Course Description
This course is designed to study the fundamentals of writing both formal and informal reports and other forms of business communication. Included is the study of interpersonal communication and worldwide business communication. Prerequisite: Junior standing

Course Objectives
- Students will develop the ability to express themselves in writing, including a thorough knowledge of grammar, mechanics, and basic writing skills, differentiating between positive, negative, neutral and persuasive messages. Students will also analyze information gathered from research to draw accurate conclusions, utilize the formats for “Direct and Indirect” Communication strategies and formal and informal styles of reports, and demonstrate techniques to graphically communicate information for written and oral communications.
- Students will understand how businesses communicate through formal and informal communication networks as well as in groups, and understand how the ethical goals of business communication and tools for communicating ethically in business.
- Students will be able to compare and contrast active, passive, and not listening behavior as well as strategies to listen effectively while demonstrating the communication elements that are part of the communicating using the “you view”.
- Students will be able to recognize communication meanings that are rooted in cultural experience.

Students with Disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodations of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Submitting Assignments
Most assignments will be submitted through eCollege. Each Week begins on a Monday and ends on the following Sunday. Assignments will be due no later than 11:59pm on the date specified in the Due Date column in the Course Schedule below. Most assignments may be submitted early and I STRONGLY recommend that you do not wait until the last few minutes of the night they are due to submit assignments, since technical difficulties can occur at any time. Deadlines are extremely important in the business world. Late assignments will not be accepted. Since a dependable, high-speed internet connection is a requirement for this course, I do not accept late work on the basis of technical difficulties.

Reading Assignments (Weekly)
Quantity = 16, Points Each = 0, Total Points = 0
We will cover one textbook chapter per week throughout the semester. It is your responsibility to read each chapter before or during the week in which we’ll cover it, per the Course Schedule below, so you will be prepared to complete the assignments due that week.
Highlights Discussion Assignments (Weekly)
Quantity = 16, Points Each = 20, Total Points = 320, Percentage of Course Grade = 16%
- The purpose of the Highlights Discussion Assignments are to allow you to interact with other students in the class on specific business communication topics.
- You are required to make weekly postings to specified topics.
- Please refer to the "Assignments Due:" and "Due Dates:" columns in the Course Schedule below for Discussion topics and the weeks they are due (Discussion topics are in pink text).
