on time.

The university has no policy for “excused absences” except for university sanctioned events, so please save your absences for illness, court appearances, child care arrangements, and other situations when you must miss class.

The reading response you write (on your notecards) at the beginning of class will also count for your attendance. If you are not in class to write the response, then you cannot make it up (whether you are absent or simply tardy). If you are tardy, then you must write me an explanation on your notecard instead and turn that in at the end of class (so you will be counted present, but tardy).

Academic Honesty

The official departmental policy: “Instructors in the Department of Literature and Languages do not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Instructors uphold and support the highest academic standards, and students are expected to do likewise. Penalties for students guilty of academic dishonesty include disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion. (Texas A&M University-Commerce Code of Student Conduct 5.b [1,2,3])

If you ever have any questions about a particular use of a source, always ask your instructor. They want you to avoid plagiarism, too, so they will help you do so whenever and wherever they can. Do what you can to take advantage of this support—to look innocent in addition to being innocent when it comes to charges of plagiarism.

Students guilty of academic dishonesty of plagiarism can expect to fail the assignment in question or the entire course depending on the nature of the incident. See your Writing at Texas A&M University-Commerce Guide (a required text for this course) for more information.)

On University-Sanctioned Activities

To accommodate students who participate in university-sanctioned activities, the First-Year Composition Program offers sections of this course at various times of the day and week. If you think that this course may conflict with a university-sanctioned activity in which you are involved--athletics, etc.--please see your instructor after class on the first day.

University Specific Procedures

ADA Statement

Students with Disabilities

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See Code of Student Conduct from Student Guide Handbook). Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum:

<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.
